BIUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC Madame Seebach had a large audience to witness her performance of "Louisa Miller" in Schiller's wildly energetic play of Intrigue and Love. The very artistic faults of this piece conduce to a certain extent to its effectiveness in representation, and the character of "Louisa" is one that is admirably suited to Madame Seebach's graceful and beautiful style. She played last night with a great deal of tenderness and pathos, and both in the play and is her spirited recitation of Schiller's "Song of the Bell" she excited the enthusiasm of her audience to the highest pitch.

This evening Madame Seebach will appear in one of her greatest roles, "Marguerite," in Goethe's tragedy of Faust. No admirer of elevated dramatic art should miss seeing this performance.

There will be a matinee to-morrow, when Madame Seebach will appear as "Jane Eyre." AT THE CHESNUT Mr. Frank Drew will have a farewell benefit, when he will appear as "Handy Andy," "Monsleur Jacques," and will give imitations of famous actors. This is a fine bill, and it should attract a crowded house. There will be a matinee to-morrow, when Mr.

Drew will appear. On Monday Mrs. James A. Oates and her burlesque troupe will appear in Herve's Petite

AT THE WALNUT Mr. J. S. Clarke will take a benefit this evening, when he will personate "Babington Jones" in John Brougham's comedy of Among the Breakers, "Cousin Joe" in The Rough Diamond, and "Jack Humphries" in Turning the Tables. A matinee will be given to-morrow, when Mr. Clarke will appear as "Asa Trenchard" in Our American Cousin.

AT THE ARCH Shakespeare's beautiful comedy of As You Like it will be represented this evening with Mrs. Drew as "Rosalind." The performance will conclude with the comic drama

ADAM FOREPAUGE'S CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE is attracting large audiences every afternoon and evening at the corner of Broad and Wallace streets. This is a first rate show, and fathers of amilies cannot give their youngsters a greater reat than by taking them to see it.

MR. CARL WOLFSOHN will give his first matinee of the present season to-day at 4 o'clock P. M., at the Foyer of the Academy of Music. A fine programme of classical music will be pre-

AT THE AMERICAN Pedanto the great gymnast, and numerous other talented performers will appear this evening. There will be a matinee to-morrow.

AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OPERA HOUSE the opening of the minstrel season has been crowned with brilliant success, and crewded houses have been in attendance every evening during the present week. This troupe is large and efficient, and the programme each evening is full of excellent entertainment. There will be a matinee to-morrow, when the price of admission will be 25 cents to all parts of the house.

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE Hughey Dougherty will deliver his funny speech this evening. Sheridan and Mack will execute their ongs and dances. There will be a grand Rail-Smash-up and a variety of other features that will make a most attractive entertainment, which will conclude with the pantomime of The

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA WIll give a public rehearsal at Musical Fund Hall to-morrow afternoon. An excellent programme of classical and oopular music will be performed.

THE ENGLISH OPERA .- On Monday a season of twelve nights and two mathees of English opera will commence at the Academy of Music. he principal artists who are announced to apbear are well known to the public, and repreenting as they do the strength of the two ompanies of last year, a series of superior performances may be expected from them. his English troupe is the only operatic combiation now in the field, and so far as there are my indications at present, the only performnces of opera we will have this season will be uch as they will give. The reportoire is large, nd the operas announced are such as are well orth hearing, and it is to be hoped that the ndiences will be as large as the incrits of the oupe deserve. For the first week are announced It Trovatore, The Bokemton Girl, The Huguenots, Dinorah, Martha, Fra Diavolo, and Oberon. The most rominent feature of this programme is Meyereer's beautiful opera of Dinorah, which has ever before been given in this city in English, nd which is too seldom performed in any shape. nother performance of great interest will be eber's Oberon, which created such a sensation hen it was brought out for one or two evenings the end of last season by the Parepa-Rosa The other works announced are oldstablished favorites, that are well worth hearig even by those who have heard them freently, and altogether the prospect for a series first-rate entertainments is most promising oring the second week an equally attractive st of operas is announced. Considering the w prices of admission, the merits of the commy, and the excellence of the operas they I perform there should be crowded houses
