OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

YES! RESCUED SOUL!

Yes! rescued soul-ery, ery aloud, And weep warm tears of joy-Snatch'd from the horrors of the pit Wide-yawning to destroy.

Fall at the feet of Him as dead Who gives thes pardon free;

ŧ,

Thou dost not-canst not-may not know From what He savath thee !

O could'st thou for one moment view That gulf of darkness drear,

Where Love's dear glances never beam, Nor fails sweet Pity's tear.

Could'st thou but see the stony brows Enthroning black despair,

And hearing the agonizing shriek Of-"Lost!"-wild ringing there.

How would'st thou bless the mighty grasp That held thee back from thence Low weeping at the Saviour's feet In gratitude immense!

Yes-rescued sinner-cry aloud! And weep warm tears of joy: Saved from the second death, thy soul

No spoiler shall destroy!

GOD'S LAW GOD'S WILL. The root of each man's character is either love of God, or enmity against God. No man can doubt this who accepts without question the testimony of revelation; and they who ook most deepty and closely into life as it is will be least inclined to doubt it. From these opposite principles come, on the one hand, the disposition to, bring God near, and, on the other, the disposition to thrast Him far away. Love longs for its object, wishes it near, would see it, hear it, handle it, embrace it. To love, separation is intolerable. It chafes at distance. It never rests till it rests in its beloved.

Not so enmity. Its very nature is to thrust off, to put away, to drive from sight and hearing and thought, nay, even from exist-ence, its object. Separation it demands. Hated companionship it cannot brook. It cries out rather for isolation. Love and enmity, as toward God, take no other than this their normal course. God's child, because of the love that dwells and reigns in his heart, delights in his Father's presence, hears quickly and recognizes gladly the Father's voice, sees everywhere and in all things the hand of the Great Person, the tokens of His presence, the expression of His power and wisdom and goodness. But with peculiar and growing delight does he regard the great law of right as but the will and pleasure of his beloved Lord. Conscience comes readily to refer to that Person in all forms of its action. Its peace is but the assurance of the Divine favor, the consciousness of Divine acceptance. Its distress is c+nsciousness of having grieved and injured a Father. Its aspiration is to enjoy complete and everlasting fellowship with God. The truth of this is attested no less in the literature of the Church and the general testimony of Christians than in Scripture.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

BAPTIST.

-The First African Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, is supposed to have a larger membership than any other on the scandalously unjust, and undeniably godless. It is a violation of ell consistency, that an emencipated nation should either hold in subjection or be held in subjection to a Church still politically enslaved.

-32 natives were recently ordained to the work of the ministry in the Episcopal Church in the province of Tinnevelly, India. A native preached the ordination sermon.

CONGREGATIONAL.

-The Rev. A. T. Sherrill was installed pastor of the Congregational Church at Omaha, Nebraska, on the 24th of January, being the first pastor of his denomination in-stalled in the State.

-It is found the present Divinity Seminary building at Yale College will not accommodate future classes, and the theological professors are making an effort to raise funds for a new building.

-The new missionary brig Morning Star, now being built in Boston, to take the place of the one wrecked on one of the Micronesian islands last year, is 97 feet long. A female figure in white robes, fringed with gold, and an open book in her right hand, ornaments the bow. On one page of the book are the words light, love, life. - Rev. Dr. E. T. Fitch, Professor of Di-vinity at Yale College, died at New Haven on Tuesday evening, January 31.

METHODIST.

-The treasury of the Methodist Episcopal Mission Society showed a deficit last Decem-ber of $115,656. A strong call has been issued from the Mission rooms urging the denomination to a contribution of not less than a million of dollars.

-The Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, which has a flourishing mission in Northern India, has recently established a college at Lucknow, one of the scenes of the fearful mutiny of 1857; and a missionary of that Church has given twenty thousand dollars towards its endowment. This gift shows what missionaries themselves think of the work as an investment.

REFORMED DUTCH.

-In the course of seven years, under the energetic administration of President Campbell, $242,900 have been added to the endowment of the college, and no one has ever been heard to complain that a dollar of this large addition to the funds of the college has been injudiciously expended.

WHAT KIND OF BREAD IS THE BEST?

Aerated Bread is the Purest, Healthiest, Sweetest, Cleanest, Most Mutritious, and Cheapest Ever Made.

READ THE PROOF.

