A Partial Steppage in Schuylkill—The Market
—The Appointment of Arbitration Committees for 1871—The Complete Tonnage for the Week—Quotations, Rtc.

THE COAL TRADE.

As foreshadowed last week, several collieries in the Schuylkill region which had the alternative of selling at a loss or stopping for the winter, have given notice that they will stop for the winter after to-day. This is the direct effect of the high tolls, the reduction not being sufficient to meet the demands of the trade. If the senson is long enough other collieries will fol-lew the example, and will continue to follow it until either the supply is sufficiently reduced or extremely cold weather comes to the rescue and raises the rates. The mines in the Shamokin region, which were in difficulty by reason of a withdrawal of a number of men from the W. B.

A., will close for the winter.

The market is in the same uncertain and undesirable condition. The prices are nominal only, and were it not that coastwise freights are now very low, there would be almost nothing done at this port. As it is, some sizes cannot be sold even with forcing.

Committees from the organizations of the miners and operators of Schwylkill county have miners and operators of Schwylkill county have been appointed for the purpose of considering the question of wages for 1871. This is a good movement, and is well timed. The committees consist of six members from each organization. If the meetings are conducted in the right spirit great good may result to both parties. The movement originated with the operators, and the president of the W. B. A. in appointing the members of his committee makes the following tatement:-

"My reason for appointing the committee is to harmonize, if possible, and bring about a conciliatory maderstanding between all parties concerned, viz., the miners, operators, and P. R. R. Co., and not be, as we have been heretofore, in opposition to each other, entailing misery on all and hatred towards each other, besides giving our enemies, the soulless corporations of Luzerne county, the opportunity of reaping rich harvests by our unwise and foolish actions."

This is extremely good, but it should have

This is extremely good, but it should have been said long ago.

If these sentiments, no matter however imperfectly they may be expressed, are the sentiments of the miners generally, they, the miners, are much nearer gaining what they really wish than they think. An obstinate, headstrong, narrow-minded spirit, which will see only one side, will never result in any good. One party in this condition makes the other neces-sarily so. Neither will move, and both come to grief. But more discretion will be necessary on the part of the miners as to how they try to enforce measures which even some of their own number consider unjust.

The following is the complete summary of the trade for the week ending November 13, as reported for the Pottsville Miners' Journal of to-

Coastwise freights at this part are steady. In the early part of the week vessels were scarce, but they are now more plentiful by reason of the arrival of a number which were due and daily expected.

Madame Romain,
Mrs. Dr. Lippe,
Mrs. A. Monestier,
Mrs. E. Salles,

For some weeks past these ladies and their friends have been actively and earnestly at work, and the collections of money and fancy art icles already made for the projected fair giv promise of decided success. The ladies who are to have charge of the tables are to meet again on next Tuesday, November 15, at noon, at the rasidence of Madame P. Jacob, No. 935 Spruce street, to complete the necessary preliminaries. All ladies who sympathize with the object of the fair are invited to be present. On whichever side of the struggle our readers may sympathize, they should do all in their power to promote the success of this undertaking. Enlladelphia is noted for its generosity, and the appeal of the sufferers by the war in France for help should not be made in vain.

Yesterday, two men entered the beer saloon of Mrs. A. Yokel, No. 454 St. John street, and became rather intimate with three other fellows who had just preceded them. One of the two began narra-ting a pitiful tale about his family, and represented that he had some valuable goods at the Custom House, to take which out of bond he needed only $275. He finally enlisted the sympathies of Mrs. Yokel, and he produced what purported to be two gold watches, two silver goblets, and half-a-dozen silver spoon, which he offered as collateral for the money. One of the three men had $125, which he tendered the unfortunate fellow, and Mrs Yokel advanced the remaining $150. The collateral was left with her, to be redeemed in a short time; but Mrs. Yokel has waited in vain for the reappearance of the men. She has lodged complaint at the Central Station. ATTEMPTED ROBBERY-ONE OF THE AL-LEGED THIEVES IN CUSTODY .- Yesterday afternoon the family of Mr. Shoemaker left their residence, No. 1215 North Sixth street, temporarily. During their absence three fellows were observed in the yard attached to the dwelling. Some of the neighbors notified Mr. Shoemaker, who keeps a drug store in the vicinity. He hurried to the place and found one fellow coming out of the alley. He followed him quietly to Sixth and Coates streets, where he had him arrested. On being searched at the station, a "jimmy" and a bunch of skeleton keys were found on him. He gave the name of Francis Jacobs, but a receipt in the name of Andrew Hughes was discovered in his pocket. It has since been ascertained that he has been out of prison but a short time, having been sentenced for two years for a robbery at a cloak store, Eighth and Sansom streets. Nothing had been taken from the residence of Mr. Shoemaker.

