CHESNUT HILL.

Opening of Christian Library Hall. Yesterday Christian Library Hall, at Chesnut Hill, was opened for the first time for public inspection. The Hall, which is the munificent gift of Henry J. Williams, Esq., to the citizens of that borough, is a neat/structure, two stories high, and built somewhat in the shape of the letter "T." It is constructed of Chesnut Hill building stone, and dressed with Trenton brown stone. The lot upon which it stands is 78x200. The main entrance opens into a spacious vestibule, upon each side of which stairs wind upward. Upon the first floor are two communi-cating rooms, each 24x25 feet in dimension. The stairs upon either side of the vestibule lead to the lecture-room. This apartment is of the eize of the two lower rooms. The settees placed therein furnish comfortable seating capacity for an audience of two hundred. It is lighted by ten bronze brackets, with twenty The lecture-room occupies the entire jets. second story. Cocoa matting covers the stairs and each of the apartments. Of the two rooms upon the first floor, one is used as a library and reading-room, and the other as a room for games and conversation. An extension-table, with a neat cover, occupies the centre of the first room. This, as are also numerous side tables, is covered with a profusion of magazines and all the popular periodicals of the day. The library at present contains about two thousand volumes, all new, the gift of the founder and supporter of the institution. To this department large additions are to be made. Everything about the place has a neat appearance of newness.

To-day the annual meeting was held, and at it degree, be amplified. A number of these (one for three years, and some, from abject destitu-tien, have been forced to go the Almshouse.

One of the inmates, Sarah Baynard, has reached the venerable age of one hundred and ten years, and from this fact, with great pro-priety, is called the mother of the house. She was born in Milford, Maryland; was more than three-score years a slave; and to the patient listener tells of many things that happened before and during the Revolution. The next, in point of age, is Mary Edwards, a native of Africa, and who has just attained five-score years. The ages of the rest ascend upwards from sixty years. It is related of one that when the terrible fire of the Patterson Warehouses occurred, and when the inhabitants for squares about were making ready to hastily depart should the devastating element approach their houses, which seemed every moment certain, she kept her bed, and when asked to come down said :- "Well, I will if you want me to; but I've gone to bed, and offered up my prayer, and I'm sure not a hair of our heads will be injured." Mr. Stephen Smith some time ago presented to the Home a valuable lot near Belmont and Girard avenues, as a site for a new and commodious building, which, we are pleased to learn, will be completed by the 1st of May. It will cost $32,000, and will accommodate at least 150 persons; and thus, if the humane efforts of the managers are seconded by a kind public, their means for rendering aid to these destitute and decrepit people will be greatly augmented.

I predict that within three months from the time the department goes into active ser-vice y. u will congratulate yourself that it was your privilege to withhold from or to give to the citizens of Philadelphia one of the greatest blessings which could be bestowed upon any community, and that upon the charity of others." It was founded without ostentation, and entered upon a field of charity hitherto deserted, under the liberal support of a generous class of Philadelphia one of the greatest blessings which could be bestowed upon any community, and that your good judgment decided to give it. I am sure you will experience a feeling of price that it was in your power to aid in the establishment of one of the greatest moral reforms of the rising generation. Through its agency you put a stop to loading about engine-houses on the part of young men who have no visible means of support; you remove a large incentive to incendiarism; you keep the rising generation from being trained to adorn your penitentiaries and julis; yon stop the Sunday To-day the annual meeting was held, and at it Dillwyn Parrish, President, Stephen Smith, Vice-President, Samuel R. Shipley, Treasurer, and Joseph M. Truman, Secretary, were re-elected. During the past year there were twenty-nine aged and decrepit women cared for, three of whom, whose ages were respec-tively sixty, seventy-five, and eighty years, died. Feeling a deep interest in the progress of the bill creating a paid Fire De-partment for the city of Philadelphia, and having heard it was in your hands, I felt satisfied it would be carried out, and I nope it will meet with every success. Having been formerly connected with the volunteer Fire Department of Baltimore as ex-ecutive officer of one of its best companies. I worked for a change of the system, and I am satisfied that all the friends of the paid Fire Department claimed has been fully realized.

PERCY B. SPEAR.

The Nomination of Indian Agents-A Letter from the Agent of the American Church Minslonary Society.

Some days ago we published a communication from William Welsh, Esq., which called for the publication of the endorsement to the nomination of Colonel Percy B. Spear for the position of Indian Agent. The following letter to the Secretary of the Interior from the agent of the American Church Missionary Society throws a small ray of light upon the subject, and tends to confirm the opinion advanced some time ago in our columns, that the appointment of Indian agents at the recommendation of churches and religious societies opened a new door for abuses of the worst kind, as all past experiences tend to show that the most disreputable characters can obtain such recommendations without diffi-culty if they go the right way about it. It may well be asked by the readers of the following letter what right had the officers of the American Church Missionary Society to endorse Colonel Spear, unless they personally knew something of his character, especially when they were aware that the President expected them to aid him in bringing about a great reform, and relied upon them to nominate honest men or pone at all?

