FROM EUROPE.

A Great Battle Imminent. Epecial to the Courrier des Etats-Unis.

Paris, Aug. 25 .- I will be brief. I cannot speak of the movements of MacMahon, upon whom rests to-day all hope for the country. Silence is both my security and duty, but I ean say that I share these hopes, and that I believe that the conquered of Woorth will gain a brilliant revenge. A great battle is imminent, not because we seek to deliver it, but because the enemy is in a condition which makes it absolutely necessary for his success to move with rapidity. Delays will turn against him.

Prussia's Victory Must Be Immediate if at all. Von Moltke knows that Germany, with its system of recruiting, must conquer promptly, or will be the real victim of the campaign. Fifteen days of inaction on his part will give us time to form two new armies and to reinforce those which to-day resist invasion. There is then necessarily an immediate prospect of a serious conflict.

All Peace Talk Futtle.

There is some talk of peace at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, but consider it for certain that, except under a crushing defeat, we will hear nothing of it so long as a Prussian soldier remains on the soil of France. D'Auvergne has said this, and the entire press unanimonaly approves it.

The Headquarters of King William are at Bar-le-Duc. One corps of the Prussian army which took part in the battle of Woerth occupies the Department of Aube.

The Paris Advance Continues The march of the enemy on Paris continues, but with evident hesitation. This is the news at the Ministry of the Interior up Another Stormy Session of the Corps Legislatif upon the errors of the Committee of Defense was held last night. As usual, there was much noise for nothing. The German Uhlans. LONDON, Aug. 26.-The German Uhlans are objects of prodigious terror at Paris. Their arrival there is momentarily expected. Patrols are stationed everywhere in the vicinity to announce the event. Resume of the Situation. LONDON, Aug. 26 .- The Times this morning has the following resume of the situa-

King William, leaving sufficient force before Metz, where the siege works rise like exhalations, joined the Crown Prince, who was pushing on for Paris. The movements of MacMahon begin now to be intelligible. A fugitive from Woerth, and avoiding Metz, he passed through the Vosges to the Moselle, to Nancy, and to Chalons, where he was reinforced by the Garde Mobile and volunteers. His obvious aim has been to bar the passages and prevent the advance of the Crown Prince on Paris. Affecting to disregard him, the Crown Prince moved on his flank past the camp at Chalons, offering MacMahon battle, which the latter declined, retreating on Rheims, leaving the Chalons camp all to the Prassians. Since that time Rheims itself has been abandoned. The obvious motive throughout on the part of the Prench has been to avoid a fight. The Prussians are now within a short march of Paris, where perhaps some slight additional resistance may be met.

The Grand March on Parls. Berlin, Aug. 26. - One corps of the First and Second Armies still confronts Bazaine, while the remainder of the Prussians have marched on Paris.

Inundation of Metz. Paris, Aug. 26.-The environs of Metz have been inundated by order of the French authorities. At a Council of Ministers yesterday favorable news was communicated from both of the French armies.

No Serious Fighting Yesterday. It is now certain there was no serious fighting yesterday, as reported in the Figuro last evening. The Government has received information that the Prussians are no longer at Chalons.

The army of the Prince Royal has retro-Mounted Gens d'Armes. Orders have been given to mounted gens d'armes to resist the raids of the Uhlans. The Toul Sortie.

La Libertie says at Toul the Garde Mobile made a sortie, defeating and killing the greater part of two Prussian regiments. The Artillery Fight at Hohl.

artiflery battle at Kehl and Strasburg on Wednesday night, lesting until Thursday morning at 5 o'clock. A large part of the citadel and arsenal in Strasburg are destroyed. Many fires have occurred in that city on account of the vigorous bombardment. A French battery located at Marvien was captured without loss to the Prussians. The French fire has destroyed about twenty houses in Kehl.

French Errors Rectified. BERLIN, Aug. 26.-The French stories that the Prussians were checked yesterday between Chalons and Verdun are false.

