

THE NINTH CENSUS.

NEW JERSEY.

The Population of the State at Present and in the Past. The census returns of New Jersey are complete with the exception of four townships in different parts of the State.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Pop., Increase, Per cent. Rows include 1790, 1800, 1810, 1820, 1830, 1840, 1850, 1860, 1870.

The population of New Jersey, it will be seen, increased quite steadily at the rate of about 15 per cent. during each decade previous to 1840, since which date the rate of increase has been more than twice as great.

NEW YORK.

Population of the Principal Cities and Towns. In the following is given the population of a number of the principal cities and towns of New York, according to the official census returns, with the population in 1850 and 1860:

Table with 4 columns: City, 1850, 1860, 1870. Rows include New York, Albany, Troy, Syracuse, Oswego, Poughkeepsie, Elmira, Johnstown, Plattsburgh, Canandaigua.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. At THE WALNUT the last week of Mr. J. S. Clarke's engagement is announced. This evening he will appear as "Bob Tuck" in Morton's comedy of The School of Reform.

To-morrow evening Mr. Clarke will personate "Alec Trenchard" and "Paul Fry." At THE ARCH the drama of Love's Sacrifice and the farce of The Good for Nothing will be presented this evening.

To-morrow evening Miss Lizze Pierson will make her debut as "Pauline" in The Lady of Lyons. This young lady is said to have talents of a high order, and much interest is felt in her appearance upon the stage.

THE CHESNUT will be closed until Monday evening, December 12, when Mr. E. L. Dayton, port, who has recovered from his recent severe illness, will reopen it with a company under his own supervision.

MR. WARNER'S CIRQUE, at the corner of Tenth and Callowhill streets, offers many attractions for the lovers of amusement. Harry Wiley Cooke, Charles Henry Cooke, and Mad'le Emille Henrietta are super-class equestrians, who probably have no superiors in their particular line of business.

AT THE AMERICAN Mr. G. W. Jester, the "man with the talking hand," has been engaged, and he will appear this evening, in conjunction with a great number of other artists.

AT DUPREZ & BENDER'S OPERA HOUSE a reduction of prices has been made, and the admission to all parts of the house, except the parquet, is now 25 cents. A great number of interesting novelties are announced in the programme for this evening, which, with low prices, ought to insure a crowded house.

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE W. Barry, the song and dance artist, has been engaged, and will appear this evening in a number of his specialties. The laughable act of Stop That Monkey, the funny sketch of The Big Leg, and the Ethiopian burlesque of Hunk and Dove are among the many attractions announced for this evening.

STONOR BLITZ and his son will give a magical entertainment at the Assembly Buildings this evening. MAD'LE CHRISTINE NELSON will appear on Wednesday next, at the Academy of Music, in a grand concert, and on Thursday in Handel's oratorio of The Messiah, in which she will be supported by Miss Mozart, Miss Garry, Signor Brignoli, Signor Verger, Mr. Simpson, Mr. Whitney, Mr. Vieuxtemps, the Handel and Haydn Society, and a grand orchestra.

THE TAYLOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL will give a concert this evening at the Assembly Building, under the direction of Mr. H. H. Pendleton, for the purpose of purchasing a new cabinet organ. Hayes' Quartette have volunteered their services.

LABOR.—Labor is capital. Bestow good health upon a man, so that he can labor every six out of seven days, and no matter how poor he may have been at the commencement of life's great race, he will be certain to accumulate a fortune, provided he takes care of his earnings.

PLANTATION BITTERS is certain to make the weak ones strong, and to preserve the health of the healthy. From four to six rows is considered the ordinary limit for brain work. At the expiration of this time the phosphorus is carried off, and the man becomes irritable and nervous. If he is poor, and continues on at his task, as most of poor doctors, lawyers, and editors do, he will be certain to shorten his days and fill an untimely grave.

LETTER-PRESS COPIES CAN BE TAKEN from Printing executed at HELFENSTEIN & LEWIS' Railroad and Commercial Printing House, FIFTH and CHESTNUT.

MR. WILLIAM W. CARSDY, the jeweller at No. 9 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewelry and Silverware in the city.
