Last evening a series of interesting exercises was held in the Sunday-school room of the Presbyterian church, Bridesburg, the occasion being one of the yearly remions which are provided for the en-tainment of the scholars and teachers of the series of the scholars and teachers of the school is scholars and teachers of the tainment of the scholars and teachers of the school is scholars and teachers of the inset church to which the school belongs is one of the finest church being to the liberality of Colonel Barton H. Jenka. The citizens of Bridesburg are in every way indebted to this gentleman. He is the head of the large manufacturing establishment, one of the largest of its kind in the country, which is situated near the town, and which provides the means of living for the majority of its inhabitants. situated near the town, and which provides the means of living for the majority of its inhabitants. A few years ago the beautiful stone church was built to meet the wants of the place, at a cost of thirty-five thousand dollars. It has a seating capacity of seven hundred, and a congregation at present of about five hundred. Attached to this church is one of the largest Sunday-schools to be found anywhere in Philadelphia. It has over six hundred scholars; and a large building, separate from the church, but in the same enclosure, supplies it with ample accommodations. Every year this Sunday-school is furnished with a pleasing and instructive entertainment by its foun-pleasing and instructive entertainment by its foun-der and superintendent, Mr. Jenks. For three years der and superintendent, Mr. Jenks. For three years past these entertainments have been somewhat on the order of a magical soirce by an amateur but very expert performer, Dr. L. R. Koecker, a well-known dentist of West Walnut street. Last evening, in addition to the members of the school, several invited guests from the city were present at such an entertainment, through the kind period the store the severe present at such an entertainment, through the kind invitation of Colonel Jenks. Among these were Hon. W. S. Peirce, Attorney-General F. Carroll Brewster, Hon. Edward M. Paxson, Hon. Joseph Allison, Hon. Morton McMichael, Colonel William B. Mann, J. G. Mitchell, Esq., Colonel Thomas Fitz-geraid, Mossrs, George Northrop, F. Theodore Waiton, and others. It was the first intention to have addresses from some of these gentlemen, bat the would not nermit the exhibition was immeas time would not permit the exhibition was imme-diately proceeded with. It lasted from half-past i until 10 o'clock, and ducing all that time the attention of the audience was held with the greatest ease, the adult guests being as much interested as the children

The performance was of the highest order of excellence. Some of the tricks had been performed before by professional hands, but were fully up to the best standards, while others were entirely new. The entire apparatus used was the handiwork of the exhibitor, who has the reputation of being the best maker of such knicknacks in the country. The results attained certainty justified the assertion. Some of the most saccessful performances were the bird in the box, the egg trick, the fortune-teller, and the rope-dancer, while those most satisfactory to the inveniles were the handkerchief and the magic-box tricks, by which sugar bonbons were manufactured wholesale, at least to the extent of a small barrel full, which bonbons were then deli-vered over to the superintendent and his assistants, who distributed them to the children small and great,

Dr. Koecker was efficiently assisted on the stage in all his performances by Mr. F. A. Berger, who is an old hand at such work, and by Walter Jenks, a son of the Colonel.

At the conclusion the children retired, well pleased by what they had seen and more than ever devoted to Colonel Jenks and his lady, who both take an active interest in the school. After the audience had dispersed, the invited guests were driven to Colonei Jenks' private resi-dence, where the party partock of his hospitality, and spent the remainder of the evening in speech making, toasting, sloging, and enjoying themselves generally. It was not until a late hour that the as-sembly broke up, and then all returned to their car-riages and were driven homewards, much pleased with the entertainment to which they had been

A SWINDLER AMONG THE BUSINESS MEN. -Several days since a man called at the drug house of Charles Ellis, Son & Co., at Tenth and Market streets, and gave the name of Dr. John D. Stroud, and the resi-dence of Richmond, Indians. He represented that he was about starting a drug store at that place, and had come here for the purpose of purchasing sup-plies, and wanted no credit. He also claimed connection with the Society of Friends. He succeaded in having a bill packed, but the firm fortunately did not forward the articles, awaiting payment. He always claimed that he had the money in his pocket, but never offered to pay. He was a daily caller, and yesterday he represented that he had been boarding at the St. Charles Hotel and had made the acquaint-Muhelland. Accompanying it wanted a the box to Chief Muhelland. Accompanying it was a note explain-ing that the box had been for and at the bottom of the canal along the Schuylk and opposite to Jerry Kings old place. To it what and opposite to Jerry Kings string. The box as attached a heavy stone and thinks the set was open and empty. The captain nees the box was open and empty. DUEP men who have been robbed.

