were literally heart-rending, and those who witnessed the horrible scene will not forget it to the last day of their lives. The light wood-work of the car was soon all ablaze, and over half a dozen colored persons, young and old, male and female, perished in the flames. Strong men were to be seen at the windows endeavorfell back and became the prey of the devouring element. Women, with their clothes one mass of flame, were also seen to fall, while

In fifteen minutes there was hardly a vestige of the wood of the car remained, and the burning bodies were fully exposed to view. The top of the stove had fallen over on a man, and he presented all the appearances as if he had been itself, while the other sufferers were burning beyond all power of identification. The sight was a horrible one, and made all recoil with horror from the scene. Still they gazed at the poor unfortunate beings as the flames envel-oped them and burned into their very vitals, and they turned avay again and then turned away again.

THE FORCE OF THE CONCUSSION

,193-22 may be well understood when it is stated that .000-000 the solid pier was broken completely in twain, 445 06 and the car hung over the yawning gulf which 409 74 was about thirty feet in depth. The car was 495.83 rent asunder, but fortunately there was no water 0,143.90 in the gully, or the majority of the passengers would certainly have been doomed. As it was, ,636-55 8,108.00 nearly all the passengers received wounds and bruises. The car which went over the precipice 2,828.73 Was

This car, previous to the accident, was 1,534.63 the finest and handsomest on the road.

3,357 62 THE SCENE PRESENTED IN THE AFTERNOON $9.878 \cdot 89$ was of the most dismal character. The baggage $8.959 \cdot 12$ car had been rolled off the track and lay par-473 17 tially down the embankment, while on the op-5,033.49 posite side of the track was the debris of the car in which so manyhad lost their lives, a heap 0.000.00 of smouldering ashes, in which were the charred remains of those who had perished in the 100.00 0.000.00 flames, far past any sign of recognition, and it 3 914 90 was impossible to tell whether the sufferer had 3.338-12 been male or female. BURNING OF HUMAN FLESH caused every one to seek their way to the bottom of the gully, where the workmen were engaged clearing away the wreck. CAUSE OF THE ACCIDENT. The frightful calamity was caused by the intense frost which prevailed at an early hour in the morning. No blame is attached to any one.

Vinnie Renm's Statue of Lincoln. Despatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 .- Miss Vinnie Ream's full-length statue of President Lincoln was privately exhibited to a large number of gentlemen specially invited to be present in the rotunda of the Capitol this morning. Among them were Associate Justices Davis and Clifford, General Banks, and several members of the Illinois Congressional delegation, F. P. Blair, Sr., together with Secretary Delano and the Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Judge Otto. On the unveiling of the statue there was a general outbreak of applause, and the spectators, without exception, after an examination of the work, pronounced it a great success, and the artiste was personally congratulated on her triumph. The marble is without any discoloration whatever.

Lincoln is represented as holding in his hand the Emancipation Proclamation. The statue will not be exhibited to the public for some days, as the extraneous parts of the marble have first to be removed.

Important Bankrup'cy Cases. CHICAGO, Jan. 7 .- Proceedings in bankruptcy

were commenced here to-day by the New York creditors of the heavy dry goods firms of Ross & Cassage and Charles Beardslee, Brothers & Co. In the former case the only act of bankruptcy is a suspension of payment, and in the latter case, as an act of bankruptcy, it is charged that the debtors being traders have suspended payment of their commercial paper. This is the second petition filed against this last firm, the first being instituted on the 21st of March last. when, after some months, on the 18th of June they succeeded in making a settlement with their creditors, so that the proceedings were dismissed. In the present case the partners came in and severally admitted the act of bankruptcy charged, whereupon an adjudication was passed at once.

The militia was ordered to surrender their arms. The order was very arbitrary, and was issued two days ago. "Had it not been complied with, it is certain there would have been an insurrection. The Delaware and Hudson and Delaware and Lackawanna companies have offered their miners $3, $4, and $5 per day, and to their common laborers $2 per day, but these rates have been refused, and the men prefer to remain idle for a time in hopes of extorting higher wages hereafter. THE TENNESSEE HOLOCAUST.

