the old year had departed that the time-honored custom of discharging weapons was commenced, and even then it lasted but a few minutes. The various Methodist churches were well filled with those who were anxious to see the new year come in. The usual ceremonies at-tended the event. At the Tempers nee Blessing Father Heritage was surrounded by a large number of converts, all of whom participated in love-feast as the midnight hour was tolled. To-day is just as dull as Saturday eve. The city is overcast with lowering clouds, and business has been pretty generally suspended. The streets are well thronged, and at every corner aimost, stands a policeman who looks frowning at all youthful pedestrians. There is no life perceptible anywhere, and Philadelphia, as she has been styled by our Eastern neighbors, is almost a City of the Dead. This afternoon there are the usual matinees at the numerous places of amusement, which are well attended.

upon forfeited recognizances. IV. Notice is also hereby given that suit will be forthwith instituted against the bell upon recogni-zances duly forfeited. V. Each of these suggestions and directions will be strictly enforced.

FURMAN SHEPPARD, District Attorney. The object of this is to give the District Attorney correct information in every ball case, as he intends inaugurating the plan of suing out the amoant in every case of forfelted recognizance.

DETECTIVES APPOINTED.—This morning Mr. Edward G. Carlin and acting High Constable George R. Maguire were appointed by Mayor Fox to fill the vacancies created in the Detective Department by the removal of Detectives Tryon and Levy. Mr. Carlin is an experienced officer, having been first appointed to the Detective Department by cx-Mayor Vaux. He re-tained his position until the incoming of Mayor Henry, when political pressure competied him to resign. He was, however, reappointed by Mayor Henry, and remained in position until 1866, when he accepted the position of Detective to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He also served as a member of the last Legislature. Major Maguire served throughout the late Rebellion, and was appointed special officer by Mayor Fox, and has recently been detailed as acting High Constable. Both gentlemen were sworn in this morning.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Organization of the Board of Public Edu-ention - the Election of Officers. A meeting of the Board of Public Education was held this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Hall Sixth and Adelphi streets, for the purpose of organization. Mr. Widener, of the Twentieth section, was called to the chair and Mr. Lukens, of the Eighteenth section, acted as Secretary.

The credentials of the new and reappointed members were read. These new members are T. R. Davis of the Fourteenth, W. J. Gillingham of the Sixteenth, and R.J. Lehman of the Tweatieth sections. These were sworn into office.

An election for President was entered into, when Mr. M. H. Stanton was unanimously elected. Mr. Stanton on taking the chair made the following short speech: --

Gentlemen of the Board of Public Education :-Gentlemen of the Board of Public Education:--The unanimity of your action this morning indi-cates, as I look upon it, your entire approval of the mapner in which I have discharged my official duties during the year just closed upon us all for-ever. In thanking you, gentlemen, for this unani-mous endorsement of my course in the past, I will only detain you long enough to say that I shall enter ipon my duties as your presiding officer for 1sti with a firm determinations to recognize in the discharge of my high office no interest save the bea and highest interests of the public schools com-mitted to our common care. Permit me again to thank you kindly for your handsome complimen and to wish you all, my friends, a happy New Year. Mr. Halliwell was unanimously re elected Secretary, and Mr. Dick Assistant Secretary The other minor offices were also re-elected. Mr. Gratz, of the Eighth section, moved to proceed to an election for Superintendent of Music Mr. Elkin, of the Seventh section, said that the board was not ready to elect that officer at present, for several reasons, and offered as an amendment a set of resolutions fixing the election for the stated meeting in February next, and asking that in the meantime the Committee on Estimates reconstruct the salaries of the various officers, so as to bring them within the $10,000 appropriation of Councils. Widener, of the Twentieth section, West, thought that the election should not be put off because of the appropriation. The board does not bind itself to the salary in case of an election, if Councils make no appropriation. An amendment was offered by Mr. Armstrong.

