MENSECAL AND DRAMATC.

The City Amusements.

AT THE WALNUT ON Saturday evening Mr. J. S. Clarke was greeted by an immeuse audience which filled every inch of room in the auditorium. The comedian was welcomed by the beartiest applause, and his performance of the part of "Bob Acres" excited enthusiastic demon-strations of pleasure. Sheridan's comedy of The Rivals, while it falls below the The School for Scandal as a work of art, is such a piece as no modern dramatist but Sheridan could have written, and the brightness of its wit and the heartiness of its humor have ever made it a favorite. The charactor of "Bob Acres' is one of the best in Mr. Clarke's repertoire, and it is certainly irrestituly funny, especially in the scene where "Bot" is beguiled into sending a challenge and the duel scene, where his courage evaporates with extraordinary rapidity as the fatal moment arrives when his precious carcace

"Major Wellington de Boots" and "Paul Pry." On Wednesday afternson the comedy of For and Goore will be represented for the benefit of the author, Mr. J. D. Stockton. Fox and Goose is a capital piece, and as Mr. Stockton is a Philadelphian, his fellow-citizens should show their appreciation of his talents as a dramatist by crowding the house on this occasion. AT THE CREENUT a romantic drama by J. C. Foster entitled The Old Man of the Mountain will be produced with new scenery, dresses, and appointments. This piece is founded upon the romantic events of the ernsades, and it is said to be intensely interesting. In order to produce it the company has been largely increased, and it promises to be one of the fluest spectacles exhibited in this city for a long time. We are pleased to see that Mr. Walter Lengox has joined the Chesnut Street Company as low comedian. On Saturday evening he was greeted with rumultuous applause when he appeared as "Jacques," the mock duke, in the comedy of The Honeymoon, which must have convinced him that he has a firm place in the regards of the playgours of this city. Mr. Lennox is an excellent a tor, and he was one of the chief attractions at the Chesnut several years ago, when he was a member of the company under Mr. Sinn's management.

AT THE ARCH & plees entitled Larline will be represented this evening ATTHE ACADEMY OF MUSIC a season of six performances of English and one of German opera will commence this evening with the ever popular Bohemian Hirl. In the market scene a concert performance will be given by Miss Jenny von Busk, Miss Alma Krause, Mr. Joseph Herrmans, Mr. W. Lotti, and the child Americus. To-morrow evening Martha will be performed for the beneat of Mr. J. F. Zhumerman, the treasurer of the tronpe, and Mr. C. W. Camp-bell, the box book-keeper of the Academy. Both of these gentlemen deserve well of the public, on Wednesday Mrs. Seguin will have a benefit, when The Marriage of Figuro will be given; on Thursday Trovatore will be performed, with Miss Emma Howson as "Leonora;" on Friday Fidelio will be represented for the first time in English in this city for Mr. Castle's benefit; on Saturday there will be a grand matince, and on Saturday evening Faust will be enug in German AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDING the two-headed girl and other living curiosities will be on exhibition every afternoon and evening until further notice. AT DUPREZ & BENEDICT'S OPERA HOUSE the Excelsior Female Minstrels will commence a series of performances this evening with a great bill of attractions.

AT THE AMERICAN a variety of novelties are announced for this evening's performance. AT THE MUSEUM, Ninth and Arch streets, a piece entitled A Day in Paris and the comedy of The Widow's Strategy will be represented this evening. The "Child Wonder," little Vic., will appear in a number of her specialties.

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE Slocum's fanny barlesque of The Great City will be represented this evening. ROTHERMEL'S picture of "The Battle of Gettysburg" is on exhibition at No. 1003 Chesnut street.

The Deuble-Hended Girl - An Examination Made by Well-known Medical Men.

Made by Well-known Diedent files. Since the arrival in this city of the curlosity known as the "double headed girl," which for some days past has been on exhibition at odd Fellows' Hall, there has been a variety of opinions expressed as to whether it really was the wonderful curlosity claimed, or whether a fraud was being perpetrated upon the public. In order to settle the point, Drs. D. W. Binss and A. J. Borland, eminent medical practitioners of this city, acting at the suggestion of many citize ns, vesterday made application to make many citizens, yesterday made application to make a medical examination of the dual character. After consultation with the proprietors of the exhibition, it was decided to accede to the request, and ac-cordingly yesterday afternoon the examination was

We regret that Dr. Bliss was so much engaged yesterday evening as to render it inpossible for him to write out his scientific report. Suffice it to say that the examination was entirily satisfactory, and revealed the fact that the representations made by the management are antirely correct; the girl being of but one body, with two heads, four arms and feet, two sets of inngs, two hearts, and one physical or-ganization. The doctors exaress themselves as entirely satisfied that the girl is the most wonderful human being on the face of the earth,-Washington Republican.

REMITTENT FEVERS .- THE WAY TO ESCAPE THEM. -A dose of PLANTATION BITTEES, taken night and morning, will enable the system to repel the deleterious influence of these fruitful sources of epidemic disease. It is in evidence that in many instances where the greater portion of the population of an entire settlement have been prostrated by billous remittent fevers, the few who have had sufficient forecast to take the Bitters as a precentive have escaped the scourge. As a remedy after an attack has actually commenced, this celebrated tonic and anti-bilious elixir is invariably efficacious. In such cases, if taken after the fever is oil, it will soon control the paroxysms, and when the patient is convalescent, it will restore the appetite and recruit the strength more rapidly than any other stomachic and invigorant in use.
