-Yesterday Coroner Taylor held an in-quest on the body of Amalie Raeman, whose death is alleged to be the result of criminal malpractice by a man styled Dr. O. W. Reid, No. 702 Chesnut street, in which Bartholomew Ryan is accused as an accessory. The evidence was of a nature to preclude its publication, but it fully warranted the jury in rendering the following verdict, which was the result of the inquest:-That the said Amalie Raeman came to her death from pyemia, resulting from an abortion performed by Dr. Oliver W. Reid. The jury also find that Bartholomew Ryan was accessory to the fact, Both Reid and Ryan were committed without bail to answer. Dr. O. W. Reid has figured in at least one other case of criminal malpractice in this city.

There was quite an exciting race yester-day on the Schuylkill, for single scull boats, for the championship. The boats started from the Undine Barge Club House, and passed up to the Columbia Bridge and returned, a distance of three miles. The following was the result of the race:-Max Schmidt, the winner of the race, 20 minutes; John Levins, 20.25; Austin Street, 21 minutes; and Charles Bressman, 21.23. Smith's time is considered the best ever made on the Schuylkill in single sculls.

CUBA.

The New Captalu-General.

The new Captain-General of Cuba, Don Fernando Fernandez de Cordova, is a member of a distinguished Spanish family, and his brother also, a Spanish general, has been prominently concerned, as well as himself, in the affairs of his country, from time to time, since early in the present century. Don Fernando was born in Madrid in 1792, entered the military service in 1810, and was rapidly promoted during the war with Napoleon. In 1841 he was implicated with General Conchain the movement instigated by O'Donnell against Espartero. In 1817 he was temporarily Minister of War, and was then made Inspector-General of Infantry. Two years after-ward he was sent to Italy at the head of an army to aid in the restoration of the Pope. March 8, 1850, he was designated as Captain-General of New Castile, in the following year to the same position in Cuba, and in 1853 Generalin-Chief of Cavalry. At the outbreak of the revolution of 1854, he was called upon by Queen Isabella to form a new cabinet. This he declined to do, but he ordered his troops to fire upon the insurgents, in the name of the Queen, and when the latter were successful he fled from Madrid in the night of the 27th of July and took refuge in France. He returned to Madrid after the events of 1856, and resumed his rank as general. In September, 1864, he was named Minister of War in the Cabinet of Narvaez.

THE RUMORED DEATH OF VON MOLTKE-ALL QUIET AT PARIS-THE CAPTURED IMPERIAL CORRESPONDENCE-MILITARY PLANS ADOPTED AND ABANDONED-FRANCE AND PRUSSIA IN 1866-VICTORIA AND EUGENIE. LONDON, Oct. 5.

The rumors continues to circulate that Thiers has arrived at Florence to consult with the Italian government.

The Manchester Examiner has an aerial message from Paris, stating that at a meeting of the council of ministers on the 29th of September Jules Favre and M. Arago protested against a continuance of the war without consultation with the people. MM. Keratry, Trochu and Rochefort discented from this view. people. MM. London, Oct. 5.—[Special to New York Times.]—Our Madrid correspondent telegraphs that the resignation of Oloxaga, Spanish ambassador to Paris, is likely to lead to serious results. It identifies him with the Republican party, and adds great strength to the movement in favor of France.

I am authorized to state from the highest source that the alleged note of the Emperor, which appeared in Le Situation, is not authentic. I am also requested to state by the same authority that the Empress has no connection, direct or indirect, with the journal in question, and that no newspaper in England is supported or controlled by the Imperial family. I am authorized to add that the telegram published as found among papers in the Tuilieries is incorrect. The Empress never telegraphed to the Emperor to return to Paris.

London, Oct. 5.—[Special to the New York Herald.]—Bismarck has not replied to the letter directed to him by Jacoby, from his prison, and in which he protests against his illegal incarceration. A domestic journal, the Zulkaupt, publishes its contents, stating that this gentleman is in the habit of answering all letters addressed to him, and calls the Count's attention to it, lest the answer should have miscarried.

The reporter of the Gazette de France says: Un-

Count's attention to it, lest the answer should have miscarried.

