City Affaire. -The Democratic Senatorial Conferees of Delaware, Montgomery, and Chester counties met yesterday at the Girard House, and organized by selecting the Hon. Owen Jones for President and Mr. W. H. Hodgson for Secretary. There were placed in nomination Andrew J. Anderson, of Montgomery; Wm. Gamble, of Delaware; and Benjamin W. Jones, of Chester. After two unsuccessful ballots, the question arose as to which of the counties was entitled to the nomination according to previous understanding, and it being generally conceded that Chester was, Mr. John H. Brinton offered the following, which was unanimously adopted: -

Resolved, That Benjamin W. Jones, of Chester county, be the nowinee for Senator, and we recommend him to the cordial support of the Democracy and of all conservative citizens of the district, as fitted by his practical knowledge, sound judgment, sterling integrity, and steadfastness to principle, to be a useful and influential member of the Senate of Panneylvania. Pennsylvania

-Sarah Madden, twenty-two years old, residing in Lincoln avenue, while attempting to fill a lighted lamp with coal oil last evening, set her dress on fire, and, before the flames could be extinguished, she was dreadfully burned on the breast and shoulders. When she discovered the fire she ran into the avenue and would have burned to death but for the prompt assistance rendered by some of the neighbors, who tore her burning clothes from her body. She was removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital, in great agony, her injuries being thought fatal.

-In the Second division of the Seventh ward the canvassers have refused to register colored men unless they produced as vouchers two white men. It is said that about twenty-five colored men have been thus excluded; and the allegation is that the exclusion, being by Republican officers, is in interest of one of the two disputants for the Congressional honors. Yesterday, in the Common Pleas, Mr. Christian Kneass applied to Judge Ludlow for an alternative mandamus to compel the registry of Mr. Roper, a colored man, who had been refused. The writ was granted, and made returnable on the 1st of October, when the Board of Canvassers again meet.

-Jacob McKean, a frame maker, 26 years old, while gunning yesterday at Greenwich Point, accidently shot himself in the head, causing almost instant death. He resided in Beck street.

Domestic Affairs.

-On Monday there were 123 deaths from cholera in Havana. -The Rev. Dr. Niles is to be consecrated Episcopal Bishop of New Hampshire to-day. -The centennial anniversary of the Universalists commenced at Gloucester, Mass., yesterday.

-Charles W. Johnson, Esq., has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the First district of St. Louis, Mo.

-The Executive mansion at Washington is rapidly being placed in proper condition for the reception of President Grant and his family.

-Fisk and Maretzek had a spirited quarrel yesterday morning at the Grand Opera House in New York, during the rehearsal of the opera bouffe; at the conclusion of which they dissolved their business connections.

THE INVESTMENT OF PARIS-BATTLE NEAR THE CAPITAL AND REPORTED FRENCH VICTORY-BISMARCK ON PEACE-THE TERRIBLE SUFFER-ING IN FRANCE-APPEAL TO AMERICA FOR AID. Tours, Sept. 20.—All telegraphic communica-tion with Paris ceased yesterday.

The journals here express apprehensions that Tours may be attacked, in which case they say the government will remove to Bordeaux. M. Thiers started to-day on a special train for Vienna, whence he will proceed to St. Petersburg. While here he received a dispatch from Prince Gortschakoff, inviting him in the name of the Czar to come to St. Petersburg, and urging him to hasten his journey.

The wife of Bazaine is in Paris, and received a letter from her husband a few days since. It was sent out of Metz in a balloon, which fortunately fell outside the Prussian lines. Its contents have not been made public. BRIEY, Sept. 19.—[Special to the New York Tribune.]—The distress is so great in the Departments of the Moselle, Meuse, Meurthe and Ardennes that the authorities have prepared an appeal for aid to all the neutral nations, especially America and England, saying the people are de-pendent on their crops and their cattle, and nothing is left, houses, stables and barns having been de-stroyed, and their fields and meadows tramped down. They have had no harvest at all; their stock has been seized and their laborers pressed into the

There is not even corn enough left for seed, and starvation and pestilence impend. You, our American brethren, must know the desolation in which we live, yet you have been quickly restored. Your country is naturally rich and ours is naturally poor country is naturally rich and ours is naturally poor Our resources cannot compare with yours, and consequently our sufferings are unspeakably greater. We implore you to send us aid. This appeal is signed by the mayors and other civil and ecclesiastical authorities of the numerous villages and towns between Metz. Sedan and Nancy.

