FOLFRICAL.-Ten of the Republicans of the Phila-Seiphin delegation have signified their intention of supporting Representative Webb, of Bradford county, for the Speakership of the next House. The Democracy of the First Senatorial district seem to have harmonized upon the selection of Assistant District Attorney R. P. Dechert for Sena-torial honors.

Associant District Attorney R. P. Declere for Sena-torial honors. The propriety of publishing a record of the pro-ceedings of the next Legislatare meets with favor at the hands of the Philadelphia delegation. It is said that the Republicans on the police and detective force are to give way to Democratic poli-micans.

To-night, between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock, the Democrats of the First Senatorial District will hold their primary elections in the various divisions hold their primary elections in the various divisions for the purpose of selecting delegates, who will meet in convention to-morrow morning at Lafferty's, Ninth street, below Christian, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to be voted for at the special election to be held on December 39. At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee held yesterday afternoon, a resolution was adopted directing that the registering officers of the First Senatorial district, consisting of the Republican indges and inspectors who served at the general election in October last, and three members of election in October last, and three members of the Division Executive Committee, shall meet at the regular places for holding the elections in said district, or such places as the registering officers may select, on Saturdar, December 3, between the hours of four and six o'cleck P. M., for the purpose of correcting the registry of Republican voters; that the Republican judges and inspectors who served at the general election in October last shall conduct the primary election. to be held on Tuesday eventhe primary election, to be held on Tuesday even-ing, December 6, and where vacancies occur such vacancies shall be filled by the remaining election officers, in conjunction with the members of the Division Executive Commistee; that the convention for the nomination of a candidate shall be held on Wednesday, December 7, at Jefferson Hall, Sixth and Christian streets. This afternoon the Republican members of Coun-clis will hold a caucus for the nomination of heads of departments. There seems to be but little oppo-sition to the re-election of Engineer Graff, Surveyor Kneass, Chief Commissioner of Highways Dickin-terno and Commissioner of City Propage Logic Rate and Commissioner of City Property Pugh. But there is a lively contest going on with reference to the Assistant Commissioners of Highways. Hiram the Assistant Commissioners of Highways. Hiram Horter, the Commissioner for the lower portion of the city, has but one opponent, Henry B. Bobb, of the Seventh ward. James Work, who has had charge of the Northern district for three years past, retires for the purpose of becoming a deputy under Sheriff Leeds. The candidates for this vacancy are as follows:--William Rittenhouse, Nineteenth ward; Daniel J. McLain, Fourteenth ward; William H. Hencel, Eighteenth ward; Fraderick Getz, Tewartz, Maneely, Eighteenth ward; Frederick Getz, Twenty-fith ward; Benjamin H. Thomas, Twelfth ward; George Meyers, Twenty-eighth ward (retiring mem-ber of Common Council). The fight seems to have parrowed down between Rittenhouse and Maneely, although some of the others will show a decidedly strong iront. The contest has waxed warm, and there were rumors this morning that there was a probability of one or two of the members of Com-mon Council being ruled out of the cancus,

The Character of the Buildings for which Permits were Issued Buring November. The number of permits issued by the Building Inspec-tors for building improvements in this city, during the month which is about closing, is in excess of those granted during the same time last year, and the number issued during the present year is also in excess of 1869. Up until to-day of 1870 there have been 1793 permits issued, while up to December 1st, 1869, there were 1762 granted. The following will give some idea of the character of the improvements being made in Philadelphia, the permits for which were applied for and granted during the present month:--

THE CAMDEN RIOTS.

Trial of the Culprits-Judge Nixon's Charge to the Grand Jury.

The special session of the United States District Court, called for the trial of the rioters at the recent election in Camden, convened in the State House at Trenton yesterday, Judge Nixon presiding. The Court room was well filled with witnesses from Camden, mostly colored, who were present for the purpose of giving prediminary tostimons for the purpose of giving preliminary testimony In his charge to the grand jury, Judge Nixon said :-It is a matter of public notoriety that at one of the oting precincts in Camden county, in the late election, men were driven from the polls, lives were imperilled, ballot-boxes broken open, and ballots scattered to the winds. To protect from such vio-lence the act of March 30, 1870, was passed. If in your investigation you reach offenders, indict them -whether official or private-but when any reasonable doubt exists as to the guilt of a person, do not subject such accused one to the troubles of a prosecution. You occupy an enviable position as jurors on this occasion By prompt and impartial action you will be able to show that the law is able to reach the transgressor, and that the law must prevail over lawlessness and violence.

