A Lawyer Insane from Starvation.

D. R. Sheridan, a young Jersey City lawyer, who has a large number of friends and was suposed to have a paying practice, was arrested n Sunday and taken to the station-house, where it was found that he was insane. He had been acting strangely for some time, and finally went o Brady's livery stable and ordered all the horses out that he might show them which had been brought from Massachusetts. Dr. Pender-grast was called in and pronounced Sheridan insane and in a starying condition. On partially recovering he stated that he had been without food for over four days. He is temperate, and is regarded as a man of considerable ability.
