A DEATH EXHIBITION.

Scene in a Hespital-A "Fine Operation," but the Patient Dies. The Cincinnati Inquirer of the 19th instant has the Cincinnati Inquirer of the 19th instant has the following:—

Some excitement was caused yesterday forenoon in medical circles by the announcement that a patient had died from chloroform at the Cincinnati Hospital, while under the knife of the amputator. An inquiry into the circumstances elicited the following facts:—The deceased was named Bridget Henry, and had been an immate of the hospital about four months. Four or five months previous to that time she had been troubled with a cancer upon the instep, which, increasing rapidly in size, finally instep, which, increasing rapidly in size, finally made removal to the hospital and treatment there made removal to the hospital and treatment there a necessity.

After admission, the usual remedies were used, without checking the growth of the cancer, which was of the kind known among medical men as Fungue Haspotides. As it enlarged, ligatures were applied, but it still continued to develop. Hypodermic injections were resorted to, and chloral opiates, were freely used. The patient was, in spite of all that could be done for her relief, rapidly losing strength, and after consultation, an operation was decided upon.

It was agreed that this should be due by Syme's process, removing the entire foot with the exception of the heel. Dr. Dawson performed the operation, assisted by several of the resident physicians, one of whom administered the chloroform. It is said that only seventy-dive minims (about two and a half teaspoonsful) were given, a large portion of which must have escaped into the air by evaporation. The bone spoonsful) were given, a large portion of which must have escaped into the air by evaporation. The bone had been sawed, the fiap turned, and the limb was just ready to be sewed up, when it was conserved that the woman had ceased to breathe. As the whole class consisting of about two hundred students from the various hospitals of the city, were present, some excitement ensued, all crowding around with a natural desire, under such circumstances to see what was soing on. The usual restances, to see what was going on. The usual re-s crat wes were at once applied. The tongue was pulled out, cold water dashed over the person; stimulants were given, and electricity was also re-sorted to, to rescore animation but without success. The woman rever breathed again. Those who had the woman numediately in charge exercised the utmost coolness, and from first to last it does not appear that there was not the most careful treat-ment or that any individual was to clame for the

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Mad'lle Nilsson's Fourth Concert. Mad'lle Nilsson appeared for the fourth time in concert last evening at the Academy of Music, and attracted as large an audience as on former occasions. The fine qualities of this singer grow more apparent upon acquaintance, and the dramatic power which she displayed last evening in the "Miserere" scene from Trovatore made her admirers more than ever auxious that she should appear with all the accessories necessary for the full display of her dramatic power. Mad'lle Nilsson is a singer of rare and peculiar gifts, and it will not be justice to the American public If she leaves our shores without appearing in some of those operatic roles in which she has gained much of her European celebrity.

To-morrow Mad'lle Nilsson will appear at a matinee performance, when she will repeat the mad scene from Hamlet.

The City Amusements. AT THE WALNUT Mr. J. S. Clarke will have a benefit this evening, when he will appear as "Dr. Pangloss" and "Toodies."

There will be a mating to-morrow, when Mr.

Clarke will personate "Asa Trenchard" in the comedy of Our American Cousin. AT THE ARCH Sheridan's comedy of The School for Scandal will be performed this evening, with Mrs. Drew as "Lady Teazle." By invitation of Mrs. Drew M'lle Nilsson will witness the performance at the Arch this even-

On Monday a new play of T. W. Robertson's, entitled M. P., will be produced.

At the Chesnut the extravaganza of Pluto will be represented this evening by the Lingard There will be a matinee to-morrow. AT THE AMERICAN Charles Vivian, M'lle De

Rosa and other popular artists will appear this AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE a grand Ethiopian solree will be given this even-

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE & variety of entertaining features will be presented this evening.

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.—The enterprising bu-siness agent (Mr. Peter E. Abel) of what we may safely predict will become the most popular theatre in the city, has effected an engagement with the Lisa Weber Burlesque Opera Troupe, who will produce on Monday evening Planche's burlesque, with the original music, of the popular opera of Ernani. The piece will be mounted in a most elaborate attrice. rate style.

A CROSS HUSBAND .- Mrs. Smith-The fact is, my husband is becoming so outrageously cross and nervous that there is no living with him. He pretends one day that he has got the dyspepsia; the next day liver compiaint; the next is sick, with no appetite-declares that there is nothing on the table fit to eat, and so on. It is all nonsense, and nothing but his confounded ugliness. From the very bottom of my heart, I believe he wants to worry me to Lady Friend-Mrs. Smith, I think you are wrong. No woman has a kinder or more indulgent husband than you. I must confess that I have noticed a change in Mr. Smith; but am inclined to think that all he wants is a tonic; and if I were you, I would not be a day without PLANTATION BITTERS in the house. Make him take them moderately three times a day, and in a short time I think you will see a change. My experience is that Plantation Bitters is one of the best and most delicious tonics in the world; and that for nervousness, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, and all kindred complaints, there is nothing so good.

SEA MOSS FARINE .- This is a new article of food, which we take pleasure in commending to our readers. We have used it in our families, and have found it to be the most nutritious, delicate, and palatable article for table use we have seen.

It is a light and agreeable farine, very pleasant to the taste, easy of digestion, and hence specially adapted to the use of the sirk, the thousands of dyspeptics among us, and for young children; besides, the Sea Moss, its principal ingredient, has many curative properties, and is highly recommended for pectoral and scrofulous affections, and is perfectly harmless.

Here, then, we have an entirely new article of food of the most delicate and inviting character, adapted to the use of the table for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Cuariotte de Russe, etc., and almost invaluable for use by the invalid. It is simple, delicate, nutritions, harmless, remedial, and economica', as it can be furnished for one-third to one-half the cost of Corn Starch, Maizena, Farina, etc., for all of which it is more than a substitute.

It is made up without trouble, and will always be good. Try it; and our word for it, you will continue in its use .- Independent.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the jeweller at No. 8 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewelry and Silverware in the city. SPOTTED LIKE DOMINORS .- The teeth soon become speckled if every defilement is not removed from them everyftwenty-four hours. To do this effectually there is nothing like Sozodont. It literally renders the enamel impervious and indestructible.

WE HAVE BEEN LABORING for several weeks at our $10 suits, like those sold on Market street for $12, only ours are a great deal better cut, made, and trimmed, and determined not to announce them until we had a stock sufficient that all may be supplied tomorrow. Saturday morning we will open with thousands of $10, $12, $15, $13, and $90 Fall and Winter Suits, for style, quality, and cheapness far surpassing anything ever offered to the public. All are cordially invited to call and examine them at the Great Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street.