FROM EUROPE.

The Eastern Trouble Over.

LONDON, Nov. 30 .- From present indications peace with Russia is morally certain. Arrangements for a conference are rapidly progressing, and Prussia will be satisfied and Russia conciliated. There is now every prospect of a reconciliation of the ministry.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General Schenck and the English Mission. Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.-General Schenck has arrived, but declines to make any disclosures about his supposed appointment as Minister to England. It is understood that before making any decision he will confer with his friends in Congress.

The Internal Revenue Office.

It was reported yesterday that the President informed the leading members of Congress that he had determined to appoint J. W. Douglas, s present acting Commissioner, to succeed Delano in the Internal Revenue Bureau. Douglas visiteds the White House to-day, but the President made no mention of the matter to him nor to prominent members of the Ways and Means Committee, who were also at the White House. It is still thought that Douglass will be appointed, but it does not appear that the President has finally agreed upon it.

Applicants for Office.

In conversation with several prominent Re-publicans from the West, the President stated that he had been more worried about appointments, within the last week or two, by certain New York and Pennsylvania politicians, than he had during the whole of his administration. He said it seemed almost impossible to satisfy the various conflicting factions in those States. He no sooner made one appointment than a horde of other office seekers were here to oppose it.

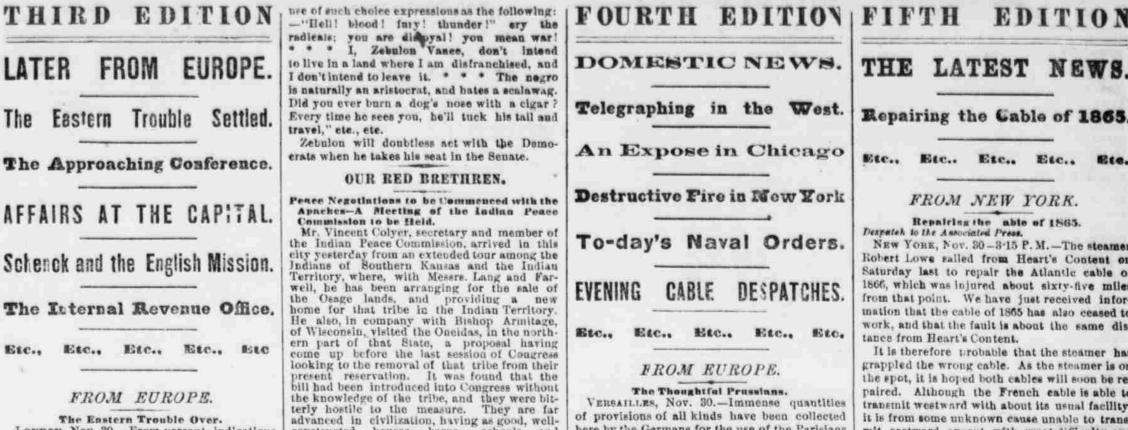

The Secretary of State

had a long interview with the President to-day, at which he informed the Executive that there was nothing of an important character in the recent mail from Europe, which, by-the- way, is one of the largest ever received at the State Department. The Secretary is of opinion that the trouble between Russia and other European powers will be finally settled without war.

The European Conference. BRUSSELS, Nov. 30 .- The Independance Belge to-day has a Berlin telegram announcing that England has agreed to accept the proposed conference for the settlement of the Euxine diffleulty, provided that Russia will satisfactorily explain Gortschakoff's first circular.

The Feeling in Russia. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 30.—The Government is in receipt of [addresses from all parts of the empire, which show that the loyalty of the people makes Russia unassailable and fearless of any alliance. Though no ministerial instructions have been given to the press, the St. Petersburg Gazette having adopted a partial course, its sale in the street has been forbidden. Lord Lyons and the Conference.

EONDON, Nov. 30 .- Lord Lyons is awaiting the decision of the Tours government as to the matter of sending a plenipotentiary to the conference at London.

FROM THE WEST.

Transactions of the Great Westera Telegraph Company. CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—The Tribune this morning makes an exposure of the financial transactions of the Great Western Telegraph Company, which has two lines in operation from this city-one to Milwaukee and one to Omahawhich if true offers something new in schemes for raising money. The Tribune says the capital stock of the company is three millions, in 120,000 shares of $25 each. Of the 120,000 shares constituting the whole of the stock 117,807 shares was subscribed by Selah Reeve, and by him conveyed to Josiah Snowden in trust for the company, to sell the same, and pay avails back to Reeve in fulfilment of a contract made by the company with Reeve to construct 20,000 miles of the company's line.

