The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC a novelty is announced for this evening in the shape of Bristow's opera of Rip Van Winkle. This work was originally produced some fifteen years ago, but as English opera was not the fashion then it failed to achieve a permanent success, and it laid upon the shelf until it was brought out a few weeks ago in New York. The opera is said to contain much beautiful music, and it ought to attract a large audience this evening on that account as well as because it is the work of au American composer, and is upon a purely American subject. Mr. Drayton will personate "Rip Van Winkle," and the other characters will be sustained by Messrs. Castle, Chatterson, Howell, Kinross, White, Hill, Mrs. Bernard, and Mrs. Drayton.

To-morrow evening The Marriage of Figaro will be performed, on Wednesday The Bohemian Girl, and on Thursday Martha.

AT THE WALNUT the last week of Mr. J. S.

Clarke's brilliant engagement is announced, and he will appear in a different bill every evening, in order to give the public an opportunity to see him in as many of his principal personations as possible. This evening he will appear in "Babington Jones" in Among the Breakers and as "Bob Brierly" in the Ticket-of-Leave Man and to-morrow as "Paul Pry" and "Asa

AT THE ARCH the drama of The Marble Heart Will be performed this evening.
On Friday Mr. Barton Hill will have a benefit.

AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OFERA HOUSE the eccentric comedian Mr. C. Gardner, who is announced as the original "Hop Light Loo," has been engaged, also the "infant wonder," Master Charley. Among the other attractions announced is a burlesque entitled Grant's Office Seekers, which ought to be both justractive and entertaining. The troupe at this establishment is an unusually strong one both in vocalists, instrumentalists, and comic actors, and the performances present great attractions for amuse-

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE among the novelties for the present week are The Perplexing Predicament, with Hughey Dougherty as "Jimmy Panes;" Society; or, The Upper and Lower Ten," by Sheridan and Mack; Stop That Monkey, by Stumons, Martin, and Morris, and the farce of Trouble, with the characters by the whole company. The appreciation of the publie for the entertainments given at this house is shown by the crowds that attend nightly. SIGNOR BLITZ and his son will perform a number of interesting and curious feats in natural magic this evening at the Assembly Build-MAD'LLE CHRISTINE NILSSON, our readers will be gratified to learn, will shortly return to this city, and will appear in a concert at the Academy of Music on November 30. On De-cember 1 Haudel's oratorio of The Messiah will be given, with Mad'lle Nilsson, M'me Sophie Mozart, Miss Cary, Mr. G. Simpson, and Mr. W. Whitney in the leading roles, and the choruses by the Handel and Haydn Society, under the direction of Professor Engelke. There will also be a grand orchestra under the direction of Mozars Maratach and Engelke. Messrs, Maretzek and Engelke.

On Saturday, December 3, a matince will be given, which will be Mad'lie Nilsson's last appearance in this city.

THE HARKINS CONCERT. - This entertainment to-morrow night at Concert Hall promises to be unusually attractive and brilliant, tickets for almost every seat in the house having been already disposed of. Carl Wolfsohn will play entire the best and last work of the illustrious Gottschalk, entitled "Morte," and Madame Mozart, Jennie Kempton, George Simpson, and Mr. Harkins himself will each and all distinguish themselves in selections at once attractive and elegant, including many of the classic and operatic gems of the day, which will give the audience much enjoyment and pleasure. We do not remember to have yet seen a more attractive programme, and the concert will, from all appearances, be one of the most bril-liant musical achievements of the present season. Philadelphia invariably shows its appreciation of entertainments of this kind, hence the extensive demand for tickets within the last few days. There are only a few re-maining at the ticket office of Gould & Fischer, No. 923 Chesnut street, and those who would not miss this elegant musical treat should lose no time in securing them.

A LUXUUY OF THE PERIOD.-Regarded from the economic standpoint, SEA MOSS FARINE appears to overshadow every other vegetable nutrient. It contains-as we are informed on good scientific authority-nearly ninety per cent. of nourishing, fattening gelatine; and of all gelatine substances used in cooking it is said to be the cheapest by over fifty per cent., as well as the most digestible. We give these statements, which are authenticated by the signatures of men of eminent reputation, as vouchers for the opinions we have ventured to express on the economic importance of the new article of diet. As to its deliciousness, the "proof of the pudding is in eating it;" and we feel confident that no man or woman who has once eaten of a blanc mange, pudding, custard, cream, Charlotte Russe, or any other delicacy prepared with this marine Godsend, will deny its claim to rank among the table luxuries of the period.

A Young WIFE'S REQUEST .- Wife-Charley, I wish when you some up to-night you'd stop into your druggist's and get me a bottle of PLANTATION BIT-TERS. Be sure and get the genuine.

Charley-What in the world, Mary, are you going to do with Plantation Bitters ?

Wife-Everybody that I know is in ecstacy over Plantation Bitters, and I am going to try them myself. I am assured by several of my friends that the Bitters will cure my dyspepsia, and at the same time do away with that terrible nauses which you know I am at times subject to. The doctor was in yesterday, and says that all I want is a tonic, and that Plantation Bitters is the best that can be got. Charley-It is just the thing, my dear; and it is strange that I had not thought of it before.

For the accommodation of those that wish to make their purchases before business hours and before the rush commences, ROCKHILL & WILSON will open their store to-morrow (Saturday) morning at six o'clock, and those who cannot make it convenient until after business hours, they will find us open until after ten o'clock in the evening.
