MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The Opening Night at the Arch. On Saturday night the Arch Street Theatre opened for the season with Goldsmith's ever fresh and entertaining comedy of She Stoops to Conquer. A very large audience was in attendance, which applanded as heartly as the actors could desire, and the ladies and gentlemen on the stage for their part played with proper animation, and endeavored to make the occasion an enjoyable one to all concerned in it. She Stoops to Conquer is an excellent play to show the strength of a stock company, for while its characters are a little more than conventionalities, its humorous situation and bright, sparkling dialogue demand a high degree of culture in the actors if the comedy is to give the proper amount of pleasure to the class of play-goers who prefer a spicy dialogue that betrays the pen of a master to the stunning situations of the mere scissors-and-paste-pot dramatists. She Stoops to Conquer has held its place upon the stage for a good many years, and the bloom of Goldsmith's genial nature is as fresh upon it as it was when it was first produced at Covent Garden Theatre amid the applause of the public and the congratulations of the loving friends of the impecunious author. The performance on Saturday evening was not great, but it was good, and it showed the company at the Arch to be fully up to the average of past seasons, and in some respects stronger than it was last year. Mr. Barton Hill appeared as "Young Marlowe," Mr. Mackay as "Hardeastle," Mr. Craig as "Tony Lumpkin," Mr. James as "Mr. Hastings," Mrs. Wallis as "Sir Charles Marlowe," Mr. Hemple as "Diggory," Mrs. Drew as "Miss Hardcastle," Mrs. Thayer as "Mrs. Hardcastle," and Miss Emilie Kiehl as "Miss Neville." These ladies and gentlemen were greeted with cordial applause when they made their appearance, and a most hearty welcome was extended to Mr. Barton Hill in particular, who takes his old position of leading man and stage manager after a year's absence in England. Mr. Wallis, who has also been away from the Arch for a year, was likewise welcomed back with much cordiality. The only new face in the company is that of Miss Emilie Kiehl, a young lady of prepossessing appearance, and apparently of fair abilities as an actress. Miss Kiehl was nervous at first on facing a strange audience, but this soon wore off, and she played the not very exacting part of "Miss Neville" with grace and spirit.

The comedietta of The Swiss Swains was given as an atterpiece, for the purpose of introducing Miss May Saville, the new soubrette. Mrs. Maeder, and Mr. McManus. Miss Saville is a pleasant singer, a graceful dancer, and a sprightly actress. She promises to be a valuable acquisition to the company.

Mr. Mark Hassler appeared as leader of the orchestra, and gave an agreeable selection of popular music. Mr. Hassler, as the presiding musical genius of the Chesnut last year, proved that he knew how to cater for the public tastes in the line of his art, and under his management the music at the Arch will probably be a prominent feature of the entertainment during the present season.

The City Amusements.

At the Walnut Mr. Forrest will appear this evening as "King Lear." To-morrow evening Damon and Pythias will be performed, on Wednesday Richelieu, and on Thursday Othello.

programme, which contains many interesting and attractive features, will be presented.

FAST LIVING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES .- When "fast life" has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and stolen the hue of health from the cheek-when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of PLANTA-TION BITTERS. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not sumcient alone. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the corporeal and mental energies from their state of collapse. This good work it is the mission of the Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

THE $15 FALL AND WINTER SUITS, which are so popular at this time and so beautifully cut, made, and trimmed, and in such vast varieties that you have only to look upon them and they will speak to you-not in an audible voice, but by a power more potent than words-they will speak to your understanding, to your pecuniary interests, to your personal appearance, even to physical powers, for they adorn you with a full chest and broad and square shoulders. There is nothing to compete with the $15 suits sold at the Great Brown Stone Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 CHESNUT Street.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the jeweller at No. 8 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewelry and Silverware in the city. He has also on hand a fine assort-ment of fine American Western Watches. Those who purchase at this store at the present time are certain to get the worth of their money.
