THE COAL TRADE.

An Order from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company-The Complete Tonnage for the Week-Quotations

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company issued the following circular December 10, "Notice is hereby given that in consequence of a strike among the miners and other employes engaged at the collieries from which this Company obtain their coal, the Company do not expect to be able to deliver any more of the coal sold at their auction sale on the 30th day of Nevember, 1870, and no further deliveries will be made on account of auc no further deliveries will be made on account of auction sales previously made.

"The fifty cens per ton deposited by parties not now indepted to the company will be refunded upon application to the treasurer at this office.

"Deposits paid by parties who are indebted for coal aiready shipped will be credited to them on their respective accounts."

The Scranton men still hold out, as there is every reason to suppose they will for some time to come. Their position is somewhat different from that of Their position is somewhat different from that of the Schuylkill men during the past summer. The latter were the strong uphoiders of the W. B. A., and in striking desired that all other men through-out all the coal regions should suspend also for the benefit of those in Schuylkill, whether it was to the advantage of the rest or not. Their demands in many particulars were manifestly unjust, and public

The Scranton men take a different stand, and The Scranton men take a different stand, and are consequently regarded in a different light. They did not belong to the organization whose unjust measures were the subject of general complaint. They struck because their wages were suddenly redured to a very low figure, considering what they had been receiving. When they struck they were perfectly independent, and did not ask that the other regions should strike also in order to benefit them. Though the strike itself is not justifiable, when viewed in the light of the legitimate laws which should govern all departments of trale, yet which should govern all departments of trade, yet it was not to be wondered at, when it is considered in what manner the trade is now managed. A simple strike in the Schuylkill regions would have been looked upon in the same manner. It was the unjust demands and the poor arrangements of the W. B. A. by its officers which the provided the poor arrangements of the west of the west of the poor arrangements. W. B. A. by its officers which provoked so much censure. And, besides, the difference in wages which provoked the Schuylkill strike was not near so great as that put upon the Scranton men. Though they may have been receiving more than a legitimate rate for their work, they were somewhat justified in resisting the decline because they had been receiv-ing it for some time, and had regarded it as their legitimate income. When a person receives a cer-tain higher salary for a certain length of time his expenses to some extent increase, and cannot be brought back to the former standard without some crifices. When the reduction is great the sacri-

When we take into account also the fact that the Stanton men were resisting what appeared to be the unfair proceedings of a great monopoly company, we have an additional reason why the Scrauton strike is not regarded in the same light as that of Schujkill.

But, no matter how it may be regarded, the method of striking as a remedy for all wrongs is greatly to be deprecated, and it is now pretty generally conceded by all that another arrangement. would be for the better interest of everybody. Its advent will be gladly welcomed, and from present appearances it is not so very far from being brought into operation.

INVESTMENT.

Рипларителия, Dec. 14, 1970.

To F. Ratchford Starr, Esq., General Agent Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York:— Dear Sir:—I have great pleasure in acknowledging receipt of check, in payment of the Endowment Policy of your Company on my life, taken ont by me twelve years ago, and which fell due yesterday. I regret that I did not make the amount larger, as I find that I have not only been insured for the full amount of my policy during the past twelve years, but have received back all the premiums I paid, with a little over six per cent, compound interest thereon.

I cannot conceive of any safer or more desirable investment that I could have made. Even though it were possible to obtain the same amount of interest from any Banking or Savings Institution, there would have been no insurance on my life, and only the amount deposited therein, with interest, would have been received by my estate in event of my death

You are at liberty to give any publicity to the letter you desire, as I feel I will have conferred a benefit upon all whom it may induce to insure in the Company you represent. I am, very truly, yours, (Signed) ROBERT R. CORSON,
