NEWS SUMMARY.

Ulty Affairs. -The first wedding celebrated in the new Synagogue Rodef Shalom, at the corner of Broad and Mount Vernon streets, took place yesterday afternoon. The parties were Mr.
Moses Stern and Miss Sarah Lang, both of this city. Rev. M. Jastrow, Rabbi of the congregation, performed the ceremony. The synagogue was crowded, and as the bride and groom entered from opposite sides of the house the organ struck up a march by Becker.

The ceremony resembled similar ones in Christian churches, except that the bride and groom each drank wine from the same goblet. At the close of the service the Wedding March from Midsummer Night's Dream was given on the organ, when the congregation

A fashionable wedding also took place yesterday afternoon, at the Synagogue Beth El Emeth, on Franklin street, below Wallace, the parties being Mr. Alexander H. Sampson, of New York, and Miss Rachel Elias, of North Carolina. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Jacobs.

-The brig Home, which lost her captain on her way to this port with what was supposed to be yellow fever, is still detained at the Lazaretto. The captain was part owner, and in behalf of his widow and children an effort has been made to effect the release of the vessel, but without success. except for a brief period, when she was towed to the city, but soon taken back upon com-plaint being made to the Board of Health. Since the vessel has been at the Lazaretto, she has been boarded by river thieves and considerable of her tackle carried off.

-The following statement made to the Grand Lodge I. O. of O. F. of the United States on Monday shows the progress of the Order during the past year:—Number of lodges in 1869, 3473; in 1870, 3765. Increase, 292. Number of members in 1869, 268,608; in 1870, 298,083. Net gain, 29,475, exclusive of Colorado. The question of changing the title from "Grand Lodge of the United States" to "Supreme" or "Most Worthy Grand Lodge" was discussed during Tuesday last, and it was decided to make no change.

-The inaugural meeting of the season was held at the Franklin Institute last evening and was largely attended. The discovery of a new mineral (Hallite) was announced by its discoverer, Professor Leeds, and the mechanical novelty of the day, "Sham's Compound Propeller Pump," was shown in operation.

-The fifth annual session of the Locomotive Firemen's Union closed yesterday. It was decided to hold the next session at St. Louis.

THE WAR.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

PARIS COMPLETELY INVESTED-THE PRUSSIAN VICTORY OF THE 19TH INSTANT-THE EN-TRANCE INTO BOME-REPORTED NEW ITA-LIAN CABINET, WITH MAZZINI AS PREMIER. London, Sept. 21 .- The German forces have occupied Nemours.

It is said General Werder threatens to utterly destroy the city of Strasburg if it does not surrender.

A dispatch from Mundelsheim states that on Tuesday lunette No. 53 before Strasburg was taken by the landwehr, notwithstanding a galling rifle fire.

The Free Masons in the German and French armies have given earnest evidence of their brotherhood and humanity during the war. The city of Paris is utterly shut in, and all the avenues of communication are cut off except by way of Berlin. An official dispatch received there from the Prussian headquarters before Paris reports that a redoubt, with seven guns, has been captured by the German troops. Another dispatch, from the King to the Queen, dated Tuesday, says the French abandoned their position near Pierrefitte, north of Fort St. Denis. At the same time the Prussian Bavarian corps, crossing the Seine near Villeneuve, attacked three divisions under command of General Vinoy, on the heights of Sceaux, and captured seven guns and many men. Fritz directed the movements. The weather is superb.

London, Sept. 21.—[Special to the New York Tribune.]—The Tribune's correspondent at Berlin telegraphs that the American minister, on authority, learns that Favre will be received in a private capacity only, and will be informed by Count Bismarck that Germany must insist, as a condition sine qua non of peace, on the surrender of the forts on the Moselle and Rhine by which Germany was threatened and attacked.

A dispatch received in London from Count Bismarck, yesterday, says Favre was cordially received at the King's headquarters, at Roths-child's chateau. Preliminary discussions were had relative to the time and mode of convoking the Constituent Assembly, in view of se-curing a sufficient guarantee for the fulfilment of the conditions to which the provisional government may yield its consent. The Tribune's special correspondent at Ber-lin telegraphs on the 21st that to-day's Provincial Correspondence, Ministerial organ, says the second circular of M. Jules Favre shows a marked sobering down. His former haught tone is measurably lowered; but apart from the legal competency which the Paris government lacks, it must be doubted whether the true state of affairs is sufficiently realized at Paris if France rejects the conditions which Germany must insist on.

