THE GERMAN OPERA .- On Monday, January 9, a season of six nights and one matinee of German opera will commence at the Academy under the management of Max Maretzek, Esq. The company is largely composed of artists new to the American public, and it has just completed a very successful season of nearly one hundred nights in New York. Among the new singers are Madame Louise Lichtmay, Mad'lle A. Rossetti, Mad'lle Bertha Romer, Mad'lle Laura Haffner, and Messrs. Carl Bernard, Edward Verling, Adolph Fra-nosch, Ernst Ulstrem, and J. Hoelzl. In addition to these Messrs. Habelmann, Himmer, W. Formes, Steinecke, and others will appear. The chorus will be large, and there will be a full orchestra under the direction of Mr. Neuendorff. The repertoire for the week will be Fidelio, Tannhauser, The Huguenots, Merry Wives of Windsor, Don Giovanni, Magic Flute, and The Czar and Zimmerman. The subscription price for the seven performances is fixed at $7, and the sale of subscription tickets will commence fixed at $7, and the subscription tickets will on Tuesday morning next, at the store of F. A. North & Co., No. 1926 Chesnut street. The sale of single seats will commence on Thursday morning. This season of German opera pro-mises to be one of the most enjoyable we have had in this city for a long time, and if the performances at all come up to what we have a right to expect, large audiences will undoubtedly be attracted, especially as there has been a decided dearth of operatic entertainments here this winter. The repertoire is a fine one, and all the operas are well worth hearing.

CITY ITEMS.

MRS. GATES AND MRS. JAMES .- Mrs. Gates-Good morning, Mrs. James. How well you are looking; far better than when I saw you last.

Mrs. James-Oh yes; I am much better than I have been for a long time, and I am now on my way for more of my favorite medicine-Plantation BITTERS. One bottle of it is worth all the doctors

Mrs. Gates-Nearly every one speaks well of PLANTATION BITTERS, and I have a mind to try it myself. The fact is, I have no appetite, strength, or energy for anything. Mary and Lizzie are in the same way, and lounge about the house all day long, good for nothing.

Mrs. James-My word for it, Mrs. Gates, just let them try Plantation Bitters moderately three times a day, and you will see a wonderful improve-

THE LATE MRS. BELKNAP.

Her Death and the Feeling in Washington. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:— Mrs. Belknap, wife of the Secretary of War, died at 3.40 this afternoon. She had been sinking rapidly for the past forty-eight hours, and her death had been expected almost any hour during that time. Mrs. Beiknap was a native of Kentacky, having been born near Louisville, in that State, in March, been expected almost any hour during that time. Mrs. Beiknap was a native of Kentacky, having been born near Louisville, in that State, in March, 1839. She was the daughter of the late John Tomlinson, of Harrisburg, and she was married to Gen. Beiknap in January, 1868. The disease from which she died was consumption, and was contracted some years ago, though the malady did not show itself in a formidable shape until within three months past. About two menths since she gave birth to a fine boy. She recovered from her confinement only to find herself proatrated by the inroads of the disease which ended her life. Is made rapid progress, and some three weeks since her attending physician, Dr. Norris, U.S. A., promonaced her beyond recovery. She was entirely conscious up to the moment of death.

A few mements previous therete, she called her hustand to her side and requisted to be raised up. A few mements later she said, "I am dying," and breathed but ence or twice after uttering those words. Her widowed sister, Mrs. Bowers, has been with her for the last few weeks, and receives the care of the little child. The Inneral will take place on Sunday, from St. John's Episcopal Church, and the remains will be deposited in a private vault in Oak Hill Crimetery until epring. It is probable that this occurrence will alter somewhat the programme for the official reception on New Year's day. Mrs. Belknap was possessed of a rore degree of personal grace and beauty, and her happy, easy manner, together with her qualities of mind and heart, scateved for her at the very outset a degree of personal grace and beauty, and her happy, easy manner, together with her qualities of mind and heart, scateved for her at the very outset a degree of personal grace and beauty, and her happy, easy manner, together with her qualities of mind and heart, scateved for her at the very outset a degree of personal grace and beauty. set a degree of personal popularity accorded to but few ladies in Washington society.
