HARRISBURG, Jan. 4.—The following is the annual message of Governor John W. Geary, transmitted to both houses of the Legislature this afternoon:—
To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Gentlemen:—An all-wise Providence has permitted you to assemble together in this grand and majestic hall, to inaugurate the duties of the present session, and to inaugurate the duties of the present session in our history has been greater cause for rejoicing upon the successful closing of your session, and upon the condition of our great and growing Commonwealth.

Finance.—It affords me pleasure to congratulate the people upon the satisfactory condition of the Treasury. Every demand upon it for ordinary and other expenses has been promptly paid, and the public debt steadily reduced, which has inspired a public confidence in the credit of the Commonwealth, and to recommend to your consideration such measures as are deemed necessary and expedient.

Table with columns for Balance in Treasury, Ordinary receipts, Total in Treasury, Disbursements, and Public Debt.

On the fifteenth day of January, 1867, the total indebtedness of the State was thirty-seven million seven hundred and four thousand four hundred and eighty-seven dollars and eighty-seven cents.

ing November 30, 1870, one million seven hundred and two thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine dollars and eighty-seven cents.

It is the duty of the Legislature to provide for the redemption of the public debt, and to provide for the redemption of the public debt.

The foregone recommendations, in my opinion, embrace the true policy of the Commonwealth, and I have no doubt, will be adopted by the Legislature.

At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed, entitled "An act to allow writs of error in cases of judgments in the courts of common pleas."

The important duty of the Legislature is to provide for the redemption of the public debt, and to provide for the redemption of the public debt.
