MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC last evenlog Mr. Castle's benefit, attracted a large audience, the interest of the occasion being enhanced by the first representation of Fidelio in English. The performance of this difficult work was only moderately successful, and there is no doubt that it is beyond the range of the English troupe, notwithstanding the fact that it contains a manber of fine singers. Mrs. Bernard rendered the role of 'Leonora' with considerable dramatic expression, and Mr. Drayton gave an admirable personation of 'Rocco.' Mr. Castle, as 'Florestan,' sang the prison aria creditably, but otherwise his performance was not remarkable. Miss Hersee's voice is too light for the role of "Marcelline," and although she sang the music very sweetly, she was frequently overwhelmed by the din of the orchestra. Mr. Howell made a wretched failure as "Don Pizarro," and the choruses were sung abominably. The orchestration was sometimes tolerably good, some times intelerably bad, and always too loud. In fine, Fidelio had best be sung as seldom as possible by the English troupe. There will be a matinee to-day, when selections from several operas will be given, and this evening Faust will be sung in English instead of German, as previously announced.

The attractions of the performances given during the present week have been much en hanced by the German slugers, and especially by the little boy Americas, who were introduced under the management of Mr. Leonard Grover. The child Americus is really a little wonder, and his pa formances on the violin are certainly remarkable for such a mere baby. It is to be hoped that he will return soon, and give our citizens a better opportunity to see what he really is than has been possible during the present week.

AT THE ARCH Sinbad the Sailor will be performed this evening.
AT THE WALNUT Mr. Clarke will appear at a matinee performance to-day, and this evening he will conclude his engagement by representing "Ne man Noggs," in Nicholas Nickleby; "Babington Jones," in Among the Breakers; and "Young Gosling," in Fox and Goose. On Monday, the business manager of the Walnut, Mr. T. J. Hempbill, will have his annual

AT THE CHESNUT the spectacle of The Old Man of the Mountain will be represented this afternoon and evening. On Wednesday next there will be a matinee performance in aid of the Holland testimonial

AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDING the twoheaded girl may be seen this afternoon and ATTHE AMERICAN a family matinee will be given this afternoon, and a grand variety Performance this evening.

THEODORE THOMAS and his grand orchestra will give two grand concerts at the Academy of Music on Wednesday and Thursday next. THE ANNUAL BALL of the Americas Club will come off at the Academy of Music on Monday next. This will undoubtedly be an exceedingly elegant entertainment. THE MENNERCHOR annual masked ball will be given at the Academy of Music on Toesday next. One-half of the proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the sufferers by the Franco German

INTERESTING TO LADIES .- "For more than twelve vears a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine has been in constant use in my family, and it has given complete satisfaction. My wife considers it invaluable in the family, as by it all kinds of work can be done, the finest fabrics, as well as the coarsest, with equal facility. After long experience of its excellencies, we cordially recommend it to our friends as an almost indispensable article that in a few years will more than pay its cost."

WISHART'S COLUMN.

THE MEDICAL PRO-PERTIES OF TAR.

The pine tree has long been known to possess valuable medical properties. For puln opery diseases it is doubtful whether any remedy has as yet been discovered equal to it. It seems to change and renew the very structure on which it acts, and to infuse into the system an indescribable power equal to the natural power before disease had even taken hold of the body, so as to make, as it were, an entirely new tissue, and to give a newness of life and energy which one who has been sick a long time knows the value of ut cannot fully describe. The great objection, however, to all tar preparations has been their uppleasant taste, and consequent liability to sickness and nauseate the stomach. We have before us, however, a preparation of the kind referred to, which obviates all these objections, and is as agreeable to the palate as it is valuable in the cure of disease. We mean "Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial," a real, genuine, bona fide medicinal cordial, distilled from the pine tree by a process known only to the Doctor himself, the sale and popularity of which are only equalled by the amount of suffering it has relieved, and the number of diseases it is so well calculated to effectually cure. In the Pine Tree Tar Cordial the invalid may be sure he has a reniedy of very extraordinary power for throat and lung affections, and when taken in conjunction with the "Great American Dyspepsia Pills," an infallible cure for dyspepsia, liver complaint, sick headsche, and the many ailments arising from a disordered state of the liver and digestive organs.

In our sphere as publishers we feel some degree of cantionsness in what we recommend to our readers, but when we know of anything of value to the public we shall not hesitate to make it known through our columns. We advise those of our readers who are suffering from dyspepsia, etc., to give Dr. Wishart's celebrated remedies a trial.

A medical expert, holding honorable colle giate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examina on of patients at the office parlors. Associated with him are three consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public free of charge. This opportunity is offered by no other in stitution in the country.

Thousands of certificates of absolute cure (when all else failed to afford relief), as well as recommendatory letters without number, have been received by Dr. Wishart, the proprictor, attesting the uniform success with which they have been employed. Many of said letters are from the highest sources, including eminent statesmen, Governors, State judges, clergymen, etc. -men slow to be convinced, prejudiced perhaps at first, but feeling themselves under a sense of duty bound to tell the Doctor what they had done for them and to recommend them to others. The Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial are sold by all druggists throughout the world. They can also be obtained at Dr. WISHART'S GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE STORE, No. 232 North SECOND Street, Philadelphia, where a successful practising physician can be consulted each day, free of charge. Those in need of professional aid or counsel will do well to make a note of the above. Communications by mail, soliciting professional advice, will be considered strictly confidential and promptly answered, free of charge.
