THE SOLDHERS' ORPHANS.—Our readers should not forget that this evening and to-morrow afternoon entertainments will be given at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the soldiers' orphans at Gettyeburg. The programme embraces a choice musical selection, a lecture on the Crusades, by J. Ganning Allen, M. D., and entertaining stereopticon linustrations. The musical portion is to be under the leadership of Professor Jean Louis, and will be rendered by Miss Ida Gumpert, Mr. William Brad-shaw, the Vocal Union, a chorus of six hundred voices, composed of young ladies from the Girls' Grammar Schools, and a number of gentlemen an ateurs. Aside from this attractive programme, the worthy object of the entertainments should ensure full houses. THE SOLDIERS' ORPHANS, -Our readers should not ensure full houses.

8. F. T. P. O. C. T. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pennsyl-vania Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held at their room, No. 1320 Chesnut street, inst evening, at 8 o'clock P. M., Benjamin Marshall, Esc., in the chair. The agents report fifty com-plaints, ten arrests, five convictions, and a number of cases for trial and in course of investigation. Nor fatter and the course of investigation. Norristown, Germantown, and Manayunk have been visited. The drove-yards and butcher-pens have re-ceived some share of attention. A number of butchers in the lower part of the city have been arrested on the charge of starving and otherwise abusing cattle. The principals are under ball to answer in court. The late fair held at Horticultural Liall to aid the society was a success.

RIVER THIEVES AT WORK .-... On Tuesday night last RIVER THIEVES AT WORK.—On Tuesday high basis a barge, belonging to Captain William A. Graham, lay in the Delaware, off the Navy Yard. A party of river thieves came along in a boat, and pushed up alongside of the barge. With a pole, having a hook attached to one end of it, they pulled over into their boat about forty dollars' worth of lines, and made off. The captain discovered the party and, jumping into a yawi boat, gave chase. He followed the thieves to Port Richmond, where they abandoned their boat and the stolen property contained therein. Mr. Graham took possession of the lines and gave the boat into the charge of the Delaware Harbor

Police.

The Commonwealth offered to prove that it was the recognized custom with these lines of railway to give post-dated passes iste at night and this conduc-tor had made returns of them, but the Court ex-cluded the evidence and instructed the jury that a pass dated the 14th was not good on the 13th, the consequence being that Vaughn had no right to re-main in the car upon it. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. of not guilty.

FINANCE AND COMMENCE.

EVENING TELEGRAPH OFFICE, Friday, Dec. 16, 1870,

The local money market to-day is without special feature, though money is rather scarcer and rates firmer than heretofore. An effort is evidently being made in New York, and perhaps elsewhere, to create a stringency of money with a view to "bear" the stock market, but we doubt whether the influence extends to this centre, though capital is growing less accessible every day except on call loans and collaterals which secure to lenders full control of their funds for future operations. The rates still range between 516 and 616 per cent. on Governments and good collaterals, and 7@9 per cent. for choice busi-

ROBBERY AND ATTEMPTED ARSON. -The coal office of Mr. Paul J. Hallowell & Co., on Hamilton street, above Twenty-second, was entered by thieves last above Twenty-second, was entered by thieves last night and robbed of a cost, a lot of postage stamps, and a number of articles of triding value. The rob-bers effected an entrance by prying open a back window-shutter. Not satisfied with carrying off whatever they could lay their hands upon, they at-tempted the destruction of the office by fire. A desk-drawer was taken out, and the contants, con-sisting of papers, etc., set on fire. Fortunately the flame died out, and did not communicate to the woodwork, as was expected.

ATTEMPTED SWINDLE .- About 12 o'clock last night, while a party of friends were enjoying an entertain-ment at a residence in West Wallace street, the bell of a house in the neighborhood was rung in a great of a house in the neighborhood was fung in a great. hnrry, and a request made in the name of the lady giving the varty to loan her a dozen silver spoons. The elder portion of the family were themselves at the party, but fortunately the young folks at home were wide enough awake to be cautious about the matter. A personal inquiry proved that caution had provented a very nicely arranged swindle. had prevented a very nicely arranged swindle.

LABCENY OF MONEY .- Charles Penn, a colored man living at Sixth and Lombard streets, was ar-rested last night upon the charge of the larceny of Ste from a colored sallor named. George Townsend, of Charleston, S. C. Penn invited Townsend to his home, and after robbing him of the sum named, he cleared him out, threatening to arrest him if he re-turned. The sallor made known his complaint to a policeman, and the accused was arrested and com-mitted to prison by Alderman Carpenter.

