

FIRST EDITION

A New York Murder Trial.

An Extraordinary Affidavit.

The Loss of the Cambria

The Virginia Oyster War.

Tragedy in a Concert Hall.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

REMARKABLE COURT SCENE.

Lawyer John Graham and Recorder Hockett of New York. The Recorder Requested to Have the Hearing Postponed.

The long-deferred trial of Thomas Jackson, for the murder of Archibald Douglas in the First ward, New York, before Recorder Hockett, on the 23rd of the present month, this morning.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

On the bench with the Recorder sat Judges Barnard and Bedford. As soon as the prisoner was brought to the bar John Graham arose, and then followed one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Court of General Sessions, and far surpassing even the noted encounter of Mr. Graham and Mr. Davis on the McFarland trial.

small fruits. He proposed to spend the winter months with his aged parents in England, and with this object in view had embarked on the Cambria, his wife was present, &c., of the old Ninth ward, and she has numerous relations here. They have no children. Mr. Hobson is a staid builder by trade, and is well known among carpenters and builders in the city. Mr. Hobson and his wife have a very large circle of relatives and friends are filled with the deepest concern for his welfare. There is a hope that some of our friends who have heard of these there are grave apprehensions that all have perished. Further news of the disaster is awaited with intense and painful interest.

THE OYSTER TROUBLES.

The "Oyster War" in the Virginia Legislature.

In the Virginia House of Delegates on Friday the 23rd inst. the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the joint resolutions on Thursday, authorizing the Governor to release certain vessels belonging to citizens of Maryland apprehended for violation of the oyster laws, be and be is claimed by the Virginia authorities, made the following report:—

That without expressing any opinion as to the technical merits of the resolutions, the committee recommend the adoption of the resolutions, believing that under the peculiar circumstances this course will be most beneficial to the State.

The Recorder called for a motion to amend the resolutions, while it is at the same time most in consonance with the friendly relations which exist between the two States.

The House took no action on the report. The resolutions referred to in the report are as follows:—

Whereas, A message has been received from the Governor of Virginia announcing that the Governor has issued a writ of habeas corpus, and that the maintenance of the boundary between the two States, known as the Davidson-Lovitt line, until the question of the correct line can be definitely settled, and asking for the release of Marylanders arrested for trespassing on that line.

Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be and he is hereby authorized to discharge from arrest the citizens of Maryland who were arrested upon their territory, and gathering oysters within her territory, and to release the vessels seized.

Whereas, the Governor of the Commonwealth has issued a writ of habeas corpus, and that the maintenance of the property of the citizens of Maryland, a new element of trouble in the matter has been introduced, and that the following extract from the Norfolk Virginian of Friday last, the 23rd inst., is published:—

Inspector Brown, of the Virginia coast, arrived at Norfolk on Friday, and that the vessel will be held till released by the Governor. Another paragraph says: Captain Brown has arrived with the whole fleet, and all are now anchored snugly in Norfolk harbor.

On the 23rd inst. reports that a terrible storm occurred in Hampton Roads on Thursday, and says:—

There is no doubt that several of the oyster boats were blown up, and that the loss of property in the mouth of the Nansemond, were upset in the squall on Thursday afternoon, and consequently several lives were lost. Who and where they are from we do not know.

By the time our oystermen recover their property, if they should ever do so, the prospects are that the vessels will be almost worthless.

BURNING A WAITER GIRL.

Frightful Incident in a New Orleans Concert Saloon.

The New Orleans Republic of October 21st says:— Last night the frequenters of No. 59 St. Charles street experienced a sensation not down in the program of the day.

At the New El Dorado, had been on the stage singing, and had stopped behind the scenes a moment or so with one or two other persons, who seem to be the frequenters of the place.

The police were unable to arrive at any definite conclusion as to the cause of the fire.

When in the beer-room she always wore a long dress, but when on the stage she took off, wearing a fancy dress beneath. It is said that she is married, and that she is becoming wealthy.

She was taken to her rooms and properly cared for. Mr. Leonard's hands were badly burned while attempting to pull the flaming wig from her head.

It is possible he knows who the guilty party is, and will inform on the view culprit. How the blaze was set is not known.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

A Team of Horses Dash into a Brooklyn Fountain and Drown a Child.

The New York Herald of the 23rd inst. reports a very singular accident, resulting in the drowning of a little girl in the Brooklyn park fountain, occurred at 10 o'clock last night.

The accident occurred in the Park, near the fountain, and the child was drowned.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

The child was drowned, and the accident was very singular.

SECOND EDITION

WAR NEWS BY CABLE.

The New Peace Movement.

More Fighting Near Paris.

The Prussians Victorious

The Cambria Disaster.

Another Survivor Discovered.

FROM EUROPE.

A French Sortie at Joinville.

STUTTGART, Oct. 25.—General Suckow telegraphed to the Government here on Sunday that the French made a sortie across the Marne at Joinville on Friday last against the Wurtemberg outposts.

Three French battalions, with artillery and mitrailleurs, engaged our forces from that point (Joinville) to Chambigny. They were bravely repulsed by the 2d Rifle Battalion and a part of the 7th Regiment. The Wurtembergers lost two killed and three wounded.

The Council of Ministers.

DARMSTADT, Oct. 24.—Baron Dalwigk has gone with Herr Hoffman to Versailles to attend the Council of Ministers.

Another Survivor of the Cambria Disaster.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 25.—Information is made public here by a reliable party that J. E. Hudson, of Coffin's Station, Indiana, has received a cable telegram from his brother Albert Hudson, who was a passenger by the steamer Cambria, announcing his safe arrival at Glasgow.

From this it would appear that there is at least one survivor who has not made known to the agents of the steamship line or English newspapers the fact of his safety, and leads to the hope that still others are safe.

Reported Successful Peace Negotiations.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(Special despatch to N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.)—The negotiations between Burnside, Favre, and Bismarck were brought to a successful termination this morning, France acceding to Prussia the terms demanded, with some slight modifications.

The Peace Movement.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(Special to the New York World.)—The Empress Eugenie is still in London awaiting the results of the conference concerning peace, which is now suspended, itself awaiting further news from General Trochu.

If General Trochu finally pronounces himself in favor of a settlement on the basis sketched out here, the Empress Eugenie will proceed to France, and as the head de jure of the only government of France recognized by the great powers of Europe, she will sign a treaty of peace with King William at Versailles.

Queen Victoria has written an autograph letter to the King of Prussia, urging him to accept the terms of peace sent back from London with the modifications made in them by the representatives of the great powers.

Her Majesty is understood to have represented to the King of Prussia that the extreme danger to all established order in Europe of a protraction of the existing conflict.

THE WHOLE WORLD PRUSSIAN.

It is believed here in the best informed quarters that the whole of the present peace movement was set on foot by the Prussian authorities, in order to afford a valid excuse to Prussia, in the eyes of Germany, for withdrawing from the war with France.