OFFICIAL VISITORS .- Yesterday the Mayor, a com-OFFICIAL VISITOES.—Yesterday the Mayor, a com-mittee of the Board of Alderinen, and the Heaith Officer of Newark, N. J. arrived in this cut for this purpose of examining into the sanitary condition of Philadelphia. They called on the Mayor, and a der massing a few minutes with him they repaired to the Continental. To-day they are in charge of the Board of Health, and during the day will visit the Municipal Hospital.

TO DE VACATED. -An effort has been made, since the Wissahlckon has been included within the limits of Fairmount Park, to have the establishment known as the Old Log Cabin vacated. The matter has finally received official astion. The Park Com-mission has issued the regular polification to the eccupant that he must vacate the premises on or before January 5 next.

ANOTHER WIFE-BEATER -- Mrs. Coleman, residing No. 1729 Carpenter street, appeared before Alder-man Devitt yesterday and complained that her husband, John Coleman, had beaten her, for the rea-son that she refused him money were with he desired to procure run. The magistrate issued a war-rant and gave John a hearing, after which the prisoner was committed for trial.

FIRE .- At a quarter after 6 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the hay loft of the stable of Euward McCaffrey, on Swaim street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, and before it dould be ex-tinguished the structure and its contents, save the horses, which were rescued, was destroyed. The loss will reach $1000, on which there is no insurance.

IN EXPLANATION of the laquiry of who is tearing up the cobble stone pavement on Pine street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, it is stated the work is only before the property of owners who desire the Belgian blocks laid; those preferring the cobble stones to remain will not be called upon to pay.

A NUISANCE,-The Mayor was notified this morning that the sewers along Noble street, from the Delaware to Sixth street, were blocked up so that the thoroughfare is filled with refuse matter. The residents complain that the strench arising from the filth is almost intolerable.

A SCHOONER CAPSIZED .- Last evening, during the high wind, the oyster schooner Harmonia, belonging to Thomas Lombard, capsize I and sunk in the Dela-ware off South street. Her crew were rescued by a tug which happened to be in the immediate vicinity.

FORGERY CASE.—John P. Linton had a hearing before Alderman Smith this morning, charged with forging the endorsement of Thomas Shaw to a che k for $150 on the Fidelity Trust and Safe Deposit Company. He was held to bail to answer.

THE POLICE IN NEW JERSEY .- Mayor Fox is now engaged in investigating the visit of the policemen to Camden on Tuesday last. He expresses a determination to dismiss all who have done any wrong.

CORONER'S CASE .- Mrs. Nagle, residing at No. 465 New Market street, fell dead this morning while at work. The Coroner will hold an inquest.

An Interview with the Ex-Emperor at Wilhelmshohe-The Republic of America and

French Successes - Victory of Garlbald's Troops. LONDON, Nov. 10.-(Special to Messrs. D. C. Wharton Smith & Co.)-To-day's war despatches chronicle important French successes before Paris through the capture of several Prussian works. Garibaldi has again been victorious, having successfully routed a force of Prussians 5000 strong. The latest from the Army of the Loire is that there have been three days' constant fighting with no decisive result. The losses of the French are frightful, but the German line has been driven back ten miles.

FROM THE STATE.

The Lutheran Council ut Lancaster-Adjourn-LANCASTER, Nov. 10 .- The General Council of the Lutheran Church in North America closed its labors last night. The Rev. J. K. Platt and David Armour, Esq., were elected to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee. On the subject of Home Missions an interesting report from the committee was read by Rev. H. W. Roth, the secretary. The Rev. Dr. Passavant, Chairman of the Chicago Theological Seminary Commission, reported the progress made in this important work since last year.

