NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -Before Alderman Smith, yesterday afternoon, James Monaghan had a final hearing on the charge of shooting James Cleary on Sunday night, the 28th of August. Com-plainant testified that he was at the public house of Edward Bonnoll, No. 17 South Ninth street, when two men drove up in a wag on and came into the tavern to get a drink. One of the men asked him to drink with them, and while he was at the bar Monaghan threw a tumbler at him, and he hurled the bar pitcher at Monaghan; then they clinched and were soon separated. Monaghan then went away and returned in an hour and a half, and presented a pistol at witness. Cleary jumped and got hold of him, and both fell to the floor. Monaghan fired three shots, one of which took effect in Cleary's hip, Megargee, residing in the Twenty-second ward, was aroused from sleep by a noise in the house, and upon going down stairs discovered a man in the act of tundling up some articles preparatory to their removal. Giving the alarm, Policeman William Bishop came to his assistance, and the burglar was secured.

meeting yesterday afternoon, at their rooms on South Fifth street. The several representatives of the various trusts made report that matters were progressing satisfactorily in their different departments. The row of new houses upon the Girard property at Sixth and Brown streets were being rapidly erected. Two of them are already under roof; four others are rapidly being roofed; and the remaining ten, for the same purpose, will be ready by next week. The alteration into stores of the three dwellings in Girard Row is being rapidly pushed forward. The estate, when they are completed, will be one of the finest rows of stores in the city. The studies in the college have been resumed, after a vacation of two months. The boys are now attending to their studies with renewed energy. A battalion of cadets has been organized, and supplied with muskets suited to their age. Military discipline is now an established portion of the institution, and these four companies of college cadets, well uniformed, are in an excellent state of discipline. They are armed and equipped, with their own band, consisting of pupils. They present a very pleasing appearance. The Board have directed the paving of Water street with Belgian blocks, but the lateness of the season and the difficulty of procuring material will compel a delay until the coming spring. The board are taking measures for a thorough examination of the valuable Girard lands in Schuylkill and Columbia counties, as well as the large body of lands in Centre county bequeathed to them by Elias

-The Republican Invincibles held a large meeting last evening at Concert Hall. Hon. R. Stockett Matthews was the orator.

-About 8 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the upper story and roof of No. 630 Spruce street. Before water could be put on it, the flames had gained considerable headway and threatened the destruction of the surrounding property. They were finally got under control, and had been apparently extinguished, when they suddenly broke out from beneath the tin on the roof of No. 628, and for a short time they burned fiercely. They were finally extinguished by the flood of water poured upon them, but not until considerable loss had been entailed upon the occupant and owner of the property No. 628, Mrs. A. P. Anderson. The damage will not probably exceed $2500, and is fully covered by insurance.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

THE PROSPECTS OF PEACE-THE ARMISTICE ASKED BY FRANCE-STRASBURG AND TOUL-THEIR HEROIC DEFENSE-THE PRUSSIANS ABOUND PARIS-THE REVOLUTION IN ROME. Londen, Sept. 14.—[Dispatch to New York Herald.]—In diplomatic circles in this city, the mission of M. Thiers is deemed a complete failure, so far as it relates to the application for an inter-cession in behalf of a stay of hostilities.

London, Sept. 14.—[Dispatch to the New York Herald.]—The latest advices from Strasburg are to the effect that the heroic defence is drawing to a close, and the surrender is imminent, occasioned by the failure of ammunition and provisions.

London, Sept. 14.—[Special to the New York Tribune.]—The Bavarian ministers are considering a scheme for the reconstruction of the North German Confederation and for forming a German Parliament. The democratic socialists are agitat-ing for peace with their French brethren, and are protesting against the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine. A printed address was seized by the police in Brunswick and its authors and publis

Mr. Washburne's letter to Favre is sharply criti-cised by the national Zeitung. It is said that he had authority merely to recognize the new Re-public, and all beyond was an expression of personal public, and all beyond was an expression of personal feeling. It complains of his failure to protect the Germans under his care, now persecuted by Gambetta more cruelly than before. The King prohibits the storming of Strasburg until it is possible without a great sacrifice of life. It is confirmed that Bazaine refuses all terms, and it is expected that he will attempt to cut his way out.

The removal of General Steinmetz was caused

The removal of General Steinmetz was caused partly by his needless sacrifice of troops, and partly by his having fought at Spirecken and Forbach against General Moltke's orders, and made the battles of August 14 and 16 necessary. The German Princes are preparing a manifesto regarding the future organization and government of Germany, to forestell results a sign and anticipate liberal to forestall popular action and anticipate liberal action. Paris, Sept. 14, via London.—Jules Favre has received the congratulations of the diplomatic representatives of England, Spain, Austria and Holland, who remain at Paris.

The fugitives from Marshal McMahon's army reach the neighborhood by hundreds.

The Prussians are pumping the water from the moate around Strasburg, and it is reported that that they are preparing to send out balloons from which nitro-glycerine will be dropped into the French magazines.