ROBBERY AT THE CONTINENTAL HOTEL-OVER $400 STOLEN .- On Tuesday morning last at an early hour, the closet in front of the check-room in the ladies' restaurant of the Continental Hotel was broken into, and a tin box belonging to Charles H. Berry, an employe, abstracted. The bottom of it was cut out, and $300 in currency, $25 in silver coin, a gold vest chain valued at $100, and a gold locket were taken. The box was then replaced, and the robbery was not discovered until noon of that day. Detective Levy took the matter in charge, and discovered that one of the colored employes, an engineer, had been missing since the occurrence. He has been found in the Camden jail, where he is locked up a a charge of illegal voting and carrying concealed deadly weapons. A detainer has been lodged against

A HEAVY FINE ON POLICEMEN .- In the old Court of Quarter Sessions this morning Judge Allison disposed of the case of Lieutenant of Police Errickson and Policeman Freeson, of the Second district, who had been found guilty of contempt of court in refusing to obey a writ of habeas corpus. It will be remembered that a court clerk served a writ of habeas corpus on the officers named, but they disregarded it, and it is alleged, they afterwards locked up the clerk on some trumped-up charge. The Judge imposed a fine of $250 upon each detendant, and said that he was determined to see that all the processes of the court were hereafter obeyed. He could have made the fine much heavier, but he thought the sum named would teach them a lesson. The lieutenant paid over his fine and Officer Freeson remained in court some time before the order in his case was complied with.

Revenue

Special Despatch to the Evening Telegraph. WASHINGTON, NOV. 12.

Receipts at the Treasury are falling off considerably on account of the reductions that are made in the tax and tariff bills of last winter. The expenditures are nearly the same; consequently, the reduction of the public debt will not be near so large hereafter as it has been. This will be set forth very fully by Secretary Boutwell in his annual report.

The Cota Balance in the treasury to-day is ninety-eight millions and ninety-two thousand, Gold Certificates sixteen millions and thirty-six thousand, and the Corrency Bulance twenty-nine millions eight hundred and thirty thousand.

The English Mission.

There are no new developments about the English mission. Secretary Fish stated to-day that it is extremely doubtful whether the party who had been offered the place will accept. Quite a number of Republicans who have been defeated in the late canvass are here with a view of urging upon the President a new organization of the party. They intend to show him that unless this is done defeat in 1872 is inevita-

They urge that reorganization must begin with the Cabinet. In the late fight they say they received no support from members of the Cabinet, and they discovered that they had little or no influence in the States from which they hail.

Internal Revenue Report. Secretary Delano is busy preparing the internal revenue report. The President has abandoned the idea of making the Internal Revenue Bureau a separate department.

Heavy Fallure in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—The liabilities of David Gibson & Co., liquor dealers, whose paper went to protest last evening, will probably reach $600,000. This, includes, however, their secured paper, which the firm claims is large in amount, and will be available in a short time. Though they will not be able to make a statement for some time, they assure the people that they have ample assets, and that it will amount to nothing more than a suspension.

Bismarck on the Armistice.

Etc., Etc., Stc., Stc.,

FROM EUROPE.

Biamarch's Versien of the Armistice Affair. LONDON, Nov. 12.—Bismarck has issued a circular to the representatives of North Germany in foreign States, giving his version of the late negotiations for an armistice. The appointment of such a man as Thiers by the French to conduct the negotiations-a man of such wide experience-had excited hopes of propositions that might be successful. King William was even more eager for peace than Bismarck proposed a truce for four weeks, the position of the respective armies meanwhile to be fixed, in order that elections might be held throughout France. The only effect on the French side of this truce would have been the stoppage of waste of ammunition from their forts. Thiers regretted that the revictualling of Paris was not provided for, saying it was an indispensable condition of the proposed armistice. This absurd demand to go back two months in the prosecution of the war was impossible. Subsequently an offer for a short truce was made. Thiers reported this to members of the Provisional Government, by whom it was rejected.

The inference is that the French Government dared not consult the people, and only made advances looking to peace in order to satisfy and quiet neutral powers.

Bismarck and Von Beast. London, Nov. 12.—Rumors are rife of a rupture between Bismarck and Von Beust.

Italian Frigate at Marsellies. FLORENCE, Nov. 12.—The Italian frigate Castellamare has gone to Marseilles to protect Italian citizens residing there. Another vessel will follow as soon as possible.

LONDON, Nov. 12 .- Six thousand German troops are now marching on Montmedy. A renewal of the bombardment of that town is therefore expected. Paris not to be Bombarded.

BERLIN, Nov. 12 .- Despatches received here to-day from the German headquarters at Versailles announce that Paris will not be bombarded. The German authorities are convinced that the city is so illy provisioned that a surrender may be expected within a month from that cause alone. The Capture of Orleans.

LONDON, Nov. 12 .- The Times' correspondent, telegraphing from Berlin, announces the confirmation of the capture of Orleans. It is also confirmed that Russia has asked for a revision of the treaty of 1856.

Expected Bombardment of Hamburg. There is considerable excitement here over the movements of the French fleet, and news of the bombardment of Hamburg is hourly expected. The battle at Orleans was a very serious one. The French line reached from Vendome to Beaugency. Travel has been restored between Orleans and Vizoin and soon will be between Orleans and Tours.