The sample of Aerated Bread submitted to me has been subjected to careful analysis, and I find it free from all traces of any deleterious substances or impurity, is perfectly light, pleasant to the taste, free from all acidity, and easy of digestion. The fact that it is made without yeast renders it better fitted for dyspeptic stomachs than bread made in the ordinary way. The great care taken in maintaining perfect cleanliness during the manufacture, the dough not being allowed to come in contact with the workmen's hands even for a moment, should satisfy the most fastidious. For obvicus hygienic reasons, in its influence on the public health it is beyond doubt the best of all forms WM. E. A. AIKIN, of bread.

Oct. 7, 1869. Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy, University of Maryland. Professor George Hadly, M. D., of Fuffalo Medical College, speaking of Aerated Bread, says: -- "I have used it constantly in my family for several years, and regard it as in all respects the best and most wholesome bread ever made. The celebrated Dr. Alcott, in his lectures on Life and Health, says:-"N either leaven nor yeast ought ever to have been known. They are a filthy concern; besides, fermented bread is a semi-putrid bread; that is, it has advanced one step on the highway to Patrefaction. In fermentation, a portion of the saccharice matter, the life or vitality of the b read, is lost. There is from 7 to 10 per cent. more nutrition in the same weight, by chemical test." Bread furnished for charitable purposes at a low price. CAKES and CRACKERS, the best in the city. Extra liberal discount to country trade. Sold by all grocers throughout the city. D. B. continent, if not in Christendom. It has thirty deacons, and numbers on its records more than 4000, with over 3000 resident members.

-In the new Michigan Avenue Baptist Church, Chicago, the price of the pews is put at the uniform rate of $1.25 per month for each sitting throughout the house, the first choice of pews being given to the person offering to pay the rent of the greatest number of seats. Out of the surplus arising from such extra rentals provision will be made for the assistance of those who are not able to pay a full rental.

-In most of the Baptist churches in Boston a blessed work is in progress. The Union Temple, Harvard street, Clarendon street, Charles street, Bowdoin Square, and Ruggles Street churches are all sharers in the good work. Broadway Church, in Cambridgeport, is enjoying a season of refreshing. A goodly number of the members of the Sabbath-school give evidence of a change of heart.

-In Bellerica, Mass., Mr. Talbott, a Unitarian, gives the church, and part of the furnishing of the same, amounting to $11,500; also the lot on which the church stands, worth, as is estimated, $500; in all, $12,000. We learn, on good authority, that Mr. Talbott, who has already contributed toward the support of Baptist preaching $300 annually, has made permanent provision by which the income of $5000 goes, every year, toward the same end-making the aggregate of his donations to this society and church really $17.000.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-A very interesting work of grace is reported in the Presbyterian Church, Shelbyville, Tenn., under the pastoral care of the Rev. J. H. Bryson. It is stated that some sixty persons have been hopefully converted, and about fifty have united with the Presbyterian Church.

-The Christian Observer says:-"During the past week tidings have been received of the death of two highly esteemed and useful ministers of the Synod of Kentucky-the Rev. W. D. Symington and the Rev. John G. Simrall."

-The Rev. R. H. Kinnaird, of Raymond, Mississippi, has accepted a call to the church at Midway, Kentucky.

-The Presbyterian church at Little Rock. Ark. (Rev. T. R. Welch's), is now entirely out of debt. This house cost about $40,000; and on the first Sabbath in this year the last instalment of the indebtedness upon it ($4000) was very cheerfully paid by the con-gregation. On the same day fifteen persons were added to the church-eight by examination and seven by certificate.

-The Rev. J. W. Sproull, a son of the Rev. Dr. Sproull, of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, (Old Light), in Allegheny, Pa., has been unanimously called to become the pastor of a new congregation of that church, which has lately been organized in that city, under the name of the Central Church. It commences with one hundred and ten members.

EPISCOPAL.

-Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, has enjoined upon the clergy of his diocese the use of the gown instead of the surplice when preaching.

-St. James' Church, Chicago, has erected a memorial monument to the soldiers of its congregation who died in the late war. It stands in the church vestibule, and cost $4600.

-The Rev. Orby Shipley, who may be re-garded as the President of the new Liberation Society recently organized by the Ritual. ists in England, says: -""A free Church is the only antitype to a free State. Our present position (that of subjection to the State) I do not hesitate to stigmatize as utterly anomalous,
