A matinee will be given to-morrow. AT THE ARCH Sinbad the Sailor is announced for this evening. AT THE AMERICAN the programme to-night will be especially arranged to suit the tastes of ladies and family parties, and no smoking or refresh-ments will be permitted in the theatre. The Friday night family performances that have been given by Manager Fox since he has been in his new and handsome theatre have proved very popular and have attracted excellent audiences. A variety entertainment that presents a constant succession of novelties, and that combines in a certain sense the attractions of the theatre, circus, and minstrel hall, is undoubtedly more pleasing to a great many intelligent people than any other style of exhibition ever invented. The great object many persons have in visiting a place of public entertainment is simply to kill time in an agreeable manner, and a variety performance where songs, dances, burlesques, acrobatic exhibitions, and other features follow each other in rapid succession, affords pleasure to many whose tastes do not incline to the legitimate drama. Mr. Fox has at the American a large and efficient company, and he is constantly introducing interesting novel-ties with the idea of making his programmes as fresh and attractive as possible. The family night performances heretofore given have been free from anything offensive, and they have been apparently heartly enjoyed by the large audiences which have attended them.

To-morrow there will be a family matinee. when the same rules will be observed as at this evening's performance. AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDING the twoheaded girl and other curiosities may be seen this afternoon and evening. AT THE MUSEUM, Ninth and Arch streets, there will be a dramatic performance this evening. A matinee to-morrow.

THE MENNERCHOR BAL MASQUE, to come off at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening next, will undoubtedly be a very handsome affair. Great preparations are being made, and a number of new and attractive features will be introduced. ROTHERMEL'S picture of "The Battle of Gettysburg" may be seen at No. 1003 Chesnut

CITY ITEMS.

No More Mercury for Me!-"Put them in the fire, my dear," was the advice of Mrs. Macarthy to her son, a bilious and dyspeptic youth who had just brought home another box of blue pills. "But what am I to take, then, mother?" said he, "Get a bottle of Plantation Bitters," she replied; "I'll guarantee it does you good." He did so; and then another and another. With the third bottle all his unpleasant symptoms vanished. In a letter to a young friend he relates this anecdote, and winds up with "No more mercury for me!"