ORLEANS, Sept. 20.—[Special to the New York Herald.]—An engagement took place at Vissons, in which 25,000 French, massed near the northern part of the town, were attacked by 15,000 Prussians, who were moved down by the French artillery, but after considerable loss recrossed the river in good order. The Prussians will fall back on another army corps.

A dispatch from Berlin to the Manchester Examiner says: "The report of Russia's arming is regarded as simply sensational."

The Eastern Budget, Count Beust's London organ, this evening contains a dispatch from St. Petersburg which says: "The reports that Russia has protested against any diminution of French territory is untrue.
"I can positively state that there are no signs of extraordinary activity in the military department here. The troops are all in their usual garrisons, and even the force in Poland has not been in-

'No one believes that Russia will take any active Part in the present war. The feeling, however, for France is very favorable."

General Cluseret is placarding the walls of Paris with an inflammatory address against the government.

Resolutions were passed by the government of Lyons, that in case of the surrender of Paris, her right to capitulate shall not be recognized by Lyons, and that the people will defend the country to the of the Romans.

The submarine cable between Prussia and Sweden has been cut by the French.

London, Sept. 20.—[Special to the New York Tribune.]—A dispatch just received here from Bismarck, dated September 19, reiterates the previous unofficial statement that Prussia will not dictate what government France shall accept, but cannot conclude peace excepting with a government having legal authority and able to guaratee the terms to be observed.

Thiers has accomplished nothing by his appeals to prevent the dismemberment of France by neutral intervention, which was totally rejected. The only other point pressed was that the present French government is the best now possible, and if it is overthrown, it will be followed by one far more repugnant to the other Powers. Earl Granville replied that he was aware of this, but could wait.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—[Special to New York Tribune.]—All the reserves have reached their regiments. The corps which has gone to storm Toul is under the Duke of Mecklenburg. General Ulrich, at Strasburg, being a Bonapartist, has greatly relaxed his zeal since the proclamation of the Republic. There are no signs of the capitulation of Metz. The cattle plague is still spreading with alarming rapidity, and cases are reported at theims and Nancy. Communication is uninterrupted by rail frum Homburg, in the Palatinate, to Nancy. A branch read, being built around Metz, connecting Saarbruck with Pont-a-Mousson and Nancy, is nearly finished. The heavy siege guns needed at Peris cannot be carried forward until Toul is reduced.

There is strong opposition among the German liberals to the restoration of the Bonaparte dynasty. The tone at headquarters is indicated by a letter from General Forsyth received yesterday, saying it is hard to tell what crowd Prussia can treat with after reaching Paris. Not with the Republic, for that is a private arrangement.

A letter from Count Bismarck, dated on September 11, states that the next phase of the war will be the investment, and in time, it is hoped, the occupation of Paris, and after that peace. The government of France, or those in power, whoever they may be, cannot desire further slaughter, when all that will be required of her will be to give certain absolute guarantees that the peace of Europe will not again be disturbed.

"I see," continues Bismarck," that I am paraded in the columns of certain journals as having stated what those guarantees must be and what they must not be. Of course these statements are merely romance. When approached by gentlemen of the press I generally give them civil answers, and their imagination does the rest. You know, of course, what guarantees are necessary to insure a lasting peace and to prevent ever again an aggressive war on the part of France against Germany. It is rather a military than a political question.

"The King and his friends will decide the true relation in good time. Meanwhile no overtures of peace can now be well received until the arma is before Paris, but rest assured that the safety of Germany is being properly secured and peace assured. No obstacles will be placed on the part of Germany is being properly secured and peace assured. No obstacles will be placed on the part of Germany in the way of a termination of the war into which she was dragged most unwillingly, but from which she was dragged most unwillingly, but from which she will pever retire until the legitimate aspirations of her children are received and the integrity of the Fatherland guaranteed, while the people of Germany are rendered safe from any future cruel and unnecessary conflict, the slaughter from which we cannot but look upon with horror."