Beginning of a Reign of Terror. Paris, Aug. 25-Evening.-General Trochu, Governor of Paris, has decreed that all individuals devoid of means of subsistence, and whose presence contributes to the danger of public order and to the security of person or property, or whose acts tend to impede the measures of the authorities for defense and general safety, are to be expelled from Paris. All infractions of the above order must be defended before military tribunals.

Results of Trochn's o. der. Paris, Aug. 26 .- Many arrests were made last night. Over twelve hundred were occasioned by the order of General Trochu. Two hundred were persons arrested in the Faubourg Montmartre.

Prince Napoleon's Mission a Fallure. London, Aug. 26—11 A. M.—The London Times this morning contains a despatch from Florence stating that Prince Napoleon's demand for assistance was declined by Italy. A special Paris despatch says:-There are Ramors of Fighting, but nothing authentic.

MacMahon will undoubtedly be in battle to-day, and there are fears he will be defeated. Official circles are very silent, more so than at any former time this week. Resistless! The enemy march slowly but surely on the city. This is undeniable.

French Reports Exploded-The Crown Prince Messrs, D. C. Wharton Smith & Co., of this city (Philadelphia) have received the following special despatch)] London, Aug. 26.—Despatches down to o'clock A. M. explode the French reports that the Prussians were caught in a trap at Metz. The Crown Prince is still advancing. Mac-Mahon's movements are known to the Prussians, but they are regarded as of little conse-

FROM WASHINGTON.

Admiral Porter.

Special Deepatch to The Evening Te'egraph. WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.-Secretary Robeson. in conversation with a United States officer today, stated that Vice-Admiral David D. Porter was now admiral, his appointment as such having been made out and forwarded to him on the 20th of the present month. This appointment is subject to the confirmation of the Senate, but it is uscless to think of its meeting with any very serious opposition.

The Vice-Admiralship. The appointment to the vice-admiralship is one of considerable discussion and comment here among official circles. Nothing is definitely known as yet who will be the successful one. Admirals Goldsborough, Godon, Rowan, and Rodgers are named by many as the ones that the selection will doubtless be made from. However, there is a rumor in circulation, which appears to have considerable foundation, that the President has spoken in favor of Rear-Admiral Stephen C. Rowan, who is a resident of Pennsylvania, and is now on his return to the United States from the Asiatic station, where he has been in command for several years until relieved by Rear-Admiral Rodgers, who left New York in the Colorado in January last.

The Ordnance Department. Commodore A. Ludlow Case, Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, and who was acting Secretary of the Navy during the absence of Secretary Robeson, has instructions to visit the Philadelphia and several other Navy Yards on business connected with the Ordnance Department.

Appointment. Charles Brown, of Camden, has been appointed a watchman in the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Resignation Accepted. The resignation of Midshipman Winfield S. Baker, of the Guerriere, at New York, has been accepted. Professor Hayden and the Geological Survey.

Despatch to the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 -A letter received at the Interior Department from Professor Hayden, of the Geological Survey, dated at Fort Fetterman August 17, gives the satisfactory information of the safe arrival of himself and party at that point, meeting no difficulties on the route. and having prosecuted his survey successfully to that point. He states that since Red Cloud returned from Washington there have been no depredations whatever in that region, and that the party will proceed westward in a day or two through the Sweetwater Valley, and pro-

EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE.

A Furious and Destructive Fire is Malden Lane
—Five Persons Injured.