In accordance with this the stock is being sold by the company throughout the country. One of the by-laws of the company provides that no certificates of stock shall be issued until 4 per cent. of the whole shall have been paid in, and as it is left entirely optional with the company as to when and how much the assessments under forty per cent. on the stock may be, it seems probable that those who sub-scribe for stock on these conditions are likely alt some time before they have any voic in the election of directors or management of the company. The names of 22 most respectable business gentlemen of this city are published as directors, and though these have been formally elected by the company, it is alleged that none of them have been qualified as directors, and that they know nothing of its business transactions. Recently a suit has been brought by some persons in the city who subscribed for stock. They filed a bill alleging fraud in the contract made by the company with Reeve, in which it is agreed to pay him, at the rate of $300 per mile, for a line of poles, furnished with one wire, and an addi-tional $100 per mile for each additional wire, viz., $400 per mile; when the poles are furnished with two wires, $500 per mile; when furnished with three wires, $600 per mile; when furnished with four wires, $700. It is alteged that a line of poles, with one wire, can be furnished at from $125 to $130 per mile. This allegation is sustained by the testimony of at least half-a-dozen telegraph builders of experience and established reputation. If the company should pay Reeve at the rate of $300 per mile, it would leave a net profit of $440,000; and when he had furnished the full complement of four wires, making the total cost to the company $600 per mile. The net profit on his contract would be about $700,000. The 40 per cent. of money which the stockholders are to pay in before any certificates of stock are to be ssued to them would amount to $1,200,000. This corresponds to the amount of the construction contract to Reeve at $600 per mile, which amounts to just $1,300,000. The construction contract and the payments on the stock are arranged that the money paid in shall be paid Reeve before the stockholders have reout to ceived any certificates of stock or have any voice in the disposal of their money.

INTERESTING SUIT.

Can the Heirs of a Man who has Committed Suicide claim His Life fasurance?

The Hartfort Post of a recent date says :-A notice that an action had been commenced by Anna M. Buell, relict of the late Jeptha C. Buell, of Cleveland, Ohio, against the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, for the sum of $10,000, was received at their office on the 17th inst. Jeptha C. Buell was insured in the Connecticut Mutual Life under policy No. 54.880, for $10,000, on the 2d day of March, 1866, and committed suicide by shooting him-self with a pistol on the 15th day of November, 1869. Mr. Buell was insured in three other compapies for $10,000 each, making a total insurance of $40,000. Of these companies the New York Life insures against suicide, and has paid its policy of $10,000. The Connecticut Mutual Life, of this city, the Mutual Life, of New York, and the Mutual Benefit, of New Jersey, do not insure against suicide, and these three compa-nies have combined in the defense against the suits brought on behalf of Anna M. Buell. The case will very likely be carried by either party which is unsuccessful in the Circuit to the Su-preme Court of the United States. We shall so get an adjudication of the law of suicide which shall be final and authoritative throughout the United States.

Jeptha C. Buell was cashier of the Second National Bank of Cleveland, and becoming a defaulter, preferred death to exposure, dis-grace, and imprisonment. The Coroner's jury, as usual in such cases, brought in a verdiet that he came to his death by a pistol-shot delivered by his own hand while in a state of temporary insanity. We are led to remark here that in-sanity is alarmingly on the increase in this country. According to coroners' juries, whose verdicts are not very important in courts, every man who gets insured and commits suicide is insane, and every man who commits murder is insane.

It will be noted that it is over one year since the loss occurred, and nearly a year since the right of a claim occurred, and it was feared the claimants would not commence an action. It is An Indian Woman Avenges the Death of Her Rusband by Murdering Two Persons.

Oakland (Cal.) Corres. San Francisco Chronicle. A terrible murder was committed last Saturday, 10th inst., near Centreville, in this county, by an Indian woman named Anistaba. It appears that some months ago Azistaba's husband was killed by another Indian near the Alviso Ranche. The Indian who committed the murder was arrested at the time and brought before the justice for examination, but the parties (Indians) who witnessed the murder being afraid or unwilling to testify, the de-fendants had to be discharged from cus-tody. Anistaba since that time has been wandering about, swearing vengeance on the whole Mexican and Indian race. VANCE.

The New Senator from North Carollan-Some thing About his Career.

