

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

NEW PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

The Camden Rioters.

The United States Court-room at Trenton was filled to the utmost, on Tuesday, by parties drawn thither from the trial of Francis Souder, one of the Camden rioters.

Mr. King, after thanking the jury for their earnest attention and unwearied patience during the progress of this lengthy trial, began his argument by referring to the summing up on the part of the Government.

He then proceeded to show upon what all republican forms of government rested—that our republic derived all its force and efficacy from the consent of the governed.

He was followed by Mr. Browning for the defense, who made a forcible appeal in behalf of his countrymen, laboring to convince the jury that the colored men were not obstructed in their efforts to vote.

CONCERT AT THE BEDFORD STREET MISSION.—A grand concert of vocal and instrumental music was given last evening at the Bedford Street Mission by the ladies and gentlemen of the choir of the Green Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

SEBENADE TO DR. H. T. HELMBOLD.—Last evening, at about 11 o'clock, a fine serenade was given to the well-known Dr. H. T. Helmbold, at the Continental Hotel.

FUNERAL OF HANLON.

The burial of the Undertaker's Tals Morning—An Enraged Crowd—The Alleged Confession of the Murderer. When it was ascertained that the remains of Hanlon had been removed from the prison to the establishment of Jacob McElhinney, undertaker, No. 138 North Seventeenth street, there were not lacking people with curiosity enough to make that locality an object of their especial attention.

The Young Men's Home—A Noble Charity—The Influence of a Large City—Prompt Action of the Y. M. C. A. The solicitation of the Newsboys' Home on Locust street is keenly appreciated by the people of Philadelphia.

It was conceived that if established in various parts of Philadelphia, the best of influences, that one of the best of practical Christianity would be fulfilled.

It gives us great pleasure to notice that the operators of the celebrated William Penn coal mine by Samuel E. Grisco & Co. have appointed Mr. Henry C. Pollock sole agent to the Philadelphia and vicinity.
