JESUS, I COME!

Jesus, I come-I come to-night; Restore to me my blinded sight, And in my soul, let "there be light!" Jesus, to Thee I come! Jesus, I come-I cannot stay

From Thee another precious day; I would Thy word this night obey-Jesus, to Thee I come! Jesus, I come-"just as I am,"

To Thee, the holy, spotless Lamb; Thou wilt receive me as I am-Jesus, to Thee I come! Jesus, I come-I dare not stay-

I dare not linger by the way, For now is near the Judgment-day Jesus, to Thee I come! Jesus, I come-I bring my all, In answer to Thy gracious call, And at Thy throne of mercy fall-

Jesus, to Thee I come! Jesus, I come-I come to Thee. For only Thou cans't make me free, Cans't give me life, and light to see-Jesus, to Thee I come!

PREACHING CHRIST CRUCIFIED. Those who are looking for the coming of the Lord, and expecting Him to set up on earth the Kingdom of Heaven-that kingdom for which He has taught us to pray, and say, "Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven"-are very com-monly repreached with being visionary, and neglecting the "practical" duties of Chris-

We have often heard this insinuated, and the preaching of "Christ crucified" held up by way of foil and contrast; as much as to say, "At best, even if 'your views' are correct, you are forever holding up non-essentials; we preach essentials—the very marrow of the Gospel—Christ crucified." In fact, they preach only a half Gospel. Howbeit they mean not so, neither doth their heart think so.

A half gospel, we say. For why should the blood be shed and the inheritance be left? But the Word of God declares that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth together in pain unt l now, waiting for the adoption, which is the redemption of the body. And how ashamed will many be, at His appearing, that with the record of His will continually before them, they did not even understand what the kingdom of our Lord and His Mes-

Not many years ago a company of minis-ters, assembled in fraternal conference, agreed that each one should state the substance of his public teachings. One of them arose and said:—"I preach Christ and Him crucified." Whereupon nearly all the rest, one after the other, rose and repeated:—"I preach Christ and Him crucified." Was it really as they said? It may well be doubted. They love Christ with all their hearts. But do they preach Christ?

Christ means Messiah. And Messiah means The Anointed One, THE KING. Do they recognize Him as King, except as swaying the inward affections of His people? Do they expect him to set up an outward and real kingdom on earth? In the Epistles He is everywhere spoken of as Jesus Christ, or Christ Jesus. Sometimes one and sometimes the other. Jesus signifies Saviour. Christ signifies King. It is not an accident that the Scriptures speak of Him as Christ Jesus, and as Jesus Christ. Jesus King. King Jesus. And no one can be said to preach Christ fully who does not preach His coming and king-dom.—Prophetic Times.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

PRESBYTERIAN.

-During a meeting in the Shelbyville Church, Tennessee, there were about ninety professions, and there have been about seventy additions to the Presbyterian Church. -A new church has just been organized at Madison Station, Tennessee, with twentyfour members, and a good prospect for additional members.

-On the second Sabbath in January fifteen members were added to the communion of the Alabama Street Church, Memphis, Tennessee (Rev. Dr. Stedman's), on profession of their faith. The congregation has grown to such an extent that the erection of a new house of worship has become necessary, notwithstanding it is only a year since the pre-sent building was enlarged.

-Spice the 1st of January there has been an addition of fifty-one members to the First Presbyterian Church of St. Joseph, Missouri (Rev J. G. Fackler's), nearly all of them on examination.

-The Boston church of which the Rev. Dr. Blaskie is pastor is before a committee of the State Legislature, hoping to recover its title to the old Federal street estate, which it held before the Unitarian schism took place.

—Rev. J. R. Dodds, D. D., a devoted missionary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, died at Aleppo, Syria, in December last. He had a thorough knowledge of the Arabic language, and gave promise of great usefulness.

—On the 8th of January the first Protestant church ever built on Roman soil was opened, under the auspices of the Free Church of Scotland.

CONGREGATIONAL,

-The church in Macon, Missouri, organized five years since with ten members, now numbers forty-six; and within that time, though beginning with almost no resources, has raised over $10,000 for pastoral support and their meeting-house.

-The annual catalogue of Andover Seminary, just issued, shows a total of eighty-eight students, nine of them in the special course. -The Baltimore Congregational Church has now about one hundred members. It still worships in the convenient and spacious stone chapel built on the rear of its fine lot.

-The Rev. Dr. Eleazer T. Fitch, for long time Professor of Divinity in Yale College, and pastor of the College church, died at his residence in New Haven lately, in the eighty-first year of his age.

-From the Congregational Quarterly for January, 1871, we learn that the Congregationalists have in the United States 3121 churches, 3194 ministers, 306,518 members, and 361,465 pupils in Sunday-schools. The benevolent contributions reported by the churches amount to $954,555.76. The gain in churches during the past year is 78; in ministers, 30; in members, 6156; in Sundayschools, 4963. The infant baptisms were 5134, against 5022 of the preceding year. There are 651 vacant churches, and 928 ministers without charge.

EPISCOPAL.

-The rector of Trinity (Episcopal) Church, Princeton, N. J., has just had presented to him, for use in the church, a magnificent brass eagle lectern, an exact pattern of the one now in use in Derry Cathedral, Ireland tion. It was made by Con & Sons, London, at a cost of £100. There are not more than

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN. | five or six of these brass lecterns in the whole ceuntry.