The last Legislature of North Carolina contained a Republican majority of 33 in the Senate and 44 in the House, or 77 on joint ballot. But, by the suicidal policy pursued by the Southern Republicans in almost every reconstructed State, this overwheiming majority was sacrificed, and at the election held yesterday for a successor to United States Senator Abbott, the vote in the Legislature stood 94 for ex-Governor Zebulon B. Vance to 48 for Joseph C. Abbott, the present Senator.

Zebulon B. Vance, the new Senator-elect, is a native of North Carolina, and was born in Buncombe county, in that State, May 18, 1830. After receiving a limited education he passed a year at the State University, and then studied law, being admitted to the bar in 1853. In 1854 he was elected to the State Legislature from Buncombe county, and in 1858, on the resignation of Hon. T. L. Clingman, was elected the successor of the latter on the Federal House of Representatsves. He was reelected for the full term ending March 4, 1861, leaving his seat at the outbreak of the Rebellion, although a Whig and claiming to have been a Union man theretofore. He was elected Governor of North Carolina, and served in that capacity from 1861 to 1864. In the latter part of 1863 he addressed a significant letter to Jeff. Davis on the subject of peace, declaring that the only way of removing the discontent then prevailing in North Carolina was by making some attempt at negotiating with the Federal Government.

In August, 1864, he was again elected Governor, receiving 54,000 votes to 20,000 for William W. Holden, the result being that the State would seek peace only in co-operation with the other States of the Confederacy. Vance remained in the pretended exercise of his guber natorial functions after the close of hostilities: until May 20, 1865, when Holden was appointed Provisional Governor. Since that time he has been a bitter and uncompromising opponent of the Congressional policy of reconstruction, and in a speech delivered in September, 1868, made ter, a girl ten years of age, and struck her a blow on the head with the axe. She then took the child in her arms and carried her about a mile down the marsh, near the bay shore, and after splitting the child's head open, she hid the body in the grass and weeds. After this she attempted to kill herself by chopping the top of her own head with the axe. The body of the Indian Juan was found dead, and the child being missed, a search was instituted and the body found as above described.

Constable Trefy, of Centreville, lodged the woman in the county jail at San Leandro on Sunday morning, to which she was committed by the acting justice. Since the commission of the crime she has acted as a perfectly sane person, except when she first appeared at the house near "Alviso Hills." Before the arrest she acknowledged the murder, and gave as her motive a desire to die herself, as she had no way of making her living. Violent deaths seem to "run" among these people, the last husband of this woman having been killed a few days ago in a drunken row by an Indian.

"That's all con-ceit." Blakely answered, "I am conceited enough to thrash you out of your shoes." Boehm rejoined, "Maybe you'd like to try it." Both then seized a bar, which Sweeny took from them. Boehm ran into the hammer room, followed by Blakely, and Sweeny, throwing down the bar, went after them, and met Blakely coming hurriedly out. He had and met Blakely coming hurriedly out. He had nothing in his hand, and did not speak. Bochm was lying on the floor, severely wounded on the head, and died the following day. N. Y. MONEY MARKET YESCERDAY.

From the N. Y. Herald.

From the N. Y. Herald. "The gradual dissipation of the fear of a war between England and Russia is reflected in the steady improve-ment in prices at the Loudon Steck Exchange, where an advance of fully a quarter per cent, was established to day on the theory of '02's over the highest quotation yesterday. British consols were firm at 28, which listbe figure at which they have stood for two days past. The announcement of these prices led to a decline in gold, sltbough the ported that the French had gained an important victory over the Pressian army of Prince Fiederick Charles, and is hankers had signified their willingness to take the new North German ican of 100,000,000 thelers, and as our bonds and consols were quoted a shade lower, gold became strong and advanced to III's, its upward reaction being assisted by a rather active demand on the part of the days of gold to morrow, and thus close the Treasury pro-gramme for November. "The foreign exchange market was weak and lower. The leading bankers reduced their sales to 109 for sixty day stering and 109% for sight bills.
"The aggregate amount of exports, exclusive of specie, from the port of New York for the week ending November 29, 1870, was $4, 810,040.
"The prevailing rates on call loans were four and five per cent, where the collaterals submitted were Government securities, and five aud six per cent, upon missellanecus stocks. About half past 3 o'clock there was a rather sharp majory for money, and borrowers paid six per cent, without hesitation. The demand was brief, however, and fully met at the rate quoted. In discounts there was no new feature. Frime double name accoptances are scarce and in demand. Buyers offer to take them at 7673 per cent."
