A FEW MORE YEARS. A few more years shall roll, A few more seasons come, And we shall be with those that rest Asleep within the tomb.

A few more suns shall set O'er these dark hills of time, And we shall be where suns are not-A far serener clime.

A few more storms shall beat On this wild rocky shore, And we shall be where tempests cease, And surges swell no more.

A few more struggles here, A few more partings o'er, A few more toils, a few more tears, And we shall weep no more.

A few more Sabbaths here Shall cheer us on our way, And we shall reach the endless rest, The eternal Sabbath Day. Then, O my Lord, prepare

My soul for that great day; Oh! wash me in Thy precious blood, And take my sins away.

PRAYING AND PREACHING.

Few things appear less reasonable than the words which have been wasted to show that praying is more important than preaching. We certainly should consider the fruit, in itself, more valuable than the abor which produces it. Yet the importance of the labor will be in proportion to the value of the fruit. Men may plant and water, but God giveth the increase; and the question is, whether He will give it if the husbandman neglect to labor. The labor may be unsuccessful, for the Lord may withhold the increase; generally, the labor, if wise and faithful, will be blessed. So when the spiritual sower casts forth the seed of God's word, some of it, as Christ says, may fall by the wayside, and some on stony ground, and some among thorns; yet some will fall on good ground, and bring forth abundant fruit.

Suppose, then, a thousand souls, for several years, hear the preaching of a faithful minister of Christ; if one hundred of them are truly converted to God, then a hundred praying people are the fruit of one man's preaching; and they will not only pray, not only "call Him Lord;" but becomes "doers of the word," fruitful in all good works. But, had be neglected to preach, and spent all his religious hours in praying, would that fruit have been produced? "How shall they call on Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?" Lesides, no men pray less, but more in consequence of preaching. This is the ordinance which God in His wisdom hath ordained for gathering mankind into the fold of His Church; and the gathering will not come without the use of the ordinance.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

-The celebrated appeal case of Shepherd vs. Bennett, in which the 'legality of the doctrine of the real presence" in the Church of England is involved, has been again postponed till the next sitting of the Judicial Committee. The deferring of it is ascribed to the severe indisposition of one of the leadcounsel. The Rev. Mr. Bennett, when preaching in one of the Lambeth ritualistic churches last week, referred to the case. He said he would adopt no course which would compel a man to utter blasphemy in a high judicial position, thus making him run the risk of losing his soul; but, on the contrary, he would remain silent, and leave the rest to God, praying for his persecutors. What he had received from God, he would never give up for man. The Rev. J. M. Rodwell continues to make the doctrine of the "real presence" the theme of his discourses in St. Ethelberga Church.

-The controversy still proceeds in Ire-land as to the title of the Disestablished Church. The Representative Body's legal committee, in a report which they have prepared, contend that the proper designation is "Church of Ireland," and not "Protestant Episcopal Church of Ireland."

-An organ of the High Church party states that in several London churches, should the royal marriage take place in Lent, there will be a special penitential office at the same hour. The subject is evidently occasioning a little unessiness in High Church circles.

Some of the English bishops threaten to withdraw their patronage from the Church Missionary Society. The organ of the Low Church party says the course which that society has pursued in relation to the Madagascar Bishopric affair has been regarded as a deliberate repudiation of the principle of Episcopacy, and fraternization with the sects.

-The Rev. Elisha Whittlesey, late pastor of the Second Congregational Church at Waterbury, Conn., has become a candidate for priest's order in the Episcopal Church.

—The Rev. R. A. Holland, late associate editor of the Baltimore Christian Advocate

(Methodist), has become a candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church. -St. Mary's Church, Memphis, has been placed in the hands of Bishop Quintard as his cathedral. It is being enlarged by the addition of two aisles, and will be ready for occupation in four or five weeks. -Calvary, Memphis, has a large congregation, and needs a new church edifice. -The Pastoral Aid Society connected with the Church of the Holy Trinity, N. Y., Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., Pastor, in its fifth annual report, states that its receipts for the year amounted to $13,472.32, of which $13,239.71 have been expended in the various works of the society. Those "works" are three churches, three chapels, and one mission station, together with a Dorcas Society, a Young Ladies' Sewing Society, an Industrial Sewing School, and various committees to aid the poor and the suffering, and to give them Christian instruction.

