SPEAK GENTLY. BY DANIEL BATES. Speak gently !--it is better far To rule by love than fear; Speak gently-let not harsh words mar The good we might do here !

Speak gently !- Love doth whisper low The vows that true hearts bind! And gently Friendship's accents flow; Affection's voice is kind.

Speak gently to the little child ! Its love be sure to gain; Teach it in accents soft and mild-

It may not long remain. Speak gently to the young, for they

Will have enough to bear-Pass through this life as best they may, Tis full of anxious care!

Speak gently to the aged one, Grieve not the care-worn heart; The sands of life are nearly run,

Let such in peace depart! Speak gently, kindly, to the poor;

Let no harsh tone be heard; They have enough they must endure, Without an unkind word !

Speak gently to the erring-know, They may have toiled in vain:

Perchance unkindness made them so: Oh, win them back again !

Speak gently! He who gave his life To bend man's stubborn will. When elements were in fierce strife, Said to them: "Peace, be still."

Speak gently !-'tis a little thing Dropped in the heart's deep well: The good, the joy, which it may bring Eternity shall tell.

JEHOVAR'S ETERNAL PURPOSE. Covenant just means God's plans, fixed in eternity, being unfolded in the promises and confirmed by sacrifices. God's great purpose from eternity was that an inheritance should be possessed by Abraham and his seed, in whom all the families of the earth should be blessed. A promise to this end was given in Eden, renewed to Abraham, then to David. The whole arrangement of the Jewish ceremony, called the old covenant, or arrangement, were the same promises hauded down by types instead of words; the confirmation of these promises was Christ's sacrifice, of which the smoking furnace and burning lamp were types, like as were the sacrifices. An ordinance of confirmation, relating to the same pro-mises, is still kept up in the Lord's Supper; which, while reminding of His sacrifice and of the security of God's promise, by repeating, as often as we partake of it, "until my coming again," still carries us on to His appearing a second time without sin unto salvation, when shall be the execution and full operation of His everlasting, ever new covenant! "I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts," etc. "I will sprinkle clean water upon them," (Exod. xxxvi, 23). I do not see any difference between covenant and testament: for a will is simply the promise of a free gift, with the promise well secured. The will may be made and secured many years before it is executed.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

-It is stated that Bishop Doane, of Albany, has approved of a new Episcopal Prayer Book to be used in his diocese. He has added the celebrated "Scotch office" of the Holy Communion, in which the objective and real presence of Christ in the sacrament is taught.

-Professor William Woodruff Niles, of Trinity College, Connecticut, was consecrated Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of New Hamp-shire, on the 21st of September, at Concord, New Hampshire.

-The dispute between the adherents of Colenso and the orthodox Bishop Macrorie still continues in the diocese of Natal in South Af-

-Fifty years ago there was but one Wesleyan minister in Australia, and not one in the islands of the South; now there are in the former 179 ministers, and in the latter 63, besides 57 native assistant missionaries. The membership has increased from 18,090 to 60,000. —Before 1865 the Methodist Episcopal Church had no edifice or society in Louisiana.

Now there are 37 churches in the State, and last year they had 50 sreachers; 8483 communi-cants; adult and infant baptisms 1921. The numbers now exceed those of the Southern Methodists, and are probably second to no Protest-

-Few think that Methodism is so much stronger than Romanism in this country, and yet facts show that one branch of Methodism is one-third greater is population than the Cathohe Courch, and that the combined Methodism of the nation is twice as large, numerically, as Romanism.

-The average salary paid by the Methodist churches of Boston District, New England Conference, is $1430.

CONGREGATIONAL.

-The new Union Church, on Columbus avenue, Bosten, will be ready for use in five or six weeks. The church has extended a call to the Rev. H. M. Parsons, of Springfield. —The Rev. C. G. McCully, of Hallowell, Maine, has received a unanimous call from Four Street Church Handhell, Sandwich Line to

Fort Street Church, Honolulu, Sand wich Islands where he has been preaching some weeks. —The Rev. Charles W. Dennison, of Washington, D. C., has been admitted to the New London Association by a unanimous vote.

-The American Missionary Association has organized quite a number of Congregational churches in the South. -A church has recently been formed at Ells worth, Kansas, nearly one hundred miles west of Junction City, which has hitherto been the frontier post of Congregationalism.

-At the Ohio Congregational Conference lady delegates were refused admission by a vote of 88 to 65.

BAPTIST.

-The Baptist churches in Virginia gained in membership in ten years, from 1843 to 1853, 47 per cent.; in the fifteen years from 1845 to 1855, 44 per cent.; in the fifteen years from 1853 to 1865, only 28 per cent. The difference marks in part the spiritual waste of the war. However, the increase in membership from 1853 to 1868 was over 61,000, a gain of nearly 113 per cent.

