

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements.

At the Academy of Music this evening Madame Marie Seebach will commence a series of six performances of German tragedy. She will appear this evening as "Mary Stuart," to-morrow as "Jane Eyre," on Wednesday as "Adrienne Lecouvreur," on Thursday as "Louisa Miller," in Schiller's Kathleen und Marie, and on Friday as "Marguerite," in Goethe's Faust. Madame Seebach has a distinguished reputation in Germany, and her performance in this city will undoubtedly be worthy of the attention of all admirers of the dramatic art.

At the Chippewa, Mr. J. B. Stockton's comedy of Box and Goss, with J. S. Clarke as the representative of "Young Gossling," will enter upon its second week this evening. This lively farce has made a decided hit, and it must be a gratification to the author to find the favorable verdict of the London and New York public cordially sustained by the playgoers of Philadelphia.

The performance this evening will conclude with Buckstone's comedy of Married Life, in which Mr. Clarke will appear as "Henry Dove."

At the Arch a series of standard comedies are announced for this week. This evening Buckstone's comedy of Let a Girl See You, in which Mr. Clarke will appear as "Henry Dove," will be performed, to-morrow The School for Scandal, on Wednesday and Thursday Roscius, and on Friday As You Like It.

Monday next the dramatization of Kathleen Drouth by Messrs. Hill and Craig will be produced. At Duprez & Benedict's Opera House the troupe of Messrs. Duprez & Benedict and their troupe having returned from their trip across the continent with their scalps in good condition, in spite of the reports to the contrary that were current some months ago. A first-rate opening night bill is announced.

At the American a number of novelties will be presented this evening, and the programme will, as usual, be both varied and interesting.

At the Eleventh Street Opera House a new burlesque entitled Two Faces and a Traveller will be presented. It is among the attractions announced for this evening.

At the Arch Street Opera House Mr. W. Martin, the celebrated pantomimist, will make his first appearance this evening.

The Grand English Opera Combination, consisting of Madame Richings, Mrs. Annie Kemp, Mrs. Fannie Goodwin, Messrs. Castle, Howell, Clatterton, Drayton, Laurence, Scullin, and others, will commence a season of twelve nights and two matinees at the Academy of Music, on Monday evening next. The programme for the first week is announced as follows:—On Monday, Il Trovatore; on Tuesday, Bohemian Girl; on Wednesday, The Huguenots; on Thursday, Don Carlos; on Friday, Martha; on Saturday afternoon, Les Huguenots; and on Saturday evening, Bohemian Girl. The price for reserved seats for the entire season is fixed at $10, and the sale of season tickets will commence to-morrow at the Academy of Music, and will continue for two days. The sale of single tickets will commence on Thursday at the music store of F. A. North & Co., No. 1028 Chestnut street, and at the Academy.

CITY ITEMS.

A NEW AND BEAUTIFUL ARTICLE OF FOOD.—The SEA MOSS FARINE, manufactured from Irish Moss, by the Rand Sea Moss Farine Company, has been placed on our table at different times, and proves to be one of the best, most nutritious, and easily-digested of all the farines now in use. It is palatable to the taste, is lighter and less compact than any other farina, and hence better adapted to the stomachs, to dyspeptics, to invalids, and all persons of frail constitutions. In cases where tapioca, sago, barley, corn starch, malzena, and similar articles are beneficial, the Sea Moss Farine is not only a substitute, but has advantages which neither of them possess, because the main ingredient of the moss has been considered by medical men for many years as having invaluable remedial properties. It is particularly recommended for persons afflicted with scrofulous complaints, diarrhoea, etc.—Editor Hall's Journal of Health.

FAST LIVING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—When "fast life" has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, it is possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of PLANTATION BITTERS. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not sufficient alone. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the corporal and mental energies from their state of collapse. This good work it is the mission of the Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

VALER'S RESTAURANT, No. 923 ARCH STREET, elegantly fitted up, is now in full blast, serving all the delicacies of the season from 6 A. M. to midnight. Parties returning from the theatres or opera house served at the shortest notice from an unsurpassed bill of fare. Ladies' Saloon on the second floor.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the jeweller at No. 8 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewellery and Silverware in the city. He has also on hand a fine assortment of the American Western Watches. Those who purchase at this store at the present time are certain to get the worth of their money.

SKILMAN & SIMPSON, the well-known dealers in fresh and salt oysters at No. 297 South Delaware avenue, are doing a thriving business. They have constantly on hand a fresh stock of bivalves, and all orders left with them at their place of business will be promptly and faithfully executed.

THE demand on Saturday for our $15 and other beautiful and cheap suits surpassed anything in the history of our business. From morning until night there was one continual stream of customers making purchases at the Great Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street.

AN ENEMY IN YOUR MOUTH.—Do not put an enemy in your mouth to steal away your teeth. Beware of destructive tooth washes and tooth powders, many of which are base imitations of SODABONT. Insure a life long of sound teeth and fragrant breath, by adopting the fragrant SODABONT.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," handy about the house, mends everything.