The Latest Rallway Horror-Human Belags Roasted Allye-Shocking Scenes. We condense from a long report in the Memphis Avalanche, of the 4th instant, the following particulars of the terrible railway accident in Tennessee, news of which has already been given by telegraph:-

A terrible accident occurred to the northern bound express train on the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad, about four miles below Memphis, near Nonconnah Creek, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, which resulted in the death by burning of seven colored persons, and mor-tal injuries to two white persons, and the bruis-ing and scorching of about thirty persons. At the time

THE FRIGHTFUL CATASTROPHE

occurred the train was running about twenty miles an hour, and the engine, tender, baggage car, and a coach filled with negroes had found safety over the iron bridge which spans the gully, about five hundred yards above Noncon-nah creek, when the rear axle of the baggage car suddenly snapped, and the car was thrown

THE LANCASTER TRAGEDY.

A Man Kills Himself Half an Hour Before the Time Appointed for His Marriage. Brenner, well known in this city, had committed suicide in his room at the Sorrel Horse Hotel. Mr. Brenner had deliberately placed a pistol at his head and sent a ball into his brain, from the effects of which he died in about ten minutes. Very soon after the occurrence Coroner Dysart was notified, when he summoned a jury and proceeded to take testimony. The first person called was Susan M. Rutter, a domestic at the hotel. Her testimony, which was elicited amid sobs and tears, was substantially as fol-lows:-She had known Henry Brenner some four years, and three years since became engaged to be married to him: the time for the 1,515.00marriage had not been agreed upon until quite recently, when it was decided to have it take $3.708 \cdot 30$ 2,499.90 place at 7 o'clock last evening. About 6 o'clock she went to his room 5.842.01 5.150.00and found him sitting on the side of the bed. He complained of feeling unwell, and she went down stairs and prepared him a bowl of 30.338.42 76,250.00 104,538.93 tea. She placed the tea on the table and bound 3.615.00 a handkerchief around his head, when she went 2.456.62 towards the door, which was but a few steps 1.825.77 from the bed, and led on to the outer balcony of 8,197-56 the second story. She had not yet opened the door when she heard the discharge of a pistol, and looking round saw Mr. Brenner still in the 3.757-87 3,000.00 71,818.53 same position. She thought that he had fired into the wall, but almost instantly he fell back and the pistol dropped from his hand to the floor. She picked the weapon hastily up and threw it on the bed and then ran down stairs to give the alarm. \$7,737,465.73 Mrs. Christian Shenk testified that she knew Henry for a number of years; that he roomed at the house for the past fourteen years: that he possessed means enough to live upon; she knew Susan Rutter, who had lived at the house for the past four years; she always believed Susan to be modest and correct in her behavior; knew of the engagement, but supposed that Henry did not wish to marry her, as he thought there was too great a difference in their social standing. The This was all the evidence brought out. verdict of the jury was that deceased had wilfully taken his life.

Deceased was aged about forty-two years. He was well known in this city and county. His habits of life were peculiar and somewhat irregular. The only motive for the rash act that has been thus far ascertained was to avoid the approaching marriage.

ARMY OFFICERS.

Working of the Army Retirement Law.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:-Many gross improprieties in the working of the law for the retirement of army officers have been brought to the attention of the House Military Committee. Many officers are drawing from $500 to $2000 more pay a year on the retired list than they received while on active duty with their regiments; meanwhile no duty is required of them, and many of them are engaged in lucrative business. This abuse grows out of a law authorizing the retirement of officers on the pay of the grade they held when wounded or disabled, which was passed some five years ago at the solicitation of a Senator who had a son who was a captain in the regular army, and had been a Brigadier-General of Volunteers during the war. The son was enabled to drop the duties of a captain and the pay of $2500 a year, and go on the re-tired list with a salary of more than $5000. A large number of officers have been retired in this way-licatenants as majors and colonels, and captains and majors as brigadier and majorgenerals. While these regular army officers are thus retired upon the pay of the volunteer rank they held during the war, disabled volunteer officers, who do not get places in the regular army, get only a pension of from $15 to $20 a

THE BORGIAS IN NEW JERSEY.

A Mysterious Attempt at Polsouing.