Mr. S. Gross Fry, the Treasurer, submitted a report of the money received by him for the support of foreign missions. The Rev. Professor C. F. Schaeffer, D. D., President of the Faculty of the Philadelphia Seminary, was appointed Archivarius of the Council. The sessions of the council have been unusually pleasant and interesting, many visiting brethren being present, among whom were Professors Loy and Schmidt, of the Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio. The citizens of Lancaster have manifested great interest in the proceedings, and have extended the most cordial hospitality to the members of the convention.

The next session of the General Council will PANCOAST MEDAL .- A fine three-inch bronze medal of Joseph Pancoast, M. D., Professor of Anatomy in the Jefferson Medical College, Phila-delphia, has recently, by order of the Director, been struck at the Mint of the United States. To accom-monate the friends of that distinguished physician and surgeon and medical author, and to enable members of the medical profession generally, who may desire it, to possess themselves of such a monto, copies of the medal are now for sale at the nt. The medal was designed and modelled from Mint. The medal was designed and modelled from life, by William Barber, Esq, engraver of the Mint, the obverse presenting a very striking profile likeness, in relief, of Professor Pancoast, and the reverse the following inscription:-Joseph Pancoast, M. D., Prof. of Anatomy, Jefferson Medical College.

Encircled by a wreath of oak and laurel leaves. The drice of the medal is five dollars in currency.

THE CENSUS OF THE EIGHTH WARD .- The civilians and policemen who have been designated by the Mayor and the committee of Councils to retake the enumeration of the Eighth ward started out this orning, armed with all the necessary documents for the purpose. One policeman and one civilian were assigned to a division. So much time is con-sumed in waiting the answers that it is extremely doubtful whether the work will be completed in th time specified by the authorities. The census-takers also experience trouble from the non-preparation by the citizens for their visit. They state that if the questions had been earlier promulgated through the newspapers they would have been ready on the instant to give all the information re

A TENT BLOWN DOWN-A NUMBER OF PERSONS IN IT AT THE TIME.—For some weeks past, a tent has occupied the vacant lot on the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Coates streets. It was devoted to religious purposes, and meetings were held nightly, presided over by Brother Hook. Last evening there was the usual service, and a number of persons were under the canvas. About 8 o'clock, during the prevalence of the high winds, the stakes on one side came out of the ground suddenly, and in an instant the tent was lying over the heads of the people. The greatest consternation prevailed from the fact that the tent was lighted up at the time, but fortunately the canvas was soaked with the rain which had fallen during the afternoon. A number of persons were attracted to the spot, and they succeeded in extricating those who were buried beneath the

THE DEATH OF JOHN P. SLAVIN .- At noon to-day Coroner Taylor summoned a jury for the purpose of investigating the circumstances attending the death of John P. Mrs. Ann Kelly sworn-In the third or last week of June, 1868, I ordored a pair of slippers soled and heeled at Becker's, in Diamond street above Second ; they were black cloth, worked with zepnyr; double soles and heavy fields were put on them; my sister Lizzie got them about July 4 of that year. Cross-examined—I did not see or know the officers went to Bazelle's on Monday or Tuesday. James M. Fletcher sworn—I was Coroner Daniels' clerk in September, 1868; I remember the occur-rence of Mary Mohrman's death; there was an inquest held; there were font meetings, beginning on the sth and ending on the 30th of September, 1563; 1 was present at those meetings in the capacity of clerk, and took notes; you (counsel for the prisoner) have a correct copy of those notes; the original vere torn up when Coroner Daniels went out of