Shortly after 2 e'clock yesterday afternoon a terrific explosion occurred in the basement of the five-story brick building Nos. 118 and 120 Malden lane, occupied by John W. Wheelook, dealer in gasoline and kerosene oil. The cause of the explosion has not been ascertained, but as the cellar was filled with a large quantity of gasoline in barreis, it is supposed that the explosion was caused by the ignition, from some unknown cause, of the fumes of the gasoline. The explosion was of great force, and BLEW OUT THE DOORS

BLEW OUT THE DOORS of the cellar and the windows in the store. Mr. Wheelock, who was sitting in the store with some gentlemen when the explosion occurred, was blown out into the street and severely injured. Captain Simon Pepper, who was in the cellar at the time, was terribly burned about the face and body. James McShea, a porter in the employ of Wheelock, and George Chapin, a clerk in his employ, were also blown out of the building, and badly injured. Mr. Wheelock, after having gained the street, returned and entered the store to rescue his books and papers, and was about the face and body He was taken charge of by some friends, the police not having arrived, and removed to his residence, No. 121 Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn. His injuries are of a very severe and dangerous character. Captain Pepper was removed to the Second Precinct Police Station, and thence to the Park Hospital. His injuries are of a terrible nature, and it is feared that fatal consequences may ensue.

THE GASOLINE ON PIRE. In the meantime, the barrels of gasoline in the cellar had taken fire and were burning furiously, the names pouring forth in dense volumes through the cellar door and the grating in front. The Fire Department were promptly on hand, but their efforts were unavailing to check the names. Fearing that the names would communicate with the adjoining buildings, which are filled with a large stock of oil, etc., Chief Engineer Perley ordered

A SECOND ALARM to be sounded. which brought to his aid a strong reinforcement of firemen and steamers. The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the cellar in which they had originated. The firemen were compelled to allow the gasoline to burn itself out, and contented themselves with filling the cellar with water in their efforts to drown out the flames.—N. Y. World to-day.

THE LAST EXCURSION OF BECK'S BAND TO-MORROW.—The final excursion of Beck's Philadelphia Band, No. 1, positively the last of the season, will take place to-morrow, Saturday, August 27, the last boat leaving Walnut street wharf at 7:30 A. M. This excursion will be by rail over the Camden and Amboy and other will be a season, when the season will be by rail over the Camden and Amboy and other will be season. railroads, and a variation of former programmes will be made which will allow all to remain eight hours at Long Branch. Here there will be much sight-seeing to do on that day, and it will not be unlikely that the greater part of the expensations of the expensations of the seeing to do on the sight-seeing to do on that day, and it will not be unlikely that the greater part of the expensations are seen as a second process. cursionists would prefer to stop over at this point rather than to go on to New York Bay as before. The series of trotting matches at Monmouth Park, Long Branch, will take place on that day, and the grand review and dress parade of Fisk's celebrated 9th Regiment, now encamped at the Branch, can be witnessed. Their encampment. also, can be inspected by all who are interested in such matters. The number of tickets for the excursion has positively been limited, so as to avoid all danger of an overcrowded train, as on a former occasion. Tickets cannot be bought on the morning of the excursion, nor will any one be allowed upon the train without a ticket. The fare for the entire excursion is only $2:50, which certainly is not a large sum, considering what is furnished for the money.

Mysterious.—About 3 o'clock this morning, whilst Officers Shern, of the Fifth, and Harrigan, of the Sixth districts, were standing at Eighth and Chesnut streets, they heard a crash which sounded as though it came from an alley near Sansom street. Proceeding to the place, they entered, when Officer Shern climbed a fence to take a survey of a yard. No sooner had he done so than a pistol bullet went whizzing past his ear. Of course he soon got down off that fence. Proceeding more cautiously a further examination was made, when it was found that me thieves had broken open the the house No. 809 Sansom street, and had passed through the yard with the intention of robbing some one of the stores on Chesnut street, above Eighth. They managed to escape.

WHOLESALE GROCERY STORE ROBBED. - At an early hour this morning the wholesale gro-cery establishment of Messrs. Thornton and Barnes, 324 North Delaware Avenue, was en-tered by thieves and robbed of two bags of Java coffee, ten chests of tea and sundry other artieles, the total value of which is not known. How the thieves gained an entrance is yet a mystery. To remove the goods it is supposed a wagon was used.

SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN. - At a meeting of the Directors of the above institution held yesterday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:—President, W. P. Wilstach: Vice-President, William J. Horst-mann; Treasurer, James S. Claghorn, and Secretary, J. P. Morris.