-The Lord Chancellor is said to be pro paring a new scheme for the formation of the Judicial Committee of Privy Council which for years has given so much trouble to the High Church party. It was never intended by its author, Lord Brougham, to become the final court of appeal in cases of heresy or breach of ecclesiastical discipline; but having tumbled, by a series of accidents, into that position, the inevitable English difficulty, that of reforming or removing what is once established, is sorely felt.

METHODIST.

-Five years ago the Methodist Church had no church congregation or membership in Sweden. Now there are twenty-one missionary workers, with a lay membership of over two thousand, and rapidly increasing. The progress of the work there is of the most gratifying character, and the future is full of

-By a recent decision of the New York Court of Appeals, Allegheny College, Pa. (Methodist), is to receive from $150,000 to $200,000 from the estate of the late Judge

Chamberlain. -The New York Eastern Conference are intending to locate a seminary for both sexes at Stamford, Ct. The brothers Hoyt have given $50,000. Other parties have made it up to $75,000. Sixteen acres of land are given. It is intended to begin as soon as $200,000 are raised.

-The financial exhibit of the Book Concern, New York, as shown by the books at the close of the fiscal year 1870, and pre-sented by the agents at the late meeting of the Book Committee, states that the total assets, East and West, are estimated at $2,701,52556; that the net capital, over all liabilities, is $1,490,324.56; that the net earnings for 1870 were $75,287.72; and that, after paying the Bishops' salaries and other expenses ordered by the General Conference, amounting to $39,741.56, there is left the sum of $35,845.56 to be added to the increase of capital.

BAPTIST.

-On the 5th inst., the Rev. Charles Raymond, a graduate of Queen's College, London, was baptized by the Rev. A. J. Hay, at York, Pa. Mr. Raymond was formerly a Presbyterian.

-In Brooklyn, L. I., during the last five years, Baptists have advanced from the fourth to the second rank among its evangelical churches.

-In 1824 there were in the State of Massachusetts 139 Baptist churches, with a membership of 12,748; there are now 266 churches, or about twice as many as at the former date, and 40,421 members, or between three and four times as many. At the first date the average membership was about 91; it is now about 152.

-According to the English Baptist Hand-Book for 1871, there are at present 2568 Bap-tist churches in Great Britain and Ireland, with 233,675 members, showing a decrease of membership of more than 3810. England has 1910 churches; Wales, 511; Scotland, 110; Ireland, 37. In all there are 1990 Baptist ministers; and of these not less than 436 are with a charge. There are 3093 chapels and 307,159 Sunday-school scholars. Germany has 72 churches and 13,509 members; Sweden, 207 churches and 8120 members; Australasia, 133 churches and 4321 members; Canada, 322 churches and 17,042 members; the United States, 12,011 churches and 1,121,988 members. The total number of Baptist churches throughout the world is 15,879, and of members 1,382,024. -The Watchman and Reflector has the following interesting remarks on the Baptist denomination in Rhode Island:-"Two and a third centuries have elapsed since the foundation of the first churches in the State. The present number of regular or associate Baptist churches is sixty, embracing nearly 16,000 communicants. Of these churches, three were constituted in the seventeenth century, ten in the eighteenth, and fortyseven in the seventy years of the nineteenth century which have already passed. Probably there are half as many of the smaller bodies of Baptists taken together, namely, Sabbatarians, Free-Will, and Six-Principle Baptists, making an aggregate of between ninety and one hundred churches, and 15,000 communicants. Allowing the proportion of adherents to communicants as four to one, we have a total of 75,000 attendants at Baptist places of worship, or more than one-fourth of the whole population of the State."

MORAVIAN. -For several years the Moravians have sustained a mission in Bohemia and Moravia, the ancient seat of the Brethren. As a result of these missionary labors, in October last, at Pottenstein, in the eastern section of Bohemia, in the very midst of that classic ground where the Unitas Fratrum was founded, four hundred and fourteen years ago, twenty-one persons were received as members of the Moravian Church. The congregation will as soon as possible receive a Moravian pastor, tions from the provinces of the Church in Germany, Great Britain, and America. -A writer in the Moravian says:-"When the time arrives when the laity of our Church awake and take part in some of our public exercises, we may consider it as the dawn of a brighter day, that Zion's favored time has who will be supported in part by contribu-

BOMAN CATHOLIC.

-Contrary to reports previously received, the Prussian Government has declared that Roman Catholic bishops have no right to remove and deprive of their salaries those Roman Catholic professors of theology who repudiate the doctrine of infallibility. The bishops will, however, carry their point of suppressing the lectures of these professors, because no student who expects to be ordained will dare to hear lectures in violation of the prohibition of the bishops. -Father Hyacinthe has recently addressed a fervid appeal to the Catholic bishops; "in presence of the woes of his country and his Church." Referring to the Œcumenical Council he says:—"Bishops, respectable by reason of their number, and by their eminence in learning and in the country and in the coun nence in learning and in character, openly and repeatedly complained of all manner of restrictions put upon their liberty, and finally refused to take part in the vote. so," he continues, "we are still free to say, openly, loyally, that we do not accept the late encyclicals and the Syllabus, * * the result of which, if they were to be taken in earnest, would be to produce a settled radical incompatibility between the duties of a faithful Catholic and those of an impartial scholar and a free citizen." With impassioned fervor, the writer entreats the bishops to look "upon the bride of Jesus Christ, the Holy Church, pierced like him with five wounds." The appeal is not likely to be heeded by a single bishop. Then we learn from England that one now in use in Derry Cathedral, Ireland— Bishop Chifford, formerly the most outspoken the gift of a wealthy lady of his congregation of the opponents of infaltibility, has issued a pastoral letter enjoining obedience to the decree of the council.
