Another address, signed by a still larger number of ladies, accompanied by a princely gift, was pre-sented. Its tenor is as follows: "Most blessed father, now that your Holiness is imitating the Son of God in His dolorous passion, allow us to imitate pious women in presenting our-selves at your feet and offering you what little sup-port we can with our tears and prayers and our slender gifts. Let us hope that as those same pious women were the first to relate over Janua erisan. women were the first to rejeice over Jesus arisen, so we may soon be the first to show forth our joy in the day of your triumph. Let your apostolic bene-diction be the pledge of this hope." VRESAILLES, NOV. 5.—General Truenow reported to the Prussian headquarters here yesterday that his division had repulsed the franc tireurs in soveral engagements on the 2d inst, between Colmar and Belfort. After a combat of two hours, as the French cavalry appeared to be sur-rounding them, the Frusslans retreated, leaving two officers and fifty men killed, and seventy relevant in one hands

One is under the command of General Clement Thomas, and the other under General Buchot. The army of the latter is composed of three corps d'armee, commanded respectfully by Generals Vinoy, Kenault and D'Exea. The third army will be under the special command of Gen-eral Trochu, who, at the same time, is commander in chief of all the armies.

The Journal contains a note from General Trochu, explaining the inaction of General Schmitz, during the disorder of the 31st ult. Trochu states that he had given orders that the National Guard should alone interfere to preserve order, hence the regular troops were not called upon. A report has been received from Rhelins that the Prossian Governor General of Lorraine announces that the families of all male citizens absent from their homes after a certain date will be fined fifty france per day, as long as such absence continues. The Prussians continue to force the most eminent citizens living on rallway lines to ride upon the locomotives, the object being to prevent acci-dents to the trains. The barbarity of the invaders increases in propertion to the resistance of the population to their cruel requisitions. Many acts extreme ferocity are reported.

A communication from a gentleman merly living in New York, now a residen this city, asking that his daughter, wh now a pupil at the New York Normal Sel be admitted to the Girls' Normal Schoo this city. Referred to the Committee on Girls' High School, with power to act.

When the report of the Committee on counts was being read Mr. Elkin rose in place and objected to the payment of the bill for furnishing "Lawrence's Model Speaker." He had ascertained that the book could be had from several of the leading booksellers at $12 per dozen, while the committee had paid Eldridge & Jro., the publishers, $14.40. He denounced such a transaction, and asked for information on the subject.

Mr. Ridings, the chairman of the committee, stated that there was but a single bidder for furnishing the books, and the contract had to be so awarded, notwithstanding the committee were satisfied that the figure was too high.

Mr. Elkins then offered the following: Resolved, That the Committee on Supplies be directed to inform Eldridge & Bro., the publishers of "Lawrence's Model Speaker," that the Board of Education will not pay a higher price for the said book than the same is supplied to the bookseller.

Mr. Hoffmann stated that the advertisement was inserted in five different papers three times each. He favored the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter.

Mr. Nebinger strongly censured Messrs. Eldridge & Bro. for imposing upon the board, and wanted a special committee appointed to investigate into the action of the Committee on Supplies.

Mr. Ridings offered a resolution to that effect. It was passed, and the committee was requested to report at the next meeting.

The Committee on Secondary and Grammar Echools handed in a report setting forth that the attendance at the night schools and the artisan school far exceeded that of last year, and the scholars evince great interest in their studies.

The Special Committee on Compulsory Education presented a report to the effect that they endeavored to get the bill they had prepared before the Legislature, but had not met with success. The report speaks of the necessity of such an act and urges its pas-
