BEYOND THIS PRESENT. "We measure life by years and tears," he said "We live a little; then life leaves us dead; And the long grass grows greenly overhead. The years pass on, some swiftly and some

Each takes a little from red summer's glow; Each gives a little of white winter's snow Forever more and more they take and add; We lose the things that used to make us glad We keep but those that make us slowand sad. Hot tears well up from out the fountain heart; We wipe them off with proud, resentful start: Alas, our pride heals not their bitter smart! The eye is but the surface; deep and wide Abides beneath the source of their salt tide; The heart must rest ere that full flow be dried.

As on its hinges swings the door of Time We catch sweet glimpses of a land sublime, Filled with the goldenness of Heaven's prime.

And One stands up; oh, fair and full in sight With clear, true words He calls us day and night!

Help us, O God, to see and hear aright! For if we see Him we shall see Thee too; And if we hear Him, He will tell us true, And fill our bands with some blest work to do. And then both years and tears shall surely cease:

Time to Eternity shall make increase; And smiles shall beautify an endless peace.

ARGUMENT IN PREACHING. Argument forms the basis of interest with the popular mind, and it is the staple method of dealing with and influencing mind. Appeals to the feelings, and all kinds of "sensational preaching," soon wear out; but plain. sensible, and comprehensive reasoning, without the pedantry of the logician or the hardness of the metaphysician, always has power with the great mass of common-sense, intelligent hearers. A sermon which has nothing of this element of thoughtful augmen tation in it rarely makes an endur-ing impression, because it does not reach the depths of the subject or the depths of the mind. It ruffles the top waves; does not go down into the springs of thought or motive. No amount of fine writing, dazzling declamation, or even pathetic appeal, can atone for the absence of sound reasoning in a sermon. It need not, and should not, be technically theological, nor be continued wearisomely; but there can be little true eloquence without it. Truth, which is the converting agency, is not honored if it is not carefully developed, and if this thoughtful, orderly setting forth of truth do not form the basis of the sermon. This forms the positive element in preaching .- Hoppin.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS. EPISCOPAL.

-The St. John Protestant Episcopal Church, Camden, N. J., was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday, December 25. Loss,

-Mr. Benjamin Judkins, Jr., late a Congregational minister, was admitted to the Episcopal Diaconate in Jordan, Central New York, December 7.

—The Church Mission to the colored people proposes to expend $59,000 in giving the Gospel to this part of our population during the coming year.

—The Rev. W. J. Ellis, rector of Christ Church, Nashville, Tennessee, has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted, because the vestry of his church refused to adopt the free-pew system.

METHODIST.

-Bishop Marvin found two members of the Northwestern Texas Conference who had attended the circus. They were called to account before the conference.

-There are in the Methodist Episcopal Church 101 institutions of learning. There are engaged in these 719 professors and teachers. There are 27 universities and colleges and 5 theological seminaries, one of which is in Germany. The amount invested in buildings for the above institutions is $2,985,137. Their endowment available and unavailable, is $2,653,123. The income for salaries, repairs, apparatus, etc., is set down at $243,834. There are in these schools 246 instructors. Were the whole amount of this income averaged among the instructors, the salary of each would be only $991.18. -The first Methodist State Convention in Michigan assembled at Albion, Dec. 12. During the session of the Convention, a committee was appointed to devise a plan for raising $100,000 for Albion College, and Mr. E. Conkling, of Mackinaw, offered 25,000 scres of land towards a Methodist University in Northern Michigan. -The Methodist churches of Lynn, Mass.

five in number, held an interesting union service in commemoration of the 80th anniversary of the settlement of Rev. Jesse Lee in that city, the pioneer Methodist preacher of New England.