The American branch of the International Association for the relief the sufferers by the European war, of which Dr. Bellows is president, met this evening at that gentleman's !

house, and resolved to issue an address to the American people, asking for contributions. Favre, in the meantime, having asked Count Von Bismarck for an interview, the latter has consented, and the meeting will at least have the advantage of making entirely clear to the controlling men in Paris under what conditions and prospects peace can at all be thought of. General Steinmetz, relieved of the command of the first army, is appointed governor general of the fifth and sixth military divisions. The capture of Herblay is officially denied. In the fight at Creteil, the Gaulois says 15,000 men of the corps of Vinoy, while engaged in a reconnoissance, had to make head against 30,000 or 40,000 Prussians, and inflicted on the latter heavy losses.

Monsieur Chevreaux de Valdrome, late Minister of the Interior, while returning to his department with his family, under safe conduct from his successor, Gambetta, was set upon by the populace in Aubervilliers, and again at Ravoul and Le Tap, and very badly used, and was in danger of being killed.

The Univers states on reliable authority that Metz is well provisioned for many weeks, and cannot be taken by assault or tamine. In the affair of the 19th thirteen Prussian regiments were nearly annihilated. An English engineer and a chemist have invented a projectile for use on the walls of Paris against the Prussians. It is charged with petroleum and spreads a sheet of flame over a surface of sixteen to twenty four square yards. Two hundred workmen are actively engaged in manufacturing them.

An American gentleman, just returned from Germany, says the southern States are only using Prussia in the war to eventually proclaim a republic. A republican sentiment, he says, is general.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—[Special to the New York World.]—The British Cabinet has received no news whatever of the results of the interview between Favre and Bismarck.

Dispatches from Tours announce that Vinoy's movement was a reconnoissance, and that the object was perfectly accomplished. The fighting was not severe, except at Choisyle-Roi, and Vinoy withdrew his troops in perfect order, unpursued.

It was ascertained that the Crown Prince's headquarters are at Versailles, and that about 200,000 German troops are established south and east of Paris.

The new volunteers organized by Trochu were under fire for the first time. A portion of them were charged by blue hussars, and repulsed the enemy with considerable loss. The King is at Versailles, and constantly takes part in the reconnoissances. The Prussian requisitions on the people of Versailles are frightfully severe. Several houses there are protected by the American

A French report admits the capture, after Vinoy's withdrawal, of a redoubt in front of the Feme Napoleon by two German corps, after an obstinate conflict. The guns taken were those of the redoubt, but no more than 300 or 400 prisoners were captured.

In the action of Monday a powerful French force, under Generals Renault and Ducrot, was posted on the heights above Clamart. The Prussians, throwing up earthworks at Ablon, advanced through the woods of Mendon. A severe engagement took place at Fontenai, in which the Prussians were finally repulsed with considerable loss. They still occupy the position at Ablon. It is expected the first general battle will be fought on the ground of this action.

The number of men under arms in Paris is stated at 438,000, including 180,000 volunteers from the provinces. There is said to be no truth in the reported attack on Mont Valerein. The Gazette de France, Liberte, Monde, Siecle, and Constitutionnel, are now published at Tours. The Charavari, Reveille, and Electeur Libre, are still issued at Paris. The Public Parlement and Historie have suspended. The France is published at Blois.

All the towns and cities of France are raising men and money for the national defence. Lille, Arras and Vancouleurs are reported fully prepared to resist attack.

The Reds at Lyons are becoming more moderate. An appeal to their leaders from Rochefort has had great effect.

Bussels, agent of the World, telegraphs that it is understood the proclamation of the German Empire is the object of Delbruck's visit to South Germany.

It is reported from Florence that papers were found in Paris implicating Mazzini, Garibaldi and Karl Blum in the plot for a popular rising, and that this decided the course of the Italian Cabinet. Mazzini will now be liberated.

London, Sept. 21 .- The Papal organ in this city says the following will be the Cabinet of Italy under the new regime, according to reports circulating at Rome; Mazzini, Minister of Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Carrola, Minister of Interior; Cernuschi, Minister of Finance; Fabrize, Minister of War; Porta, Minister of Public Works; Ferrari, Minister of Education; Mancini, Minister of Grace and Justice; Musse, Minister of Agriculture and Commerce; Garibaldi, Minister of Marine. The Times to-day ridicules the protest of Bishop Coxe against the modes of the proposed revision of the Bible, and says his arguments practically oppose any revision whatever.

VILLA ALBANI, Sept. 21 .- The Italian troops entered Rome through Parta Pia, firing on the mercenaries as they advanced. At last the Pope ordered the white flag to be hoisted, and hostilities ceased. The national forces then quietly occupied the city.
