On the arri-val of the band the quarters of the Battery were at once thrown open, and a meeting organized, of which John L. Hill, Esq., was chosen Chairman. After a few remarks from Mr. Hill, William Elliott, Esq., was called upon. Mt. Elliott in opening took occasion to say that the election of Mr. Creely was a trumph of the people, and he was sure that the Re-publicans of the Second district would never have occasion to be sorry for the selection they had made. At the conclusion of his remarks the speaker made. At the conclusion of his remarks the speaker introduced Mr. Creely, whose appearance was greeted with applause. After this had sub, sided Mr. Creely came forward and in a few remarks thanked his friends for their fidelity to him during the late canvass. It was a pleasure, he said, for him to see them on this occasion, although he hoped that they would not expect a speech. The work and excite-ment which he had undergone were so oppressive ment which he had undergone were so oppressive that now, since it was over, he felt more like resting than anything else. He were a radical Republican, always had been, and always expected to be; he could look to no man or set of men for his present success; he owed it to no party, and he had made no promises or pledges. His friends had stood manfully by him in all the trying situations in which he had been placed during the canvass; and he thanked them for their generous ald from the bottom of his heart, and he would assure them that their confidence had not been misplaced. In concluding he again thanked and he would assure them that their confidence had not been misplaced. In concluding he again thanked his friends, and through them the people of the Second district, for their aid and support, and re-tired amid tremendous applause.

THE SHOOTING YESTERDAY-THE CONDITION OF THE SHOOTING TESTERDAY—THE CONDITION OF NOLEN, THE WOUNDED MAN.—The onslaught made yesterday by Democratic roughs on the Board of Return Judges created more excitement than has been known in this city for some time. The news spread rapidly and attracted to the State House spread rapidly and attracted to the state House pavement an immense concourse of people, who re-mained there until night had set in discussing the matter. By an arrangement made with Detective Franklin, who, in the absence of the Mayor and Chief Mulholland, was in command of the Police Department, the judges had one by one left the building by means of the rear door, and it was not known until an hour had elapsed that the adjourn-ment hod faktor place

INTERFERING WITH POLICEMEN .- Last evening Robert Colligan was at Sixth and Vine streets, en-deavoring to remove a drunken friend who insisted that the gutter was his bed. Policeman Mc auly came along and ordered both away. They started down the street, and, after proceeding a short way, made some riotous demonstrations. The policeman again ordered them away, when one of them struck him in the face. He then arrested them and took them before Alderman Toland, who held them in 5500 for trial. On Wednesday evening Lieutenant Kelley, of

On Wednesday evening Liettenant Kelley, of Manayunk, noticed a disorderly crowd on the main street. He advised them to keep quiet, when they hooted at him. They, however, moved of ahead of him, and joining some more of their colleagues, they began raising a distorbance. The Lieutenant then arrested Dennis Haugh. William Nicholson later-fered, and the Lieutenant seized him. A regular scuffe ensued, in which the Lieutenaat was knocked down three times, but he held on to his men and succeeded in gerting both to the station. Haugh was held in $400 and Nicholson in $1000 ball for trial. The Lieutenant, in consequence of his injuries, has been confine i to his home since.

CHARITABLE BEQUESTS .- This morning the will of Charitable BECCESTS.—This morning the will of Martha Notman, recently deceased, was admitted to probate in the onice of the Register of Wills. The estate amounts to $11,000. It contains the following charitable bequests:—To the Society of the Sons of St. George of Pennsylvanis, $1000; to the Pennsyl-vania Institution for the Blind, $1000. THE RESULT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

End of Democratic Hopes in the Next Con-The N. Y. Tribune to-day, editorially, has the following :-

The latest despatches leave several districts still in doubt, but indicate as the net result of the October elections the loss of five Republican Congressmen elections the loss of five Republican Congressmen-a loss greater than we were willing to consider pro-bable, but by no means so great as our opponents had expected. In Pennsylvania we have probably lost five Congressmen and gained one; the districts lost, according to the latest indications, being the Fifth, Seventeenth, Twentieth. Twenty-first, and Twenty-fourth, and that gained being the Twelfth, where Judge Wood-ward, by all clds the best Democratic member Pennsylvania has had in Congress, is defeated by L. D. Shoemaker. In Ohio we have gained two Con-gressmen, Aaron F. Perry in the First district over P. W. Strader, the present incumbent, and Charles Foster in the Ninth over E. F. Dickinson; and have lost two, Schenck in the Third district and McLung in the Fourth. General Schenck, however, is ex-pected to contest the election on the ground of the exclusion from the polls of soldiers from the National Soldiers' Hôme in Montgomery county. With their votes he would undoubtedly be elected, and it is possible that he may yet be saved to the public service. In Indiana we lose one Congress-man, General Manson b ing elected in the teventh district over General Lew Wallace. In the Legista-ture the Senate is tied, and the Democrats have eight majority in the House, while their majority on the State ticket now appears to be about 1600. Iowa and Nebraska are, of course, heavity Republican We presume the Democrats are now willing to abandon their hope of controlling the next Con-gress. a loss greater than we were willing to consider prois 1418.
