MEWS SUMBLARY.

City Affairs. -Jacob Benson (colored) has been committed by Alderman Kerr, on the charge of having burglariously entered the house of

Daniel Fisher, No. 724 Wallace street. -The Finance Committee met last evening. and after considering the appropriation for the support of the public schools, agreed to postpone the subject until Monday next. -Another meeting of the Fire Commissioners was held last evening, but no business of importance was transacted. The committee merely reported progress. -A meeting of the citizens of Frankford was held last evening to protest against the paving of the streets of that place at the expense of the property owners.

—At a meeting of the Board of Trade, held last evening, Mr. Allen presented a report. stating that at the session of the National Board the Constituent Boards were instructed to memorialize the Legislatures of the several States to repeal the laws discriminating against non-resident traders, and to memorialize Congress for the immediate and unconditional abolition of the franking privilege. The report was adopted.

Domestic Affairs. -The Orleans Cotton Exchange was opened yesterday. -The total number of hogs packed at Chicago this season up to date is 886,566 and the packers are still at work.

-General Halpine, another liberated Fenian prisoner, arrived yesterday at Boston, in the steamer Siberia.

-The news that the Tennessee is safe caused great rejoicings yesterday throughout the entire breadth of the land. -In the Virginia House of Assembly yesterday the bill incorporating the Washington and Richmond Railway Company was passed. -Senator Sumner was not so well last evening, and his friends were very much alarmed. It is said he cannot resume his seat this session.

-General reports throughout Illinois are that the prospects of the wheat crop of that State were never better at this season of the year than now. -A bill was introduced into the New Jersey Legislature yesterday, to repeal the act allowing the Camden and Amboy, New Jersey and other railroads to consolidate their stock and lease to other roads. Much other railway legislation was put forward in the same body.

Foreign Affairs. -The Bonapartists are agitating for a plebiscitum.

-Bismarck will soon recognize the Republie of France. -Thiers and Favre have gone to Versailles to settle terms with Bismarck. -The exchange of prisoners of war will soon take place between the French and the Germans.

-The payment of the war contributions levied in some of the departments of France has been deferred.

-Germany is resolved to continue the war if compensation for the past and guarantees for the future are not given.

-Fears are still entertained that demonstrations may be made upon Emperor William, Bismarck, and other Germans high in authority if the conquering army enters Paris. -In the British House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Gladstone, in reply to an inquiry, denied that Her Majesty's Government had received any proposals for the purchase of the British dominions in North America.

DOGBERRY OUTDONE.

Amusing Scene in a St. Louis Police Court. The Missouri Republican of Friday last says:—
The office of C. F. Walther, Justice of the Peace, was crowded yesterday afternoon by a throng of lawyers, policemen, clerks, and others, desirous of hearing a peace-warrant case tried, in which Mr. Charles P. Johnson, Circuit Attorney, was defendant, and Mr. M. D. C. Luby, attorney, the affiant. Mr. Voullaire defended Luby prosecuted. Defendant was charged with having threatened to do Mr. Luby great bodily injury.

The examination lasted two or three hours, and the proceedings were occasionally uproarions as well as comical.

Luby, seeing Mr. Alexander McKee and his dog, had the former sworn as a witness.

Luby-Mr. McKee, will you please state what occurred between Mr. Johnson and myself on Satur-

McKee-No, sir.

Luby-Why not? McKee-Because I wasn't there. Luby-That will do. Captain Kerone was sworn. Luby-Were you present? Kerone-I was.

Luby-Did you see Mr. Johnson raise his cane Luby-Did you hear him call Judge Primm a mur-

Kerone-Nary time. Luby—Did you see him throw himself into an atti-tude of corporal chastisement? Kerone—There was no corporal there of that ame. (Laughter.)

The farce went on for more than an hour, the

at the Dogberrian blunders of the attorney.

At length an old lawyer suggested to Luby to ask Kerone if Johnson did not shake his finger at him.

Kerone—Yes, I believe he did shake his finger at you, this way.

Luby—That fixes_it. That will do. (Convulsive laughter.)

Judge Primm was examined for the defense, and stated that Mr. Johnson was one of the mildest and best-tempered men he had ever known; didn't be-lieve he would hurt a dea unless it bit him pretty

The testimony being closed, and the defense declining to make a speech, Mr. Luby read to the jury a paper which he had prepared for an argument. It gave an account of the difficulty, colored by a distorted imagination, and stated that "if the jury falled to give him redress, a revolver would."

Mr. Voullaire interrupted the orator and asked him if he carried a revolver.

Mr. Luby said he never carried a revolver, and

Mr. Luby said he never carried a revolver, and went on reading his speech.

The jury immediately brought in a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged amidst considerable enthusiasm and much mer-

The whole trial was a perfect farce, and showed with what impunity the 'majesty of the law" can be trifled with by one clothed in the livery of the legal profession.