RECKLESSNESS.—Philip Gallen was yesterday arrested at Front and Callowhill streets for reckless driving, he having run the pole of his wagon into the rear of another vehicle, doing considerable damage. Alderman Cahili held him in $600 ball to answer.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Officer McQuade, of the First district, yesterday found an unknown man lying on the pavement on Birch street, west of Fifteenth. The sufferer, who said he was sick with a chill, was removed to the station house, where he soon after died.

SLIGHT FIRE,—About 8 o'clock last evening Officer King, of the Fourth district force, discovered a fire in Johnson's foundry, Filbert street, above Sixth. With the aid of some citizens it was extinguished without any alarm

THE RESULT OF ANGER .- About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a man named William Duckett was severely cut about the head with a bar of iren, wielded by a newsboy, whom he had been tantalizing. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

S. P. C. A .- Alderman Alexander this morning fined one John Zimmerman for cruelly belaboring two over-loaded mules. The arrest was made at the Wire Bridge, by Captain Chasteau, of the Park Guard.

BEATING A POLICEMAN.-Alderman Jones has held in $600 bail one James Starr on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon Officer Murray, of the Sixth district, at Twelfth and Filbert streets yesterday.

N. Y. MONEY MARKET YESTERDAY. From the N. Y. Berald.

Prom the N. F. Bereid.

"The gold market, which still engrosses the larger share of the attention of the street, was again the scene of an excited turn this proming. Even before the formal opening of the room the market was agitated by the reports of a sudden break in our bonds in London, which were stated to have declined to say. Upon this there was a rush on the part of the bears to cover outstanding short sales, which carried the price rapidly up to 118. The first recorded sales were made in the room at 117%, the premium again advancing to 118. A later despatch showing a recovery in the London market, the market reacted and gradually declined to 116%. In the interim the information that the Bank of England rate of discount had been reduced to four par cent was received, but in the face of the decline in bonds was without effect upon the market. The war news received, although of the usual mixed, unsatisfactory, and contradictory character, sizening to infer a less favorable althouton for the French than had been previously reported, alded in this decline. From this figure it rallied to 117%, but went of sgain upon a still further improvement is the London market and a second time touched 116%. Here it sunered yet another reaction and recovered to 117, going off, however, toward the close and settling to the lowest figure upon a rumor to the effect that a pool is organizing to depress the price; that this pool intends to horrown large amount of gold on time—the amount name the $5.000,000—and to throw the same on the market during the seemingly mythical pool to advance the premium, which has excited the market during the past few days, and the course of the premium to-day does not certainly favor its existence. There are many who reassert, however, that such a clique has been formed to advance the price of gold, which may or may not develop into an effort to make a corner, but the prevailing impression is that only a short turn will be attempted. There are unscrupulous speculators enough here who would not hesitate at any scheme whereby their own profit may be served, at whatever sacrifice of principle; but these have a wholesome lear of Secretary Boutwell, and fully appreciate that no conspiracy to disturb trade, similar to that of a year ago, will be suffered to gain anything like the same head, and with a constant apprehension of his sudden interference in their minds will scarcely venture very largely into any 'pool,' lest it might prove an ocean that would swallow up them and their fortunes.

appears was warp? It is

"The money market continues to work with the same case already noted, the general dulness on the Stock Exchange rendering the demand for currency of a very limited character. The prevailing rate on call was five per cent., although exceptions occurred where the collateral offered was governments at four per cent, and at six per cent. on stocks.

"The Government market was unfavorably affected early in the day by the London advices, exhibiting a very considerable decline in the prices of sixty-twos in the market, and later by the large offerings at the Sub-Treasury, amounting in the aggregate to $6,544,000, which counteracted a subsequent improvement in London. The offerings which were distributed were, however, all close on to the market price The Government purchased $2,000,000 at prices ranging from 108-78 to 109-14."

SHOCKING DEATH.

