COUNTY PRISON.

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE IN-SPECTORS-COMMITMENTS DURING 1870 -A REFORM ADVOCATED IN THE POLICE MAGIS-TRACY-INCREASED ACCOMMODATIONS RE-QUIRED -SANITARY CONDITION OF THE PRISON-EXPENSES DURING THE YEAR.

The Philadelphia County Prison is at present in an excellent condition and well managed. Its discipline has never been so perfect, and, taken altogether, it cannot be excelled by any similar establishment in the country.

We have received advance copies of the Twenty-fourth Annual Report of the Inspectors, made to the Legislature, for the year ending on the 31st of December, showing the number of prisoners committed to the prison during the year, distinguishing the convicts, the prisoners for trial, witnesses, and other persons committed, and the offenses of which they have been convicted, or discharged, and other causes of commitment, etc. This is done by act of Assembly of February 27, 1847. From this report the following interesting information is obtained:-

During the year just closed

THE NUMBER OF COMMITMENTS was 15,288, a marked decrease from those of 1869, which reached 18,305, and presenting also a striking diminution of numbers, upon a comparison of the annual returns for the last five years. The commitments for 1868 were 17,620; for 1867, 18,575; for 1866, 19,468. General deductions, from variations in the annual exhibit of the prison for a short period, are hardly warranted. The decrease in the commitments for the past year may, however, be received as an acceptable fact, and when compared with the number ten years ago, in 1860 (the year preceding the war, when they reached 20,801), must be considered as significant.

The commitments for the past year were about equally distributed, having been from January 1, 7446; from July 1 to December 31, 7842. Of the whole number there were:— Black males, 1000, against 1233 for 1869, 979 for 1868, and 1025 for 1867; black females, against 574 for 1869, 494 for 1868, and 570 for 1867. There were white males, 16,502, against 12,228 for 1869, 12,096 for 1868, 12,861 for 1867, and 13,053 for 1866; white females, 3339, against 4220 for 1869, 4051 for 1868, and 4619 for 1867. About the

COMMITMENTS FOR INTEMPERANCE is noticeable for the past year. Thus, there were for intoxication, 3983, against 3546 for 1869, and 2025 for 1868; for vagrancy, 1377, against 1248 for 1869, and 1093 for 1868; for usual proportion of assault and battery, 1376, against 1687 for 1869, and 1462 for 1868; for disorderly conduct and breach of the peace, 5398, against 7360 for 1869, and 8132 for 1868; for assault with intent to kill, 132, against 146 for 1869, and 121 for 1868. Thus, of the entire number of commitments, 15,288, about fourfifths, or 12,266, are traceable to intempe-

PERSONS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL,

11,300, were discharged by the committing magistrates, 7099, and ignored by the Grand Jury, 431. Thus, as usual, about two-thirds of the whole number of persons committed to the prison for trial were discharged without being tried, or, as it is termed, settled their cases with the committing magistrates. The presumption cannot be avoided that a large proportion of these commitments was for trivial or unnecessary causes, and makes up a great aggregate of oppression and persecution. The board express the opinion of the necessity of a reform in the police magistracy of Philadelphia, and, in view of the proposed convention to reform the State Constitution, it would invoke the aid of all good citizens to secure the necessary change in our organic law for this purpose.

The great and foremost evil in the criminal department of Philadelphia is the system of police magistracy, and no reform is so much needed as a change, at least in the mode of compensation of our committing magistrates So long as their receipts are directly dependent upon and swollen by what must be stated to be simply a traffic in the manipulation of petty crime, it is idle to anticipate radical improvement in the treatment of this class of criminals. It is difficult to believe that such a system of magistracy can be tolerated in a city like Philadelphia, and that her citizens can sit quietly under so great a reproach. If our police magistrates were removed from the sphere of politics, by a change in the mode of selection; if they held their offices by a goodbehavior tenure; were required to be learned in the law; and were compensated by adequate, fixed salaries, in place of fees, a reform would be accomplished the effects of which upon social improvement can scarcely be

THE EXTENSION OF THE PRISON.

During the past year the initial steps for the erection of a House of Correction have been taken by the City Councils. But a House of Correction, however desirable, will not relieve the overcrowded condition of the convict blocks in the male department of the

For several years past, the "separate system" has been practically abandoned in the male department of the prison, and a fearful increase of moral corruption must result from the congregation of two, three, and even more convicts in a single cell. The improved character of the female department, since the addition of the old "debtors' apartment" to this side of the prison, gives evidence of the good effects of ample accommodation, and of the order, propriety, discipline, and moral amelioration which increased space and separate confinement secure. Until the capabili-ties of the prison shall be brought up to the requirements of the law, the male convict department must remain an exception to the system to which we have so long pointed with pride as the "Pennsylvania system." In July, 1870, the board memorialized Councils upon the subject of the extension of the prison, and represented to that body at length the evil effects which were caused by the deficient accommodation in the mule department. The injurious consequences to the health of the prisoners, the deteriorating influence upon their moral character (all the inmates of a cell being soon brought to the moral level of the werst prisoner), the furtherence of schemes for escape and future crime, and the obstacles to reformatory attempts, which were the direct and necessary results of the overcrowding of the convict blocks, were dwelt upon earnestly and in detail. The conviction is strongly entertained that the immediate expenditure for this object will prove in the end a real economy in the diminution of crime which will result.

least, points in this direction. On the 31st of December, 1870, five prisoners were in confinement

UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH. as follows:-Edward J. Ford, sentenced May 3, 1851, for the murder of Oliver Cook; Jeremish Dixey, sentenced May 31, 1862, for the murder of Peter Miller; Patrick Farrigan, sentenced February 9, 1863, for the murder of Peter Williamson; Alfred Alexander, sen tenced July 3, 1868, for the murder of Phillis Proctor; and John Hanlon, sentenced December 8, 1870, for the murder of Mary Mohr man. The four first named have been indefinitely respited. Newton Champion, a prisoner under sentence of death, and respited on the ground of insanity, died in the prison on the 3d of July. During the year the HEALTH OF THE PRISON was, in general, very good. In the untried department 39 deaths occurred out of 15,288 commitments, viz.:-From debauchery, 11 heart disease, 1; mania-a-potu, 23; congestiou of the brain, 2; consumption, 1; convulsions, 1. In the convict department 11 deaths occurred, a ratio of 1.25 per hundred, and a diminution both in actual number of deaths and in the ratio of mortality as compared with last year. Of these 7 were from consumption, 2 from fevers, 1 from scrofula, and 1 from debility; 5 white males, 1 white female, 5 black males, all of whom were in bad health when admitted into prison. 5 cases of insanity occurred; 3 were insane when convicted, and 2 became insane after conviction. Of these the sentences of two have expired and three remain in the prison. The epidemic of relapsing fever, which prevailed in Philadelphia during the past year, made its way into the prison with the stream of vagrants which is unceasingly pouring within our walls. Eighteen occurred in the months of March, April, May, and June, all in the untried department, and with no fatal termination. Whenever possible, the cases were removed to the Almshouse. The expenses of the prison for 1870 were $102,680.08 against $105,925.12 for 1869. The profits of the shoe manufactory were $2534.24. The amount received from the United States Marshal for the support of United States prisoners was $791'20. The estimated value of provisions, dry goods, coal, etc., on hand is $14,970 02. The return to the City Treasurer of receipts from the manufacturing department was $23,000.

CITY COUNCILS.

Their Proceedings of Yesterday. Select Branch,-President Cattell in the chair.

The Mayor sent in a message in reference to the commission bills before the Legislature, criticising it, and asking that Councils take vigorous steps towards their defeat. Mr. King offered a long preamble and the following resolution: -Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the city of Philadelphia, That a joint special commission of five members from each chamber be appointed, for the purpose of acting in conjunction with committees of citizens, in maturing arrangements for the convening of the people of this city, without distinction of party, to obtain an expression of the people upon the subject of said acts, and to take such other action as may be deemed necessary to avert the frightful public calamity which the passage of said acts will inflict upon this entire community.

Mr. Cochran offered a resolution withdrawing a previous motion to refer, and instructing the Committee on Legislation to proceed directly to Harrisburg, and by all honorable means to secure the defeat of the commission

Mr. Littleton moved to postpone both resolutions, and take up the Common Council resolution relative to the same subject, which was agreed to.

The resolutions offered by Messrs, Cochran and King were then taken up and indefinitely postponed.

A communication from the Fire Commissioners submitted the appointment of William H. Johnson as Chief Engineer of the Fire Department. Mr. T. J. Smith moved to refer the communication to the Committee on Fire. Agreed to by 11 yeas to 10 nays. Mr. Hanna offered in place an ordinance authorizing the paving of Market street, from Front to Third street, with Belgian blocks. Referred to the Committee on High-Mr. G. A. Smith, chairman of the special committee on League Island, stated that Congress had made an appropriation of $200,000 for the improvement of this island, and that it regarded this sum as a pledge that the Government did not intend to repudiate its acceptance of this site for a naval station; and further, that thanks are due to our representatives for securing an appropriation for the improvement of this island, against the determined and persistent opposition of those who favored rival and less meritorious locations. The report closed with a resolution asking the discharge of the committee, and this was adopted. Mr. Smith also offered resolutions tendering the thanks of Councils to our Representatives and Senators in Congress, and to Hon. Alexander G. Cattell, Senator from New Jersey, for their efforts in securing the appropriation of $200,060. They were adopted.

Mr. Shermer offered a resolution of request to the effect that the President of Select Council appoint a committee of five members to investigate the alleged charges against a member of the Public Building Commission, who is said to have bought up votes in Select Council to secure the defeat of the Mayor's veto of the special tax bill.

The resolution was adopted, and Messrs. Shermer, Coohran, Shoemaker, Fareira and T. J. Smith were the committee named. The Mayor's message, vetoing the bill for the improvement of the meadow lands, was then read.

On the question "Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?" the vote was-yeas 19, nays 9, and the bill becomes a law. Common Branch .- President Huhn in the

A communication from the Mayor was received relative to the bills now before the Legislature creating commissions to take charge of the Water Works, Highways, and

Police Department. Mr. Buzby offered a series of resolutions denouncing the appointment of the commis-sions as a virtual disfranchisement of the citizens and Councils, and providing for the appointment of a special committee of fire members from each Chamber to make arrangements for a town meeting in opposition to the measure. Passed. Messrs. Buzby, Charlton, Schaffer, Mitchell, and G. W. Nichols were appointed the committee for Common Council.

Another message was received from the Mayor vetoing the ordinance for the improvement of the meadow lands; not that he opposed such an improvement, on the con-

of the bill's imperfections,

of the bill's imperfections.

The bill was passed over the Mayor's veto by the following vote—yeas, 46; nays, 12.

Mr. Glenn called up the bill making an additional appropriation of $174,565 to the Department of Schools for the year 1871.

The bill was slightly amended, and then passed.

Mr. Young offered an ordinance that on and after April 1, no meats shall be offere l for sale along the curbstone markets, against sny house, or in any alleyway, in less quantity than a quarter of the animal, under a penalty of $5. Passed.

Mr. Calhoun offered an ordinance making an appropriation of $1000 to pay the reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Mary Mohrman. Referred to the Committee on Finance. The resolution of Select Council thanking the members of Congress for their efforts to secure the appropriation for the improvement of League Island, was agreed to. Adjourned.