CONGREGATIONALIST.

-The Rev. G. H. Coffey, formerly pastor of the First Church of Jackson, Michigan, is practising law in New York city; while the Rev. E. W. Borden, formerly pastor of the church at Clio, is now in business in that -The Congregational Benevolent Societies having offices in New York city are looking for a suitable building for their own work, so as to be together under one roof.

-The revival at Bristol, New Hampshire, is considered something marvellous. A correspondent says it began on the first of January, when fourteen young ladies were re-ceived into the Congregational church. First Christians began to pray and labor; then the young became interested, then older people, till all classes were reached. The pastor writes:-"Every merchant, every doctor, the lawyer, the hotel-keeper, every rumseller, every drunkard but two, every business man in the place but two, are rejoicing in Christ.

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN. coming together to ask for prayers." At present upwards of four hundred have been converted.

The Eastern Congregational Church of Montreal was organized lately with about forty members transferred from Zion Church. The movement originated in the labors of a Bible woman in the neighborhood, followed by a regged school.

—The Oakland Congregational Church building, situated on the Lake Shore, about five miles sonth of Chicago, was completely demolished by a storm of wind and snow on Friday night, the 17th inst.

PRESBYTERIAN. -The Presbytery of the Church of Scotland had an interesting discussion on Mr. Gladstone's letter about the Pope. A resolution was finally carried, by fourteen to seven, that the Prime Minister's explanation to Mr. Kinnaird was such as to warrant the Presbytery in believing that he contemplated no action inconsistent with the Protestantism of the country. A singular feature in the debate was a statement made by the Rev. Dr. Wal-lace, the successor of the late Dr. Robert Lee, and belonging to what may be called the Broad School, to the effect that he could see no objection to the English Government paying a handsome subscription to the stipend of the Pope if he should lapse into poverty. "The theological professors connected with the various Presbyterian denominations in Scotland-Established and non-Establishedbave just united in sending to Dr. Tholuck, of Halle, on occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his professorate, a most genial and cordial address, in which they express their gratitude to God for the eminent services which he has been the means of rendering to theological learning and to the great cardinal principles of evangelical religion at a critical period in the history of the Church of Christ in Germany, and also for the essential services which he has rendered to our common faith, not only in his own country, but on every field of international associa-tion and intercourse.

—The Presbyterian churches of Scotland

are greatly distracted on the question of union. Eight of the Free Presbyteries have decided in favor of it, while the opposite party are doing all they can to hinder the movement, and have adopted resolutions to the effect that "the union cannot at present be accomplished without the compromise and surrender of truths which the Free Church has hitherto held to be vital."

BAPTIST. -Mr. Spurgeon, in the February Sword and Trowel, remarks: - "We have been called to account in several papers for calling the Church of England 'an apostate Church.' We marvel that her best friends do not sorrowfully confess that there is all too much ground for the charge. What hope is there of a people who are so blinded as not to see their faults? To say that there are some dissenting churches which are apostate is not to better the case, but to mention another cause for sorrow.

-The Baptists of Iowa are an enterprising class, and are keeping pace with the growth of the State. Recent reports show that they have 18 associations, 340 churches, 188 pastors, about 19,750 members, and 158 meeting-

-The Rev. Jacob Legare, colored, pastor of Morris Street Colored Church, Charleston, South Carolina, has baptized over 1400 persons since the war, and maintains good discipline in a membership of 1750.

-The four Baptist churches of Albany have built four mission chapels during the past year, where they have large and interesting Sabbath-schools

-From the "Minutes of the Thirty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Missouri Baptist General Association" we gather the following statistics; -51 associations; 1052 churches; total membership, 62,211; net gain during the year, 4402. The association has 38 missienaries in the State, who have organized 22 Sabbath-schools, 26 churches, baptized 790 persons, and collected on the field

The Baptist Social Union of Brooklyn have determined to purchase the Pierrepont Baptist Church, with the adjoining lot of ground, at a cost of $75,000. Instead of the church now standing they propose to erect a free temple, similar to the Tremont in Boston, capable of holding four thousand people. To complete the undertaking $150,000 will be required.