of the Twenty-second section, and accepted by Mr. Widener, that all teachers' salaries continue the same as last year, unless a different appropriation be made Mr. Cassidy, of the Fifth section, said that the board had no right to elect any but the officers of the board itself, the act of Assembly requiring only the organization to be made to-day. A motion to adjourn was then made, but was last a Mrs. Rebecca King, acting as housekeeper for a man named Davis, in the Seventeenth ward, made an assault on that gentleman with a atchet. She was supposed to be laboring under an attack of insanity, and was accordingly removed to the house of her son, No. 914 New Market street. Last night, as Mr. King and his wife and child were asleep in bed, Rebecca obtained a hatchet, and proceeding to the leeping apartment struck her son twice on the bead, and also inflicted a wound on her daughter-in-law. She was about to 4cal a similar injury to the child, but the cries of the injured ones attracted some of the neighbors to the spot, who disarmed the woman and placed her in custody. She was found to be insane, and this morning she was sent to the Insane Department of the Almshouse. The injuries of Mr. and Mrs. King are not of a serious character. AID FOR THE MIFFLIN SUFFERERS .- At a meeting held in this city for the purpose of raising funds to assist the sufferers by the late fire at Mitllin, Juniata county, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to prepare a subscription list, receive moneys, and dis-tribute the same:-Thomas A. Scott, A. K. Mc-Clure, William Painter, and James M. Sellers. The receipt of the following subscriptions is eknowledged:-

Total. $450 The destructive conflagration in Millintown, the county seat of Juniata county, has left some fifty families in a very destitute condition, as with their houses their furniture, bedding, and clothing were almost wholly destroyed. Considering the inclement season of the year, and the large portion of the town that has been destroyed, there is actual want among the sufferers which strongly appeals to the benevolent. There should be liberal contributions made by our citizens, and at once. Any contributions left at this office will be promptly acknowledged and forwarded.

IN EFFICY .- Some parties, supposed to be firemen, by way of expressing their in lignation at the course of Mayor Fox in signing the for a paid Fire Department, some time during last night placed a horrible-looking "fligy of that gentleman on the top of a telegraph pole at Third and Washington streets. The pole was pretty thoroughly greas , and nobody as yet has had sufficient courage to climb the slippery pole for its removal.

BADLY BRATEN,-On Saturday night last a fight occurred at Sixteenth and Thompson streets, in which a man named Bentley, residing on Matlack street, above Parrish, was shame fully beaten. He was carried to his home in an precuscious state, and his condition is deemed very critical by the siteading physician. The police officers are in search of the assallant of the injured party.

LANDRETH'S ALMANAC .- "Landreth's Almanac and Rural Register for 1871," in the English German, and Swedish languages, is now ready for gratuitous distribution by D. Landreth & Son, at their seed and implement warehouse, Nos. 21 and 23 South Eixth street. This little annual contains much valuable information for the gardener, nurseryman and farmer, and is much valued and sought after on that account.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING .- A party of young men at an early hour this morning were cele brating the advent of the new year at Passyunl road and Mifflin street, during which one of the participants, named Jacob Singer, was shot in the face by the accidental discharge of a pistol. The wadding of the weapon struck his left temple and inflicted a slight wound KHILED BY FALLING ON THE ICE .- An unknown man yesterday afternoon fractured his skull in Richmond street by falling on the ice and striking his head against an iron foot-He was conveyed to St. Joseph's scraper. Hospital, where he died shortly after his admittance.

STABBING AFFRAY.-A man named Patrick McCloskey last night, at Shackamaxon and Girard avenue, stabbed another named James Wylie, in the thigh, inflicting an ugly wound. Sergeant Fisher arrested McCloskey, who was taken belong Alderman Sutphin, and bound over 1871, will be paid on and after that date; also that the semi-annual interest on city loans due January 1, 1871, will be paid on and after that date.

By reference to our advertising columns it it will be seen that the banking firm of Elliott & Dunn has been dissolved and that William Elliott, the senior member of the late firm, has formed a new partnership with Frederick Collins, Adolphus W. and F J. Elliott, under the firm title of Elliott, Collins & Co., with a view of carrying on the general banking business at No. 108 South Third street.

These gentlemen are well and favorably known in financial circles, and being mem-bers of the Stock and Gold Exchanges, and having an extensive correspondence with all the large cities on this continent and Europe, they have unusual facilities for the purchase and sale of stocks, bonds, and gold with advantage to their customers.

A partnership has been formed by Jacob M. Duncan, Esq., and Simon Poey, Esq., for the transaction of the General Shipping and Commission Business, with their office at No. 418 South Delaware avenue. Mr. Poey was late of the firm of Dallett & Son, and has an extended experience in the shipping and commission business. He has a large circle of acquaintances, and as a business man he has but few equals. We predict great success for the new firm.