The reporter of the Gazette de France says: Unfortunately for the Bonapartists they publish their documents separately. Rouher, addressing the Emperor on the morning of the declaration of war, said: "Animated by a calm hope, which is the toue force of the empire, you knew how to wait, but the past four years you have perfected the armiment of the soldiers, and raised to the highest pitch of organization our military forces. Thanks to your care, sire, France is ready." After that the Gazette adds: It is tale to pretend that Napoleon is not responsible for this war.

Further details tending to establish the death of General Von Moitke are published here to-day. It is reported that France-tireurs recently blew up and destroyed the railway for a long distance near Saverne, and that Francs-tireurs reconstity blew are sadly interrupted in consequence.

Lutz, one of the members of the committee of national defence, and delegate of the government, has been arrested by Mobile Guards at Besancon. The nature of the charges preferred against him are as yet unknown.

It is noticeable that, as the elections for the Conetituent Assembly approach, old parties seem to be reviving. Their different organs are apparently thinking more of politics than of the danger of the country.

Cremieux, on assuming ad interim the ministry of war, issued a note urging haste in the organization and equipment of the Garde Mobile and Garde Nationale.

It is reported that the Constituent Assembly will

Berlin, Oct. 5.—[Special to New York Tribune.]

Official advices from headquarters report that preparations for a regular attack on the fortifications and for the shelling of Paris have been completed. Siege guns and mortars have arrived and been placed in position for immediate operations.

General Von Ollock, formerly military governor of Coblentz, has been appointed military governor of Strasburg.

of Coblentz, has been appeared of Strasburg.
A meeting of the Federal council of the North German Confederation was held to-day to break in negotiations with Bavaria and Wurtemburg.
Minister Delbruck has been summoned anew to headquarters.
Our correspondent before Metz telegraphs to-day that a sortie was made from Metz against Joiny, held by the 8th corps, at noon on the 3d. The French wounded were left in the Germans hands, but the dead were carried back to Metz. Fort Quentin supported the attack.

These diversions are useless, except for discipline.

The French troops, who are still told they were victorious in the August battles, are growing impatient. The last sortic showed no strategic result, though several brigades were engaged on both LONDON, Oct. 5 - The New York World's correregiment had been formed for the service of the French at Cherbourg, to be called Volunteers of Fontenoy, and to be composed exclusively of Irish volunteers. The men for the regiment are daily leaving Ireland and England.

The Standard will to-morrow contain an authorized statement from the Emperor Napoleon, danying the authenticity of the letter circulated under German suspices in his name.

The World's correspondent telegraphs to-day from Rouen that everything in Paris was perfectly quiet on the third. It is utterly untrue that there has been any disturbances of the peace in that city.

The police duty of the French capital is now done by armed citizens. The people dine and drive out as if the Prussians were in Berlin. The general aspect of the city is graver than usual, but nothing can lead one to suspect there is the least probability of its surrendering without a tremendons struggle.

dous struggle.

An efficial report from the army of Lyons places its strength, on the 1st of October, at 110 000 men, fully armed and equipped. The army of the Soire, divided between Tours and Bourges, is reported, at the same date, at 150,000 men. Enormous quanti-ties of arms are daily sent forward, and millions of pounds of powder have been shipped from English ports for French ports.

London, October 5—[Special to the New York World.]—The Empress Eugenic yesterday sent a letter to the Emperor concerning her reception in England. She states that all official recognition of her presence has been postponed at her own request. Nothing could be tenderer than her treatment.

Queen Victoria sent at once a private letter of-fering to pay her a state visit. The Prince of Wales, immediately upon her arrival, wrote to her, expressing the kind remembrance entertained by the Princess and himself of their visits to Paris and of the great kindness shown them by her in the Tuileries, and begging to know in what way either the Princess or himself could serve her. The diplomats in London, encouraged by the American minister, (?) express confident hopes of the downfall of the Republic and the restoration of the Empire.

the Empire.

London, Oct. 5.—[Special to the New York Herald.]—Dispatches from Tours to Monday last say the papers publish liberal extracts from private correspondence of Napoleon. One of the documents, in the handwriting of the Emperor, naming a regency in case of his death, entrusts the empire, during the minority of the present Prince Imperial, to the care of General Frossard.