METHODIST.

-Within ten months the Methodists of the State of New York have raised half a million of dollars to found a university at Syracuse. The erection of buildings will be commenced immediately.

—Rev. W. H. Miles and Rev. R. H. Vanderhorst, colored ministers in the Methodist Episcopal Church, were recently ordained as Bishops. -Within ten months the Methodists of the State of New York have raised half a million of dollars to found a university at Syracuse. The following statement thows the condition of the two Methodist Book Concerns, the New York and the Western, up to Nov. 1870; Real estate, $1,201,679 99; merchandise. $852,084 56; cash on hand, $30,258 15; notes and accounts, $617.502.68; total assets, $2,701,525.56. Liabilities:—Notes and accounts, $1,207,205; earnings, $75,287.12; paid by order of General Conference, $30,-541 56. Nat capital, $1,494,320 56; increase of capital, $35,745.56.

DIAMONDS IN GEORGIA.

Reported Discovery of Brilliants Superior to The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist is authority for the subjoined story about the discovery and use of diamonds in that State: -"It would seem that here in Georgia men in elined to hunt diamonds may find a field for their energy. Dr. Stephenson, of Hall county, says that about forty diamonds have been found in Hall county alone, but the most valuable have been destroyed or lost through ignorance of their character or value. Some negroes broke one worth $100,000 to see what it A farmer describes one which was given him thirty years ago, and used by himself as a child, and his boys subsequently, for a middle-man in marbles, but it was lost about the place six months ago, and they are hunting for it now. Nothing was known about its value until similar stones were pronounced to be diauntil similar stones were pronounced to be du-monds, and then the farmer knew that he and his boys had been playing marbles with a dia-mond which, from description, the Doctor thinks must be worth half a million dollars, and be one of the most valuable zems in the world. The Doctor says that labor and capital only are The Doctor says that labor and capital only are needed to prove that these diamond fields in Georgia surpass in value those of Brazil, and are equal to any in the world. These home diamonds, it is confidently asserted, are of far finer water than any that have hitherto been found in the South African Diamond Valley."

-The proposition to place on the Andrew statue his familiar assertion that he never was mean enough to despise any man because he was poor, because he was ignorant, or because he was black, is disapproved by the Boston Advertiser, as it seems calculated to suggest to all not knowing the circumstances under which Whole tamilies again and again were seen listic of the man.

Front and Interior view of FULLER'S AERATED BREAD & CRACKER BAKERY, 16 S. 18th Street, Phila.

WHAT KIND OF BREAD IS THE BEST?

Aerated Bread is the Purest, Healthiest, Sweetest, Cleanest, Most Mutritious, and Cheapest Ever Made.

READ THE PROOF.

The sample of Aerated Bread submitted to me has been subjected to careful analysis, and I find it free from all traces of any deleterious substances or impurity, is perfectly light, pleasant to the taste, free from all acidity, and easy of digestion. The fact that it is made without yeast renders it better fitted for dyspeptic stomachs than bread made in the ordinary way. The great care taken in maintaining perfect cleanliness during the manufacture, the dough not being allowed to come in contact with the workmen's hands even for a moment, should satisfy the most fastidious. For obvious hygienic reasons, in its influence on the public health it is beyond doubt the best of all forms WM. E. A. AIKIN, Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy, University of Maryland.

Professor George Hadly, M. D., of Buffalo Medical College, speaking of Aerated Bread, says:—"I have used it constantly in my family for several years, and regard it as in all respects the best and most wholesome bread ever made The celebrated Dr. Alcott, in his lectures on Life and Health, says: - "Neither leaven nor yeast ought ever to have been known. They are a filthy concern; besides, fermented bread is a semi-putrid bread; that is, it has advanced one step on the highway to Putrefaction. In fermentation, a portion of the saccharine matter, the life or vitality of the bread, is lost. There is from 7 to 10 per cent. more nutrition in the same weight, by chemical test."

Bread furnished for charitable purposes at a low price. CAKES and CRACKERS, the best in the city. Extra liberal discount to country trade. Sold by all grocers throughout the city.
