THE COAL TRADE.

The Scranton Strike and the Company—The General Strike—The Delinquency of the Trade—The Working of the Trade for the Week—Questions, Etc.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company are trying to make a rising market in New York by stating that they have no anthracite coal on hand in New York, and that the supply in Elizabethport is very small.

The general strike ordered by the General Council of the W. B. A., to take place this month, is not likely to be as general as was expected.

At Shamokin the collieries are working independently of the W. B. A., and are not likely to suspend. In the Schuylkill region one or two collieries are also working independently.

The long stand-still of last summer used up most of their spare funds, while the men in Luzerne have been working all the year as good wages.

The trade in Schuylkill has not been as good as it was supposed it would be previous to the ordered general suspension.

The following is the summary of the trade for the past week as far as received, as reported for the Pottsville Miners' Journal of to-day:

The Aid Granted the Charitable Institutions of the City by the Legislature.

During the fiscal year ending November 30, 1870, the State Legislature granted aid to the charitable institutions of the State to the amount of $338,996.99.

AFTER THREE YEARS.

The Widening of Spring Garden Street Between Sixteenth and Eighteenth Streets—The Ordinance of Councils Being Carried Out.

Spring Garden street promises to be one of the most charming thoroughfares in Philadelphia. Though Councils last year, after a protracted discussion, failed to take any decided action in the matter of opening this highway to the Delaware by cutting through the solid wall of buildings which intervene on its line from Sixth to Front streets, we have "the hope set before us," and by no less a personage than Selectman King, of the Eleventh ward, that soon he will revive the project.

But to-day we are not so much concerned with the project as we were a long time incubating. Spring Garden street is being widened between Sixteenth and Eighteenth streets. The buildings that projected into it are being demolished, proper arrangements being made for the removal of the same, and by this means the thoroughfare is being beautified.

Councils, on the 10th of May, 1866, ordered this street to be widened according to the confirmed plan of the city, which required 44 feet 5 inches to be added to the width of the street on the south side and 35 feet 7 inches of that on the north. On the 27th of October, 1867, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, on a petition of Richard Norris, whose property projected over the street, was appointed a jury to view the same and to report thereon.