-The Methodist Book Concern has a capi tal of $1,458,757. It was founded in 1789, on a capital of $600, loaned by a Methodist

-The Methodists of Cincinnati have, by a union of efforts of all the congregations, pur-chased the Jewish Tabernacie, and made it a present to the colored congregation of Allen

-The N. Y. Christian Advocate says: -A letter to our missionary secretaries from Rev. Dr. Maclay, Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Mission at Foochow, China, anneunces the departure of Rev. Hu Sing Mi, one of the native Chinese preachers, for San Francisco. He speaks English moderately well, a qualification of considerable importance to a pastor among the Chinese in this country. His wife, also a devoted Christian worker, is a native of Canton, and familiar with the Cantonese dialect, which is largely spoken in Califordia. Twenty-four years ago American Methodism had not one representa tive to China. New Chinese Methodism sends the first native missionary to America.

-The Congregationalist denomination has hitherto been without any decided footing in the South. But the Rev. Mr. Feemster, who has recently established the Christian Republic at Columbus, Miss., in the interest of this eminent branch of Christ's Church, claims that a change has lately taken place. At present, he says, there are four Congregational churches in Tennessee, four in Georgia, one in Alabama, three in Mississippi, and a "host" in Louisiana. Schools have also been established and associations formed. This increase dates with the close of the war, and it is believed that, especially among the freedmen, great progress will be made bereafter.

-The new meeting house now building for the First Church, San Francisco (Dr. Stone's), will be of brick, with artificial stone trimmings (the first instance of its use on the | supported by our own unaided efforts should Pacific coast), and, with galleries, will have seating capacity for 1600 persons.

-The annual collection in Rev. Dr. Storr's church, at Brooklyn, just taken for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, amounts to $5000, against $3000

Last year.

—Eighteen persons joined the Fourth
Church in Hartford, Conn., Sabbath week, and twenty-one persons were admitted to membership in the Windsor Avenue Church. -From the Congregationalist we learn that fifty-two ministers of that denomination have died during the past year in the United States, and that eighty-nine churches have been formed.

-The Congregational churches of Oregon have 465 members and 779 Sunday-school

-The Ladies' Social Circle connected with the Congregational Church of East Weymouth, Mass., publish a newspaper called The Parsonage Enterprise, to raise funds for the building of a parsonage.

-The meeting-house of the First Congregational Church in Lynn, Mass., was destroyed by fire on Sabbath afternoon, December 25. Loss from $30,000 to $40,000.

-The Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn (late Mr. French's) has called Rev. Dr. Scudder, of San Francisco, and offer him a salary of $6000 and a parsonage.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-The Occident says: - "There are new six self-supporting Presbyterian churches in this city, the whole combined possessing about one-twentieth of the property of a single first-class church in New York or Philadelphia. There are also six missionary churches, with four houses of worship, and all laboring with unflinching heroism towards self-support. San Francisco is at present the key of the Occident. Influence, population, and wealth accumulate about this centre faster than anywhere else on this coast. If we can conquer San Francisco, we shall control the Pacific

-Rev. Joseph Owen, D. D., of the Presbyterian mission at Allahabad, Northern India, died on the 4th of December last, at Edinburgh, Scotland. Dr. Owen's missionary labors cover a period of thirty years, he having landed in India in 1840. The Presbyterian says:-"He was beyond all question the most learned of our missionaries in India. While yet in the Theological Seminary he enlisted the special interest of Dr. Addison Alexander by his uncommon philological attainments; and in the course of his labors among people of various tongues, those attainments were greatly increased. Latterly he read seventeen or eighteen languages, several of which he also spoke. His translation of the Old Testament into Hindi, and his commentaries, for the native Christians in Urdi, or Hindustani, are used for purposes of instruction by other missionaries as well as those of the Presbyterian Church.

-The Rev. T. S. Kendall, D. D., who presided as Moderator over the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church which met in Pittsburg, Pa., last May, died at the residence of his son-in-law, in Oregon, on the 5th inst.

 A new congregation was lately organized in Alleghany City, Pa., with 110 members, and is to be called the Central Church. The new congregation has given a unanimous call to the Rev. J. W. Sproull to become their pastor.

BAPTIST.

-Among the recent additions to Pursley Baptist church, Greene county, Va., is the Rev. J. L. Turner, who for forty years had been a Congregational preacher.