Mr. Hagert here cross-examined Mr. Fletcher in regard to those notes-The original notes were de-stroyed, I think; I do not think there were any inerlineations in the original notes; they were taken with lead pencil on ordinary paper, and then copied into the Coroner's books: I was Coroner's clerk while actually taking down notes I have frequently had occasion to make interlineations and corrections, but I cannot recollect any particular case in which I had to do this; I can't tell whether I had to make any such in my notes of Mary Mohrman's case; if there were any I copied correctly, not noting any interlineations or erasures that may have appeared in the original notes; I did not take them down in the form of question and answer or phonographically. Re-examined-I have Caroline Dinglacker's testimony here as Caroline Dinglebocker's; she said "the man who took Mary Mohrman had on biask pants and a little tight fitting jacket and big whis-kers; he was a tail man and had on a close fitting cap; I told her to stay with me and she said no, the the man wanted her; I do not know that I would know him if I saw him again; he offered me ten cents, but gave her nothing." The persons examined by the Coroner were:-

Rice, and Dr. E. B. Shapleigh. Cross-examined-Caroline Dinglacker was very young and excited then, and was not sworn; her examination took the form of a conversation be-tween her and the Coroner; it was with difficulty that anything could be got out of her. Louisa Adams sworn-I am a married woman; at he time of this occurrence my name was Louisa Rill, and under that name I was examined before the Coroner; I remember the occurrence of Mary Mohrman; on that night I was standing on the of Fifth and Susquehanna avenue during church time, talking to a young gentleman, when saw a man passing up on the left hand side towards Susquehanna avenue; he had a child in his arms, and the child was crying; he said, "Don't cry, Mary; I am your uncle, and I'll give you live cents;" the child was barefooted, Mary; Mary; ive bareheaded and had a pink and white dress on; the man had on dark clothes and a black cap drawn over his eyes; he passed on up Fifth street towards Dauphin; that is all I seen; I told the coroner of this; I was not there when the others were; when I was at the Coroner's a dress was shown me and I recognized it as the dress the little girl wore in the man.s arms.

Cross-examined-I was at Mrs. Gluck's Corner talking with David McGway; we were walting for the young lady he was going to see; when I first saw the man he was at Susquehanna avenue, and when I last saw him he was going towards Dauphin street I did not look after him, and did not say anything to Mr. McGway about it; before 1 came to the corner I had been home, and when 1 left the corner I went home; I did not see the clock at all that night, and did not take notice of the time striking; when I saw the people going to church 1 had been standing on the corner about five minutes; I did not know Mary Mohrman; the child was sitting upon the marks with a strike about the strike strike and about the strike strike about the strike strike about the str right arm : she was sitting tolerably quiet, and was not crying loud; I do not know that there were many persons sitting on their steps; did not see them; persons sitting on their steps; did not see them; they all go to church; I heard the following morn-ing that Mary Mohrman was missing; I stood on the corner about a quarter of an hour after I saw the man; I do not know whether the child cried all the way up; I did not hear it after they passed me; I didn't notice whether the child's dress was high or low-necked; couldn't tell whether I saw her bare shoulders or arms; I did not see the child's face; I saw the back of her head; she was bareheaded; she bad hair on her head; I noticed no bine ribbons on her head or anything else; I sampose blue ribbons on her head or anything else; I suppose I could have seen ribbons on her head; it was light enough, but I did not notice; I could notice the color of the dress because it had pink and white; it was not a pink dress with white stripes; there were pink stripes on the white ground; I did not see the man's face; he had the cap pulled over his face; I did not take notice of his his face; I took no notice; I could tell by his hands that he was a while man; I oldn't see both; I only saw the left hand; the left hand was not concealed by the dress; he was moving her up on his arm, and that is how I saw his hand; the dr s