-In New York the Central Church (once the Rev. Mr. Lowry's, Bloomingdale) and the Laight street body have just united. This event brings together the strength of two that need each other, while it clears from debt a fine church property as well. —The annual session of the venerable Philadelphia Baptist Association will be held with the Tabernacle Baptist Church, in this city, commencing on Tuesday afternoon next.

-The Rev. J.W. Custis, of Bordentown, N.J. has received and accepted a call to the Spruce Street Baptist Church, Spruce street, above Fourth. He will enter upon his pastoral duties to-morrow, Sunday, October 2. The church has been thoroughly overhauled and renovated, and all are cordially invited to come and hear this young and eloquent divine. Seats given cheerfully to strangers.

REFORMED.

-The rooms in Hertzog Hall, New Bruns-wick, New Jersey, have all been refurnished, and the walls repaired and tinted. The library has been greatly enlarged already, and is con-stantly receiving valuable additions from this country and from Europe. A choice selection of the leading American and foreign periodicals will be furnished regularly for the reading-room. The chapel has been tastefully improved, and is now one of the most inviting apartments of the hall

-The First Dutch Reformed Church of New Brunswick, N. J., has laid the foundation for a new Sunday-school and lecture-room building. ROMAN CATHOLIC.

-At the Conference of Nuremberg, fifteen professors of Roman Catholic theology were present, representing the universities of Munich, Prague, Breslau, Bonn, and several other theological schools. Dr. Dollinger and others of nt scholars were attendants. The Conference unanimously re-pudiated the Council and the doctrine of Infallibility, and demanded the convocation of a new council -It is now officially stated that the Bishop of Breslau, Dr. Forster, has sent in his resignation. because he refuses to promulgate the papal infallibility in his diocese.

rica. It has lately taken the form of contesting one another's right to officiate at funerals in the cemeteries. Mrs. Colenso has held a bazaar to raise funds to repair the damage done to the cathedral in one of the late disturbances, and has obtained, with the help of friends in England, £800 for the purpose. Bishop Colenso delivered a long address at the fifth session of the Church Council of his diocese on May 31st. It consisted for the most part of comment on the new "Church of the province of South Africa"an organization severed, as the speaker said, from the mother Church of England, and governed by rules which are in some respects directly at variance with the laws of that Church. For instance, the clergy of "the Church of South Africa" are forbidden to celebrate marriage between persons the divorced husband or wife of either of whom is still alive. The new church, he maintained, was by this rule "only treading in the steps of the Church of Rome." For a breach of this injunction, formal admonition or suspension for a term not exceeding six months is prescribed: thus "is a new crime invented for the clergy of the church of the province of South Africa which would be no crime at all in a clergyman of Church of England." Referring to the Bible revision, Dr. Colenso said it was desirable, and was 'absolutely required for the needs of the present But that any number of bishops should undertake to say that when the labors of such a committee have been completed, every line and letter of what remains-including some pas-sages, no doubt, upon which the opinion of the committee will have been very much dividedis to be received henceforth as the infallible, eternal word of God, would be somewhat ridicu-lous, if it were not profane." Addresses to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and various resolutions couched in the spirit of the Bishop's address, were adopted unanimously. —The English "Association for Promoting the Union of Christendom" have arranged to hold a series of services in and around London of the most advanced ritualistic character, and are still carnestly striving to bring about the union of the English Church with the Roman Catholic and Greek Churches, notwithstanding the promulgation of the doctrine of infallibility. —The Diocese of Nebraska has unanimously chosen Bishop Clarkson as its diocesan.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-At a late meeting of the Lafayette, Missouri, Presbytery (Declaration and Testimony), several new church organizations were reported. The Salem Church was reported as having come over unanimously, and was by a unanimous vote re-ceived from the New School. The Central Prairie Church, nine miles north of Pleasant Hill, was reported and received. The Nevada Church, at Nevada City, county seat of Ver-non county, and Virgil Church, at Virgil City,

-Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, opened on the 15th of September, with forty-one students on the ground, and enough expected in a short time to increase the number to fifty. -The Presbyterian Church of Fredericksburg, Va., has been handsomely repainted. In 1862, the bell of this church, like many others in the State, was given to the Confederate authorities, to be east into cannon. A new one weighing 1884 pounds has been procured in its place.

-The First Presbyterian Church, Memphis, Tenn., of which Rev. F. H. Bowman is pastor, have just completed a roomy and complete manse on a lot adjoining the church. This This church is in a flourishing condition, numbering now 210 members, a large increase in two years. —The Rev. D. M. B. McLean, of Cleveland, Ohio, has received a unanimous call to the Seventh Avenue Church, New York. METHODIST.

