MAHLON H. DICKINSON, Chief Commissioner of Highways. SPENSER'S FAERYQUEENE

"And after him came next the chill December, Yet he, through merry feasting which he made, And great bonfires, did not the cold remember."

December is once more upon us, and the necessity of having our homes warm and comfortable is apparent. To effect this we must have good coal, such as J. C. HANCOCK, Esq., at the northwest corner of NINTH and MASTER Streets, dispenses to his patrons. HANCOCK has all the most desirable varieties of Lehigh and Schuykill, and he sells at exceedingly low rates. If you desire bright, blazing fires, get your supplies of HANCOCK, NINTH and MASTER Streets.

DICTIONARY, AND GAZETTEER. L. COLANGE, LL.D., EDITOR. TWO VOLUMES. LARGE QUARTO. The price for the entire work will still remain for a limited time as originally announced. As it has been found advisable to increase the size of the work about 250 pages beyond the number at first proposed, those who fuschase or susscribe now will get the benefit of this addition without charge. This book is a complete and unabridged dictionary of the English language, as good as the best, a Gazetteer of the World, and a more complete news and fresher Encyclonedia than any complete, newer, and fresher Encyclopedia than any now in print; the price is lower than that of any other Encyclopedia—and but a little above that charged for an Unabridged Dictionary or a Gazet-teer alone

The volume now complete, bound in full Turkey glt and glit edges, at $20, or in half Turkey backs and corners, marbled edges, at $16, or in Sheep, marble edges, library style, $15, would make an exceedingly attractive and useful present for the holidays. teer alone.

To those who wish to present a copy of the com plete work as a holiday gift we would announce that we will furnish Vol. I bound in any style, and a handsomely printed certificate for the delivery of Vol. II. in same style on presentation of said certificate at the office during the month of January, 1871 The work will contain 500 more engravings than originally announced, the additional cuts costing in the neighborhood of $5000.