A decree dated Rheims, August 21, signedby the Emperor, appoints McMahon commander-in-chief of the army of Chalons and Paris. A letter from the Emperor to McMahon, and a proclamation prepared to be issued by the latter, shows the plan was to fall back on the walls of Paris, leaving Bazaine at Metz. The proclamation says the fortifications of Paris will stop the flood of the enemy, and give time to organize the forces of the country. This plan was afterward abandoned and an attempt plan was afterward abandoned, and an attempt made to relieve Bazaine.

Tcuns, Oct. 5, via London.—The Moniteur advocates Tours as the place of meeting of the Constituent Assembly, on the grounds of its security, which that journal says is as perfect as that of any French city if the war continues.

It is said an intrigue is in progress for the restoration of Nice to Italy. A force of Italian bersaglieri is at Ventimiglia, on the French frontier.

Additional time has been given on all bills drawn after October 14.
Tours, Oct. 4.—(Special to New York Tribune.)

-The vacilation of the government about the elec-tions is inexplicable. M. Laurier, upon being questioned, answered, "We hasten them because questioned, answered, "We hasten them because usurpations do not last long in France." The government is daily harassed by deputations from Lyons and Marseilles, favoring a federal republic.

A letter from Persigny to the Emperor, bearing no date, and postmarked Strasburg, December 7, 1866, says: "As you are about to communicate several broad truths to the illustrious personages surrounding you you can add the following: "Whilst we are pompously and tediously deliberating as to what should be done to obtain an army, Prussia proposes simply and with great activity to invade our territory. She will be in a position to place in line 600,000 men and 1200 cannon before we have thought of organizing a frame work, which is inthought of organizing a frame work, which is in-dispensable before we can place in the field 300,000 men and 1600 cannon.

men and 1600 cannon.

"Blindness alone can permit a doubt that war will break out at an early day. Without stupid vanity and mad presumption we might believe we could choose the day and hour when our organization and armament will be completed. But I am of opinion and begin to believe the government has gone mad. If Jupiter has decided to destroy the country, let us not forget her destroyer. Our lot is allied. As we are not yet attacked by madness, let us make an effort to stop the fatal course leading direct to the precipice.

"I draw your attention to the following because it is of a mature to open the eyes of the least clear-"For some time past Prussian agents have been running over the frontier departments, particularly the portions comprised between the Moselle and the Vorges, to sound the opinions of the population and bring influence to bear upon the Protestants, who are numerous in those parts, and much less French than is generally believed. They are the grandsons of the men of 1815, and have sent deputations to the headquarters of the enemy to ask that Alsace be taken over by Germany. "It is well to note these facts, for they may reasonably be considered as throwing light upon the enemy's plans. The Prussians adopted the same Course three months before the opening of the Austrian war in Bohemia and Silesia."

OSTEND, Oct. 5—[Special to the New York World]

—It is not believed General Moltke has been either ill or wounded. Reports of Prassian movements to the north and west of Paris, that is toward Rouen and Amien, o ginate merely from foraging expeditions. The Prussian losses in the attack on Fort Bicetre were immense.

Efforts Made to Draw Austria into Italian Compilentions. A Vienna correspondent says, writing on the 16th of September:-Before the occupation of the Papal territory by Italian troops both the Italian Government and the Holy See made repeated attempts to draw Austria into the question. The former wished to protect itself against all eventualities, by inducing the Government here to express approval of the occupation; but the Vienna Cabinet showed no disposition to take so de-cided a step in the matter, apparently con-sidering that the attitude of strict reserve which it maintained was in itself a great advantage to Italy, and that as she treats the question as an internal one, and seeks the support of public opinion in her own country on this ground, a foreign government could not reasonably be expected to enter into engagements on this subject. The Holy See, on the other hand, used every effort, through its Nuncia and Cardinal Nardi to perthrough its Nuncio and Cardinal Nardi, to per-suade the Foreign Office at Vienna to protest against the proposed occupation. It was hardly consistent of the Vatican to ask Austria to interfere, when it obstinately refuses to enter into negotiations with Italy itself. Moreover, such a step would have been utterly opposed to the spirit of the new Austrian policy, and the proposal was accordingly declined.

A fiendish negro at St. Louis recently drove a knife through the spine of a young girl of his own color who had refused to marry him. It was with very great difficulty that the knife could be extracted from the wound. The girl is not expected to recover.