-Miss Mary Clarke, of Bellows Falls, Vt., has willed $15,000 to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Preachers' Aid Society of the Vermont Conference. Her brother Jonn gave to the church, for various benevolent objects, $25,000.

-The whole property of Wesleyan University now amounts to $675,103, and the total income during the past year was $20,701, wh increased $4100 by recent donations.

LUTHERAN.

-Father Weedsen, who has been at it sixty years, is the oldest Lutheran preacher in the United States.

ICOMMUNICATED. 1

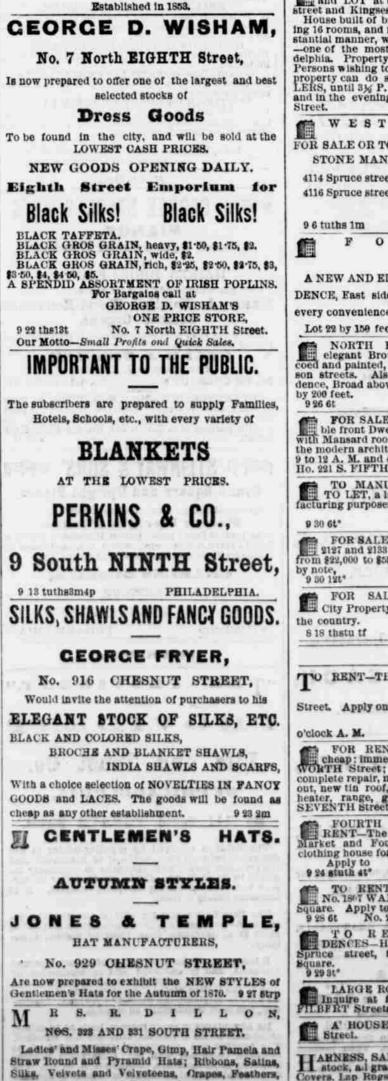

Our Candidate for Register of Wills. The convention that placed in nomination William M. Bunn made a wise selection. His adherents detected immediately after their organization that he would be the winning man, and without disparaging any of the other candidates before the convention, I think I may safely assert that the intention was from the beginning to nominate a man who had been in active service under the old flag, and who had acquitted himself with credit without having received a commission for his services. The communication which appeared in your issue a few days ago, signed "Twentieth Ward," did Mr. Bunn justice in speaking so honestly of his military career. The Democratic party have, in some instances, honored the soldier in selecting him for position, but the cases have been very rare, and they have invariably chosen ex-officers for their nominees. Now our great party have an opportunity presented them for complimenting a man who held the position of a private, and let them come up to the work nobly, and thereby show their enemies that they mean what they say when they assert that the soldier shall be rewarded. A PRIVATE.

ANNIVERSARY. October 1, 1870, will bring Rockhill & Wilson into their forty-first anniversary. On the first of October, 1829, the Tailoring and Clothing business was commenced in a small room, 15 by 24 feet. To-day they occupy the magnificent store known as the Brown-Stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street and No. 36 South Sixth street. Then their place of business was in an obscure location; to-day it is on the most popular and fashionable thoroughfare in the city. Then their capital was precisely one hundred and fifteen dollars; to-day it is sufficient to drive the heaviest manufacturing and commercial engine known in the Custom and Ready-made Clothing business. Then their credit was limited to a very few cloth houses for their supplies; to-day it unlimited both in Europe and America. Then their business amounted to but a few hundred dollars ; to-day it amounts to millions. Then they were young saplings, sending forth their tender shoots in the manufacturing and commercial world; to-day they are sturdy oaks of the forest, and thousands of people are protecting themselves under the shades of their magnificent mantles. Several of our old customers, who started with us in the commencement, boast that they have never worn a garment from any other house during all that long period. and have trained up their children in the way they should go. Thankful to our friends for past favors, we can say to them with confidence, on our fortyfirst anniversary, that we will start with the largest and most desirable stock of plece goods from which to take measures, and also Ready-made Clothing for Gentlemen, Youths, and Boys, ever offered to the public, and at prices that no one shall have to complain of.

THE WHITE-HAIRED KING who offered millions for a new pleasure, would have assigned the reward to PHALON'S VETALIA, OB SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, because it would have enabled him to renew in his silver locks their youthful glory. The Vitalia is clear and has no sediment. It does not stain the skin, but will color the hair in a very few applications. Sold by all druggists.

AN EXPERIENCE of a third of a century has given L. Rice, Esq., of the AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSPON. a knowledge of all the requisites of a first-class hotel. The popularity of that hotel indicates that the puone appreciates his efforts to please.