In justice to curselves I ought to say that all the festimonials laid before us were from partice well testimonials liad before us were from partless well known to us, and were as full and satisfactory as we can ever expect to have. FROZE UP IN THE DELAWARE-BRIDGE CON STRUCTION BROUGHT TO A STAND-STILL. - The contractor of the South Street Bridge is actively engaged in preparing for operations on the new structure as soon as spring opens. It was his intention to have commenced the work on the pivot pler which is to rise from the centre of the Schuylkill, and as an earnest of this intention a number of scows and a tug, to be used in sinking the cast-iron cylinders, were brought from Baltimore. Unfortunately for the further progress of the work, just as they had been temporarily moored in the Delaware, the cold spap came on, froze them in, and covered the Schuylkill with a thick coat of ice, thus effectually barring all efforts to sink the new pier. The stone, however, is being prepared for the foundations, the carpenter work is rapidly progressing, and the immense iron pipes which are to uphold the draw are already cast. When the weather moderates operations will be pushed forward briskly by the contractor.

WORK OF THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIA-Association is to be held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., No. 1210 Chesnut street. Its purpose, and which commends it forcibly to the philanthropic portion of our community, is to provide homes for the working girls. But its Corresponding Secretary describes its objects more definitely as follows:-

"Our design is to secure a house at once, to furnish it, open the doors to the most needy, provide them comfortable board and lodging, at a rate they can afford to pay, and then to look to the wealthy merchants to whom your appeal was addressed to sustain us."

One of our banevolent merchants has promised the association $5000 as soon as it secures an additional $20,000. This noble effort should not want of success from lack of gederous aid from the public.

WHAT WAS DONE IN THE UNITED STATES COURTS .- During the year 1870 there were tried in the United States District Court, 15 cases of false personation and illegal voting, 1 of smuggling, 3 of unauthorized taking of letters from the Post Office, 1 of demanding and receiving money as a bribe, 7 of fraudulently removing cigars, S of manufacturing cigars fraudulently, of embezzlement of letters, 8 of dealing in liquors without payment of the special tax, 2 of making counterfeit coin, 7 of removing illegally distilled spirits, 1 of carrying on the business of a distiller without a license, 3 of making and selling counterfeit beer stamps, and 2 of perjury. There were also heard 9 cases of bankruptcy, 73 of which were voluntary and 26 involuntary.

FIRE AT THE EASTWICK PARK .- About halfpast 1 o'clock this morning the greater portion of the one-story frame building on the Eastwick Park skating grounds was destroyed by fire. The building was used as a restaurant, reception rooms, etc. The firemen succeeded in saving a portion of the structure. The loss is estimated at about three thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is not known. Some believe it to have originated from a stove, while the watchman attributes it to the work of an incendiary. Fire Marshal Blackburn is making a thorough investigation.

TRIFLING FIRE -About half-past 10 o'clock terday marshig a slight fire occurred in the dwelling No. 2033 Annetta stroet.

ANOTHER STORE ROBBERY. -- Plate-glass affords but little protection against the opera-tions of thieves. Recently a number of large panes in store windows have been broken by throwing a stone against them, and in many instances, notwithstanding the noise made by the crashing of the glass, all goods that could be reached through the aperture were removed. Last night a pane of glass in the eastern window of the tailoring establishment of Charles Stokes & Co., Chesnut street, below Ninth, was broken, and goods to the value of $100 carried The theives left behind them a broomstick having a hook attached to one end. With this they managed to drag the goods from the rear portion of the bulk window.

A BELLIGERENT FEMALE. - Rebecca McLaugh lin, aged 35 years, resided with her mother, who has attained the age of threescore and ten, at No. 2018 Evergreen street. Recently she has been in the habit of beating the old lady, and on several occasions she was taken into custody upon the charge, but in no instance would the mother prosecute the case. Yesterday Rebecca again beat her mother, and the result was that the police were called in. The daughter was arrested, and for the first time the old lady appeared against her. The hearing came off before Alderman Dallas, who ordered that Re-becca in the future should reside within the walls of Moyamensing.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Rudolph Stein, a well-known printer of this city, died suddenly this morning at his residence on Marshall street, near Poplar, of apoplexy. Mr. Stein carried on business at No. 321 Chesnut street. He was taken ill only yesterday afternoon, and was removed to his home in a carriage.

We will act as soon as possible. 8,50 1 00 I am, very truly yours, H. DYER.

WHY IS 1T?

An Omission that will Proveke Acrimony. Our readers will remember the passage-atarms which on last Thursday occurred between President Huhn and Joseph S. Allen, member of Common Council, in which the latter charged the former with having acted unfairly in pro-mising to make him (Allen) chairman of the Committee on Highways, and then not even giving him a membership in it; and having done this much, Mr. Allen presented his resignation as chairman of the Committee on Election Divisions, accompanied with his reasons there-This, it will also be remembered, was for. ruled out of order, as disrespectful and entirely too personal, by President Huhn, whereupon Mr. Allen presented an appeal, which was laid on the table. Now, in the journal of the Common Branch the appeal is thus printed:-

We, the undersigned, appeal from the decision of the Chair in ruling the following resignation out of order:-

Because we believe it to be the right of any memer to place his reasons for his resignation upon the fournal, if such reasons contain nothing disrespectful to the body, and we claim that this sees not. JOSEPH S ALLEN, LOUIS WAGNER.