The New York Herald has a long report of an alleged conversation between a correspondent and the ex-Emperor Napoleon. Portions of the narrative will be found upon an inside page of this paper. The following additional pas-tions; but all conditions requisite to a true republi-can form of government are absolutely wanting in France. These who boldly grasped the reins of power have already discovered their utter inability to establish such a government. That for which they blamed me most they have been compelled to do themselves, and in a form still more obnoxious. The restraint in posed upon the press, for instance, was the constant theme of most violent attacks on my Government but while I made but moderate use of the law, while fines and punishment were rare, and preceded a mild system of avertissements, they have suppressed a number of journals because they did not chime in with their fantastic ideas of republican sentiments, prescipposing a vital interest of a majority of the people in what concerns the country, and a willingness to put their shoulder to untry, the wheel, which does not exist in France. I can illustrate to you the utter political indifference which pervades the masses by the following inclwhich pervades the masses by the following incl-dent:--One of the representatives in the Department of the Jura, an officer of my army, a friend to me personally, and a staunch imperialist, who was at the same time wealthy, and a citizen well known and highly esteemed in the community, died. At an election called to fill the vacancy, another wealthy and well-known citizen, M. Grevy, was chosen almost unanimously, without even having been asked to make known his political convictions, it was afterwards discovered, to the great astonish ment of his constituency, that he was politically the intipode of his predecessor, and of course a strong autagonist of my government. The good people never inquired what were his sentiments, nor did they care. They had been asked to vote for him, and did so. That he should be an exponent, however, of their political views never occurred to them. How could be the the should be did no fitched intelligence of so it, in the absence of real political intelligence? The republic of America and the republic of France are as different as white is from black. Your country submits to the law. Public sentiment and public pirit, based upon general intelligence and morality, dictate the control of society. Are not your theatres in New York and Boston allowed to perform such plays as they deem fir? Correspondent-Certainly they are,

Emperer Napoleon-Suppose they should treat the public to performances of hopure and offensive pieces, what would be the consequences? The press would decounce them. Nobody would go to see them. They would be condemned by the verdict of the public. But in France, just over the way, the greater the departure from morality and de-corum the greater will be the crowd flocking to delight in it. It is no easy work to carb such an ex-travagant and depraved spirit in a country so often, unhapplig, shallon by revolution. It requires the atmost energy to build up anything, any form of state government. What is the feeling Berlin ? Correspondent-Peace is the general desire of the people cople. Peace by all means. Emperor Napoleon-France, too, needs peace. But the conditions imposed by Count Bismarck are too exacting, extreme, sir. What Government in France could accept them and at the same time maintain itself against the outraged people ? France cannot endure so deep a humiliation.

Correspondent-As to the soutiment in Berlin, the have been so worked upon by the official ress that it may be regarded as an impossibility for even Bismaick to lower his domand for territorial and xation on the large t scale.

Emperor (with deep emotion)-France cannot bear

Correspondent-Considering that your Majesty may be recalled to the throne, and France may yet be-come prosperous though losing a portion of her territory, why should your Majesty commit yourself on a question of this character? Emperor Napoleon (musingly)—You may be right. At this moment the Emperor, who had been all cheerfulness previously, sighed for the first time.

Destructive Fire at Buffalo-Loss $600,000.

BUFFALO, Nov. 10 .- About half-past 10 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the large transfer house of the New York Central Railway Company in East Buffalo, near the cattle yards, destroying the building and three hundred empty railroad cars. The loss is estimated at over $600,000. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The transfer building was over fifteen hundred feet long, and was built partly of brick and partly of wood, with a slate roof. A portion of the rolling stock belonged to the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company.

FROM THE WEST. Arkansas Election.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 10 .- The Avalanche'e Little Rock's special despatch says that Hanks' (Dem.) majority over Roots (Rep.), in Independence county is 400; Jackson county, 250; Cross county, 200; St. Francis county, 85; Prairie county, 300. Sufficient returns have been received to insure the election of Hanks by 700. In the Second district Ouchita county gives Snyder (Rep.) 125, and Jefferson 100. Saline gives Rogers 375. It is believed that Snyder (Dem.) is elected in this district, and Edwards (Dem.) in the Third district.

FROM EUROPE.

The Revictualing of Paris.

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- A late issue of La France newspaper says the question of the revictualing of Paris was the real stumbling block in the way of the negotiations for an armistice. The matter of elections in Alsace and Lorraine was not vital and might have been satisfactorily arranged. Intelligence of events in Paris on the 31st of October had reached the German headquarters. On the 2d inst., when Thiers returned to the Prussian headquarters from his conference with the Paris government, the Prussian tone had changed and harder conditions were asked because of the prospect of internal discord. Favre promptly rejected these final propositions. The Francais, notwithstanding the failure of negotiations, urges the immediate election of a National Assembly.

The Prussian Advance.