-The Examiner and Chrenicle says: -"Among the humors of the season we may mention the advertisement of Christmas services in a certain Protestant Episcopal church, in which the names of the signers were printed in full, and the assurance given to the public that the music in the morning would be 'strictly ecclesiastical,' while that in the evening would be of a 'lighter' character.

-The recent fair at Horticultural Hall, in this city, for the benefit of the Baptist Home, proved a success. Nearly $7000 was realized for the Baptist Home for the Aged and Infirm which went into operation this week.

LUTHERAN. -The Norwegian Lutherans in this country now number 250 congregations. During 1870 fourteen pastors were ordained and six new churches erected.

-Twenty young Swedes have been "imported" by Professor Haeselquist, of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Paxton, Illinois.

REFORMED. -Mr. Edward H. Green and sisters, of Easton, Pennsylvania, have presented the lot on the northeast corner of Fourth and Spring Garden streets, Easton, to the Dutch Reformed Congregation, as a site for a new church. The congregation have accepted it, tion of the church. -From the Reformed Church Messenger we learn that of the Reformed preachers in this country "there are over three hundred who can preach in German. There are also over four hundred who can preach in the English language. A large proportion of these can officiate in both German and English, as occas on may require. The smaller number can use only one language; that is, some can only use the German and some can only use the English in their public ministrations. There are probably very few de-nominations whose ministry in general averages a more thorough scholarship in theological science than that of the Reformed Church by the congregation to superintend the erec-in the United States.' BOMAN CATHOLIC. -The Gazette of Augsbury reports that the Prussian Minister of Public Worship decidedly discourages the opposition of a number of Catholic professors to the Pope, and the bishops who endeavor to enforce the doctrine of infallibility. He is reported to have in private letters expressed to the protesting professors his dissatisfaction with their opposition. What has been done in Bonn will, with his sanction, be repeated not only in all the universities, but even in the gymnasiums. All Roman Catholic teachers who will not express their submission to the new dogma are, one after the other, to be dismissed from their posts. -Cardinal Cullen has issued a pastoral on the Feast of St. Lawrence. After a biography of the "great prelate," his Eminence attacks the Voltairians of the continent, and then complains that "a press calling itself national or Irish not unfrequently assails religion and its ministers, and defends Fenianism, Freemasonry, and secret societies, the bane and scourge of every country where they take root." Finally, he bids his flock pray for the Pontiff, and alludes to the "evils of a mixed system of education," and the "designs of Dr. Whately and others now unmasked." As to the Catholic University, his Eminence says:-"Catholics have right to demand that an institution so long receive a meet endowment from the public resources of the kingdom. We should not cease to urge this measure on the Legisla-ture, resting assured that the intolerant bigotry and ignorance which have hitherto oppo our claims must very soon yield before the justness of our demands and the growing liberality of our statesmen, who in the Church and Land acts have shown a determination to do justice to Ireland. Our exertions and our petitions should not cease until we shall have a Catholic university, Catholic middle schools, and Catholic primary schools. all receiving assistance from the public funds of the country.'

—The condition of affairs in Rome has given rise to some apprehension as to the safety of the funds collected for the endow-ment of the American College. The New York Tablet is authorized to state that all the funds are safely invested in first-class American securities.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY. -The Landreth Sunday-school was organized in the old homestead at Landreth Garden, Federal street, west of Long lane, now Twenty-second street, January 17, 1847. The population now gathering in that section, according to the recent census, surpasses in numbers most other parts of our city, and presents to day to the Christian Church one of the most fruitful fields for Home Mission work in the city. The twenty-fourth anniversary of this school will be observed on Sabbath afternoon, 15th inst., at half-past 2 o'elock.

THE LORRAINE VEGETABLE CATHARTIC PILL is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered. The most complete success has long attended its use. It never fails to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the ergans free from irritation, and never overtaxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin, blood, stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses it will voluntarily return to any other cathartic. It is sold by all dealers in drugs and medicines.