To-morrow afternoon the inquiry will be made, why was the language of the resignation emasculated from the appeal, and very likely a pretty muss will ensue.

THE Church of the Epiphany, at the northeast corner of Fifteenth and Chesnut streets, was last evening crowded to its utmost capacity, the occasion being the marriage of Jesse W. Starr, Jr., Esq., of the Camden Iron Works, to Miss Fannie S. James, of this city, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Dr. Isaac Newton. The bride wore a very handsome white silk dress, with white tarlatan over-skirt, and looped up with orange blossoms hanging gracefully over the shoulder. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the guests repaired to the groom's residence in Camden, N. J., where a handsome reception awaited them.

ATTACK ON A POLICEMAN .- Hugh Judge is the name of an individual who last night, without any provocation, stepped up to Policeman John Kelly, at Seventh and Carpenter streets, and struck him a violent blow in the face. Not content with this he stole the officer's club, and ran. At Christian street he was stopped by Sergeant Martin. Judge turned on this officer and assaulted him. Martin was too much for him, and he was forced to submit to an arrest. Before Alderman Bonsall Hugh had a hearing, and in default of $1800 bail was sent to prison.

THE REPUBLICAN INVINCIBLES. - The annual election for officers of this club takes place to-day, at the National Union Club House, No. 1105 Chesnut street, between the hours of 2 and 9 P. M.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

EVENING TELEGRAPH OFFICE, Wednesday, Jan. 11, 1871,

The money market is again active on speculative account, and loans are shifting very rapidly, owing to the lively demand for investments; but the only change effected in the money market is the result of an advance in prices of nearly all classes of stocks and bonds, requiring more capital to carry the market than heretofore. We quote call loans at 5@6 per cent. according to collaterals. Discounting continues dull, firstclass paper being quite scarce. 7@8 per cent. is the range for first-class names.

The gold market is quiet but strong, all the sales in New York this morning ranging from 111@11156, closing at the latter. Government bonds are in sympathy with specie, and prices range 1/2 higher than at the close yesterday evening. Stocks continue active and strong: City 6s, old, sold at 100, and the new do, at 10012; 27 was offered for Lehigh gold lunit.

CONGRESS.

FORTY-FIRST TER M-THIRD SESSION. Senute,

Mr. Stewart took the floor in favor of the re-solution. He argued that the further territorial ex-pansion of this country was a part of its manifest destiny, and a necessary incident of its growth in wealth and power. The great difficulty of France in maintaining her Republic was owing to the con-centration of power and of national organization in one city, our own vast extent in giving free scope to operations of local State organizations was during war and would continue to be a guarantee of national safety, proceeding at length to review the issues involved in the general question of Dominican acquisition. Mr. Stewart incidentally alluded to the leader Cabral, when Mr. Morton made a statement to the effect that that chleitain had said to the United States Minister at Hayti he was in favor of annexa-tion as an independent question, but opposed to an-nexation under Baez, because it would result in making the latter Governor of the island, and he would oppress him (Cabral) and his adherents House of Representatives.

On motion of Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, a committee of eight members was ordered, to attend the obsequies of Mr. Covude. The House refused to adjourn, and the previous question was seconded.

Mr. Eldridge moved to lay the bill on the table and called for the yeas and nays. The morning hour expired and the bill went over ill to morrow. The Speaker announced the select committee on the Brooks investigation as follows :- Messrs. Bing-ham, Poland, Kerr, Beaman, and Biggs.

The House thes, at hail-past 1, went into Com-mittee of the Whole, Mr. Scoueld in the chair, and took up the bill making an additional appropriation of $460,000 on the Louisville and Portland Canal for the current fiscal year. Mr. Washburn, of Wis., moved an amendment ap-propriating $841,000 for the completion of a section of work at the Desmoines Rapids, and explained the necessity for it.

Mr. Conger objected to the singling out of any particular work at this time. They should all be left to the general river and harbor appropriation bill. One fourteenth of all the appropriations made for river and harbor improvements since 1854, when the system commenced, went to the Desmolaes Rapids, which had sirendy received $1,918,200, while $562,200 had gone to the Louisville and Portland Canal

Mr. Dawes explained that the appropriations in the regular bill would be for expenditures to be made after the first of July next. These appropria-tions were necessary for the current and fiscal year, and to prevent waste and damage to the works in the spring, Mr. Beck stated the facts which rendered necessary the appropriation for the Louisville and Portland Canal.

Mr. Starkweather opposed the bill and amend-ment, and argued that works of equal impor-tance were in operation in various parts of the country, such as Hell Gate, New York. They had been all overslaughed last year, because the gen-tleman from Wisconsin (Wr. Washbura) had got through an appropriation for Desmoines Hapids, and then that gentleman went against all the other projects from New York to New Oricans.