The Newark Courier of Thursday evening

Mrs. Gaifney, bridge-tender of the Willow Street Bridge in Trenton, was preparing for bed, she heard a knock at the door, and auswered it. A young man confronted her, having a large cake in his hand, which he said had beeu sent as a New Year's present for the daughter, a young woman of eighteen years, who was eleeping on the settee. Mrs. Gaffney asked the young man to come into the house, but he declined, saying that he had merely been made the bearer of the present. Mrs. Gaffney, supposing that some one had remembered her widowhood with a New Year's gift, called her daughter, and they proceeded to cut open the magnificent cake. In the centre was a plug of a strange compound, which the mother tasted with the tip of her tongue. She was shortly after seized with pains and sickness, and remained ill for hours. The cake was put away, and Mrs. Gaffney preserved silence regarding the occurrence. She anxiously waited to see if she could find the young man who brought the cake; but, failing in that, she took the cake to a druggist's in the city, who told her that it was poisonous in the highest degree, and that a very little of it would cause death.

"The affair has created no little sensation among the neighbors and friends of the widow."

-Mr. M. D. Conway, in a London letter to the Cincinnati Commercial, gives an account of the appearance of a full-blooded American negro, named Chester, at the Old Balley, as counsel in an important criminal case. Mr. Chester, who formerly lived in Philadelphia, and is very black, created a sensation when he took his place, arrayed in his white wig and his black gown, among the eminent barristers, who treated him with the utmost consideration. A young Scotchman, named Hunter, was associated with Mr. Chester as junior counsel. The case was that of a shoemaker named Leary, who was charged with murdering a man who worked in the same shop with him, and was regarded as so clear against the prisoner that the Judge did not take pains to conceal the black cap, worn while pronouncing sentence of death, which he brought with him when he took his seat. Yet the negro lawyer, by sharp cross-examination, managed to so shake the evidence regarding malice and deliberation as to save his client from the gallows. Leary was convicted of manslaughter only, and got off with ten years' penal servitude.

yearly rental of Samana Bay. The President, ment. some days ago, requested Mr. Dawes, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, to pass the appropriation; but he declined to do it. It will be paid out of the funds in the State Departmen', unless an appropriation is made, as it has been due some time and Baez wants the money.

The President was informed to-day that a majority of the Foreign Affairs Committee are favorable to Morton's resolution, and that it would be reported on Monday, but that it would be some days before a vote could be reached, as a number of gentlemen wished to discuss it.

Railroad Schemes in the Senate.

There are some half a dozen large railroad schemes before the Senate and the House, and the friends of these measures are endeavoring to make a combination with a view of getting concurrent legislation at this session.

The Appropriation Bills.

Dawes and other members of the Appropria-tion Committee intend to bring up the appro-priation bills next week. They will antagonize them against every measure of this sort, with the view of defeating it if possible.

The President's Supporters.

there was a meeting last night of Senators and members, including the Foreign Affairs Committee, and others friendly to the President's policy, at the rooms of Governor Morton for consulting about the San Domingo affairs, and as to the course that should be pursued when it comes up in the House. There are still doubts about the prospect of getting two-thirds of the House, and the opposition is stronger than it was. Those having charge of the measure will allow a reasonable debate, but should a factions opposition be manifested, they will en seavor to rally a two-thirds vote.

FROM THE SOUTH.

Fire as Lynchburg. RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 7.—A fire at Lynchburg last night destroyed the commission house of Rocke & Armstead, with a large stock of goods. The adjoining building, occupied by Miller & Franklin, bankers, and T. H. Ivery, Insurance Agent, was much damaged. Total loss, $25,000 which is fully insured.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

EVENING TELEGRAPH OFFICE, Saturday, Jan. 7, 1871.) The condition of the Philadelphia money market is very slowly and steadily improving. The supply both at the banks and in the hands of private operators is large and ample to meet all current wants. There is considerable specu-lative activity at the Stock Board and, the indications are that for two or three weeks to come there will be a very active market for all classes of investments. How far this will affect the general money market depends upon circumstances, but it is very likely that rates will be steady from this cause. There is very little doing in the way of discounting, either at the banks or outside. Prime paper sells readily at 7@8 per cent. Call loans are quoted at $5\frac{1}{3}@6\frac{1}{3}$ per cent., the lower figure on Government pledges.

Gold is dull but strong, the premium this morning advancing from 110%@110%. Stocks were quite active and prices all stronger; sales of City 65, new, at 100%, and Lehigh gold loan at Sold. PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE SALES.