Tours, Nov. 9-Evening .- The Germans are concentrating at Chateaudun and Orleans. General von Der Tann, who is in command, is preparing to advance.

The French yesterday defeated an attempt of the Prussians to occupy the forest of Marchenoir and drove them six miles. The numbers were about equal. No news from Normandy or Burgundy.

The Municipal Elections

at Marseilles will occur on the 13th inst. The New Diamond Fields .

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- The new steamship Italy, from New York for Liverpool, touched at Queenstown yesterday. Rolleston, pioneer of the Cape of Good Hope diamond diggings, has arrived in England, and justifies the glowing accounts of that country which have lately been published.

A Grand Banquet

given by the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs at Guild-Hall last evening was largely attended, and was in every respect a success. Among the guests were Chancellor-of-the-Exchequer Gladstone, Earl Granville, of the Foreign Office; Right Hon. William E. Foster, Vice-President of the Council; Right Hon. Chichester Fortescue, Chief Secretary of Ireland; Cardwell, M. P. for Oxford City; Goschen, M. P. for London; Lewis, M. P. for Marylebone; and many other celebrities. The toasts and speeches were of the usual friendly character. This Afternoon's Quotations

Wells in the First Congressional district will be over 1500, beating both Johnson, Liberal, and Smith McClurg.

The Democrat has a special, dated Little Rock, Ark., which says a strong attempt to sell out the Republican party was made by Governor Claxton in the election yesterday. His registers in some places committed all manner of frauds in favor of the Democracy in Phillips county, where there is about 2000 Republican majority.

The Governor went in person the Saturday before election, and through a white candidate for State Senator and Judge Bennett, defeated Republican candidate, turned almost the entire Republican vote against Roots, candidate for Congress. On Monday night, at Little Rock a leading Rebel, and candidate for the Legislature, declared himself and party for Governor Claxton for the United States Senate, and the Claxton men here all voted the Democratic ticket. Notwithstanding all this it is believed the Republicans have carried the State by a handsome majority.

FROM THE PLAINS.

Arrest of the Pacific Railroad Robbers. SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 10 .- Two of the railroad mail robbers were caught last night by the Mormon authorities, twenty-five miles west of here, and they are on the track of two others. All the Robbers Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.-All the parties con-cerned in the Truckee Railroad robbery have been arrested. One of them, named Turner, has turned State's evidence, and hopes are entertained of the recovery of the money.

SHOCKING SUICIDE.

A Prominent citizen of Newark, N. J., Hange Himself. The Newark Advertiser of last evening says

Mr. William R. Fayre, a gentleman well known in this city, an old resident, and generally esteemed as a man of strict business integrity and probity of character, committed suicide between 11 and 12 o'clock to-day, by havging himself in the drying-room of his residence, No. 51 Fulton street. About three months ago he began to exhibit symptoms of mental derangement. This morning it was noticed by his family that he seemed quite nervous, and about the time mentioned above he was missed, but his wife thought he had gone out for a walk. About 12 o'clock, however, as he failed to return, search was made for him through the house, and he was finally found, as stated above, quite dead. He had used a short piece of a clothes line, and was so suspended that his knees touched the floor.

Deceased was in very comfortable circumstances, and bore the character of a generous and high-minded man. He twice represented the Fourth Assembly district of this county in the Legislature, once in 1867 and again at the last session.

Mr. Sayre was an elder in the Second Presbyterian Church, Superintendent of the Sundayschool, and an active man in all matters pertaining to the interests of his church. He was a director of the Newark Mutual Insurance Company, and occupied other positions of trust and honor. He was also a member of several of the city commissions to assess damages and benefits for various improvements, and enoyed in a peculiar degree the confidence of his fellow men. He was about fifty-five years of age, and leaves a wife, two daughters, and one son.

For some days past his family have been watching his movements, in the bellef that his mind was impaired, noticing which he asked 'why do you watch me? do you think I am going to kill myself?" He voted yesterday, but with great reluctance, saying they would think he was crazy if he went to the polls. The melancholy affair has plunged a large circle of relations and friends into grief, and startled the entire community.