Another Case of Hydrophobia—An Riderly Gen-ileman the Victim—His sufferings and Doath. The St. Louis Republican of the 23d instant

The worst symptoms of hydrophobia were developed yesterday in the case of Edwin Krueg, a German, fifty-seven years of age. Krueg is very tall, six feet at least, and has grey beard and whiskers. His expression of face is gaunt and haggard, and when in one of his temporary attacks of madness he raves quite frantically, and his appearance is well calculated to excite horror. He lost the use of one eye some years ago. He is said to have been an engineer, but has not been actually engaged for some time. He is also a man of family. The particulars of the dog-biting which led to such shocking results are as follows:—

of the dog-biting which led to such shocking results are as follows:—

The unfortunate man was playing with a dog, about six weeks ago, and received a slight wound from his teeth on the hand, and although he was asked to have the wound cauterized, he neglected to do so. The first unfavorable symptoms exhibited themselves about six days ago, and the aid of Dr. Rimberger was called in. He then pronounced it a case of hydrophobia. The patient became worse, and to the ordinary symptoms of the disease, dread of water and spasms, accompanied with a dog-like utterance, was added at times the wild behavior of a desperate lunatic.

The health officer was notified of the case yesterday, and requested to take the sick man to the hospital. An ambulance was sent to the address given, and the doctor went there himself, but had only a faint idea of the reception he was going to meet with. Krueg was found sitting up in bed with a razor in one hand and a loaded rifle in the other, prepared for all comers. His delusion at the time was that he was going to be killed, and that he ought razor in one hand and a loaded rifle in the other, prepared for all comers. His delusion at the time was that he was going to be killed, and that he ought to defend himself. The ambulance driver was obliged to call in the aid of the police, and four officers were assigned the task of escorting the forious patient to the hospital. The old man gestionlated and raved considerably, but he was in time safely ensconced in a comfortable cell at the City Hospital. After being there a short time the patient was restored somewhat to rational tranquility. He is subject, however, to paroxysms and convuisions, and is fully aware when they are coming on. He has not eaten or drank anything since Saturday, and water he cannot even bear to see, shuddering and gasping when it meets his eyes, or anything like it. In his calm moments he has said that he would like some bread soaked in beer, and this diet will probably be allowed him for a time.

There is something unusual about the esse, and some hopes are entertained that the patient may recover under medical treatment. As the awful disease of hydrophobia is, however, clearly indicated, such a result is hardly probable. The dog which bit this man was not supposed to be mad at the time, but a few days afterward it had what the people near the place called "fits," and died.

NEGRO OUTBREAK.

A Body of Colored Men Attack a Georgia Jall and Release the Prisoners-Troops Seat For-Intense Excitement. The Savannah Republican of the 23d instant

We are indebted to Mr. L. L. Carswell, who arrived from Louisville on the down Central passenger and freight train, due at Savannah yesterday afternoon at half-past 5 o'clock, for the following information regarding an outbreak on the part of the negroes of that town.
On Saturday afternoon last about one hundred negroes broke into the jail at Louisville, the county, seat of Jefferson county, and re-leased all the inmates mostly, if not all, negroes. The attack seemed to be particularly directed to secure the liberty of a negro who had been imprisoned for shooting a horse or mule. The intensest excitement prevailed among the people and spread through the county ilke wild-

On Sunday the negroes sent out runners in every direction, and soon collected a force upevery direction, and soon collected a force up-wards of one thousand strong. This body paraded the streets in bands, cursing and hur-rahing and behaving themselves in the most dis-orderly manner—even going so far in their law-lessness as to threaten to burn the town. At this crisis, the whites rapidly turned out to de-fend the place, sending messengers to Emanuel and other counties for assistance, which was sent in squads of men as fast as circumstances would allow all Sunday night, and up to eleven o'clock yesterday morning. O'clock yesterday morning.
On Sunday night the citizens of Louisville sent a messenger to Atlanta for a detachment of United States troops, which is expected to arrive