T'mes.]—I am convinced that we shall soon have peace. The Republicans now say openly that peace must be had at any price. One who has intimate relations with the government tells me to-day that, cost what it may, peace will be made at once, as the only way of saying the Republic. The Franco American fraternization is culminating into extravagances. Mr. Washburne is the hero of the hour, and daily demonstrations in his honor take place. The name of the Avenue l'Imperatrice is to be changed to the "Avenue des Etats Unis."

Paris, Sept. 13, evening.—[Special dispatch to the New York Tribune.]—One of the secretaries of the Brilish embassy has started for the Prussian headquarters to ask whether negotiations are possible.

A correspondent, writing from Rheims, Sept. 8, describes a conversation with Bismarck, who began by expressing high regard for General Sheridan, and gratitude to the United States for their sympathy with Germany.

To a remark concerning German unity Bismarck replied that there was no stronger friend of unity than himself, but care was required in accomplish-ing the work. "South Germany having fought by our side her wishes must be considered and her inclinations cannot now be compelled. We must obtain the consent of those States to join us. In Bavaria it seems impossible to agree on any form of union, even among those who favor union. At Baden things look better. No doubt there is an opening."

The news of the French Republic had just been received, on which Bismarck said, "We shall not interfere with their domestic affairs." To a suggestion that there must be some settled government to give Prussia a secure, guarantee for the payment of the war expenses and indemnity, Bis-marck replied only by repeating "We don't want to interfere with the domestic affairs of France. Our people think we must have those Gorman pro-Our people think we must have those Gorman provinces that France took from us many years ago. We must, at least, render France powerless to menace us by the same road. Metz and Strasburg we must have, and we ask no more. They are necessary to our own safety. We are a very patient people. They have been telling us that we would not fight, and that they would compel us. Well, we are like the father of a family, who, after enduring many insults, at last consents to fight a duel, but only on condition that the struggle shall be decisive and shall be limil."

A correspondent, writing from the headquarters

A correspondent, writing from the headquarters of the Italian army at Terni, on Sept. 10, says Senor Martini passed through that place, returning from Rome, taking only an autograph letter from the King to the Pope, in which the King simply stated that considering the important events that had occurred, he had though it his duty to occupy the Paral territory, requising to the Paral territory. the Papal territory, promising to the Pontiff the free exercise of his spiritual office.

According to Cadorno's information, Martini had been received by the Pope, who said: "When the King's troops enter, I will declare myself a prisoner." Cadorno believes the Pope has ordered his troops not to resist the Italian government, and that he ardently desires to avoid bloodshed. Col. that he ardently desires to avoid bloodshed. Col. Charette, commander of the Papal forces, notwithstanding the Pope's order, threatens to oppose the Italians. His force is concentrated near Montfalco, where defensive works are thrown up.

The zouaves threaten to massacre the people if a rising occurs. Cadorno told me that if any act of brutality is committed they will kill the foreign troops to the last man, but the natives will be treated as brothers.

Three divisions of the Italian army are encamped near Terni.
I asked Cadorno if there was any chance of their now abandoning the enterprise, and he started and exclaimed, "Don't you see the spirit of the army and the people; to draw back now would be to ruit the government." FLORENCE, Sept. 11.—The answer sent by Martini from the Pope proves to be utterly illegible. The Cabinet vamly endeavored to decipher it, and the dispatch is believed to be a trick of Antonelli

London, Sept. 14 — [Special dispatch to the New York Tribune.]—General Hazen arrived yesterday and left for the German headquarters, General Bernstorff having telegraphed to Count Bismarck for a pass. Captain Raymond Rodgers, of the steamship Franklin, is here. His ship will remain for some weeks at Portsmouth. The mails started to-night for Paris, but none have arrived. A correspondent telegraphs from Berlin to-day as follows: On trustworthy authority I can give the position of the government as follows: The so-called national defence government in Paris, though existing de facto, is of no validity de jure, nor will we treat with it.

When Paris is taken, the Senate and Corps Legislatif with the regency, the government de jure.

When peace has been concluded, Napoleon will be released and France will be left free to have an Emperor, or such other government as its people may want.

Great meetings have been held of the workmen of La Croix Rousse, who threatened Fort Montressy. Martial law was declared and the people clamored for the expulsion of the Jesuits, and coffins were opened in one of the convents in search of arms and money.

General Ripley, of confederate fame, and two artillery officers of the United States army during the war have commands under Trochu.

Many Americans have volunteered. The Seine is patrolled by gunboats. The advance guard of the Prussians is before Paris, consisting of 45,000 men, and the remainder are moving up slowly, having reached Coulommiers on Tuesday in force. There is a rumor of an engagement yesterday between the German light cavairy and sharpshooters, at Moret, a station four miles from Fontainebleu, in which the cavairy were badly beaten and driven back. An alliance between Russia and Austria is believed to have been consummated.