THE GERMAN SANITARY FAIR, which commences at Horticultural Hall, on Tuesday next, the 20th instant, will contain, among other things, three objects of absorbing curiosity—a murderous Mitrail-leuse, a French Chassepot, and a German Zund-nadelgewehr or Needle-gun. People have read so much about these destructive weapons of war that they will naturally desire to see them.

Low TIDE .- The tide in the Delaware is lower than it has been for many years. At flood tide, B o'clock this A. M., the water was so low that the boats of the Delaware Harbor police were lying high and dry in the dock at Noble street wharf. This is something remarkable.

FOR THE BENEFIT of the widow and family of the late Captain Christian we have received further contributions of $5 from George Sheppard, Esq., and $5 from Captain Peter Deason. The charitable can find no worthier objects on whom to bestow a small portion of their meaus.

BEAT HIS WIFE. -E. F. Francis, residing at Spat-ford and Bainbridge streets, was arrested last night upon the charge of beating his wife. He had a hear-ing before Alderman Goilins, and was committed for trial.

THEFT .- John H. Ackley was taken into custody resterday upon the charge of the larceny of a pair of boots from a store on Second street, above Green. The prisoner had a hearing before Alderman Totand, and was committed for trial.

THE HEBREW BALL, Great preparations are being made for the Hebrew Ball to be given at the Aca-demy of Music on the 15th of January, and it pro-mises to be one of the most magnificent affairs of the season.

MISS ADELAIDE MURDOCH will lecture on Monday evening at the Academy of Music. Her subject will be "Woman's Duties Incompatible with Female be "Woman's Duties incompation may be ex-Saffrage," and a very interesting lecture may be ex-

FOR THE FAIR. - A mitrailleuse, a trophy of the war in Europe, is now on the way to this city for ex-hibition at the German fair, which opens on Decem-ber 20. It will arrive about Monday next.

FOUND DEAD,-This morning an unknown white man was found dead in the yard of the residence No. 768 South Third street.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Election Judge Indicted.

Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Paxson. Court of Quarter Sessons-Judge Pazeon. The Grand Jury for the present term of Court have indicted William J. McCullough, an election judge of the Fifth division of the Twenty-sixth ward, charging him with embezzing the certificate of election he was to return to the Board of Ward Judges, with making a false and frauduleot return, and with perjury in violating his official oath. The case was called for trial this morning, but a motion to quash the indictment was filed, which delays the ease.

Street Car Difficulty.

Street Car Difficulty. Court of Quarter Sessions-Judgs Finletter. A. D. Bender was tried this morning for assault and battery upon Thomas Vaughu. It appeared that on the night of November 18 Mr. Vaughn got info a Tenth street car, at Brown street, near 12 o'clock, and asked for a pass out Market street, and the conductor, having no passes of that date, gave nim one dated the 14th. When he offered this to Bender, the conductor of the Market street car, he

From theN, Y. Herald.

"It will be remembered that on several occasions during the past month, and, in fact frequently since the beginning of fall, the 'bears' in the +tock market have endeavored to render the money market stringent, but each time have failed to accomplish their schemes, both from the great abundance of capital in the city this season, and from the culated to help them. They went so far as to invoke the aid of one of the preminent down town banks, which locked up $2,500,000 for a day or two, but on this occasion they suddenly lost the alliance of the bank, because one of the officials of the CurrencyBureau at Washington happened to be on a tour of inspection in this city, and irightened it into propriety. At length they discovered that to-day the city government was about to call in, or would have called in from the day previous, the sum of about $3,600,000, in order to meet the payment of interest on and receem a portion of the county debt (the city and county having been consolidated, the (the city and county having been consolidated, the county and city debt are now the same thing), while they calculated that during the balance of the month the various dividend-paying institutions would begin a general withdrawal of loans and moneys in order to prepare for the payment of the dividends which fall due the latter part of this month and during the beginning of January. The clique operators arranged their plans at a special meeting held a tow daws since and fixed to day for the span. held a lew days since, and fixed to day for the grand attack. Its brilliant success does credit to their abilities as financiers and speculators, no matter how culpable they may be in offending so grievously against the general moral code of society and commerce. F "The rate advanced to seven per cent., gold, after which a commission of a sixteenth was paid. The demand becoming greater, borrowers became or-gent, and as money must be had to make their ac-counts good, commissions of one-eighth per cent., one-quarter per cent., and even one-half per cent. per day were paid for the use of money over night. The highest rate was the one last mentioned. The stringency was precipitated with a suddenness un-equalled in the history of Wall street.

"To trace the stringency more in detail, money opened at seven currency, advanced to seven gold, and thence to one-half per cert commission, but from this point it relaxed slightly—viz, to one-quarter per cent. 'and interest,' which was the latest rate on the street this evening."
