The Master came one evening to the gate Of a far city; it was growing late, And sending his disciples to buy food, He wandered forth intent on doing good, As was his wont. And in the market-place He saw a crowd, close gathered in one space. Gazing with eager eyes upon the ground. Jesus drew nearer, and thereon He found A noisome creature, a bedraggled wreck-A dead dog with a halter round his neck. And these who stood by mocked the object

And one said, scoffing, "It pollutes the air!" Another jeering, asked, "How long to-night Shall such a miscreant cur offend our sight?" "Look at his torn side," sneered a Jewish wit, "You could not even cut a shoe from it," And turned away. "Behold his ears that bleed,

A fourth chimed in, "an unclean wretch in-"He hath been hanged for thieving," they all

And spurned the loathsome beast from side to side. Then Jesus, standing by them in the street,

Looked at the poor spent creature at his feet, And, bending o'er him, spake unto the men; "Pearls are not whiter than his teeth." And then

The people at each other gazed, asking, "Who is this stranger pitying the evil thing?" Then one exclaimed, with awe-abated breath, "This surely is the Man of Nazareth; This must be Jesus, for none else but He Something to praise in a dead dog could sea!" And being ashamed, each scoffer bowed his And from the sight of Jesus turned and fled.

HAPPINESS IN DEATH.

The Rev. William Jay, in a sermon on the requisites for a happy death, says:—

'It requires that you should obtain and preserve the evidences of pardon; without these you cannot be fearless and tranquil in the near views of eternity, since 'after death is the judgment.' It requires you to keep a conscience void of offense towards God and towards man. Is he in a condition to die who has lived in the practice of some known sin, and in the omission of some known duty? Is he in a condition to die who has worn the mask of hypocsisy, which will now drop off and expose him in his true character? Is he in a condition to die who, by artifice, unfair dealing, grinding the faces of the poor, has amassed gain which will dishonor him if restored, and damn him if retained? It requires us to live in the exercise of brotherly kindness and charity. Of all we do for Him, nothing pleases Him more than this; this we know He will acknowledge in the day of judgment, and why not in the day of death? 'Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble." 'The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing; Thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.' Many are praying for him; the widows and the fatherless cry, and their cry entereth 'the ears of the Lord of Sab-

"It requires an attention to religion in your families. I pity that father who will be surrounded, when he dies, with children whose minds he never informed, whose dispositions he never curbed, whose manners he never guarded; who sees one an infidel, another a | church, which cost $29,500, it was largely profligate, and all irreligious. I know that you are not answerable for the conversion of your offspring, but you are responsible for the use of all proper means. And if these have been neglected, you will plant your dying pillow with thorns; whereas, if you have seriously and perseveringly attended to them, your dying repose shall not be disturbed by want of success; but you shall be able to say, 'Although my house be not so with God, yet hath he made me an everlasting covenant. ordered in all things and sure; for this is all my salvation and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

"Through the mercy of God, and the grace of His dear Son, may we be enabled to live in the discharge of duty, that our 'dying beds shall feel soft as downy pillows are.' Amen.'

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

-Joseph A. Dugdale, a preacher among the Hicksite (Unitarian) Friends, whose winning mile has been the "open sesame" which, al hrough his long and useful life, has admitted him to places usually inaccessible, has been invited, recently, to preach in the Episcopal church at Mount Pleasant, Iowa. The Rev. Dr. Cooper, the rector, after Friend Dugdale closed, made an appeal "in behalf of the broadest liberality and the utmost toleration among Christian denominations." -The next General Convention of the Episcopal Church will be memorialized concerning the repeal of the Church canons forbidding the officiating of ministers of other denominations in Episcopal pulpits, and requiring the use of the Book of Common Prayer before all sermons and lectures. The "Muhlenburg Memorial" will also be presented, praying for liberty on the part of ministers to omit "such words, expressions, or passages" in the service as may, in his judgment, contradict his ordination vow "to teach nothing as necessary to salvation but that which he is persuaded may be concluded and proved by Scripture."

-At Baltimore, Md., the United Presbyterian Church of which the Rev. William Bruce is pastor, has just completed the first year of an experiment to abolish all pew rents, and depend entirely upon weekly contributions for the means of meeting current expenses. The trial year has resulted well, and a surplus of about two hundred dollars is in the treasury. -So decided in his temperance opinions is the Rev. Mr. Cooper, Presbyterian pastor of McConnellsville, Pa., that when the subscription books for his support were opened he instructed the deacons as follows:-To receive no money on subscriptions from families any part of whose income is derived from the sale of intoxicating liquors; to mark all such subscriptions as paid, and charge the same to his account; and if the amount allowed him as salary could not be raised from other sources, the salary might be reduced just as much as the subscriptions from these doubtful sources amounted to.

-The First Church, Memphis, on the first Sabbath of the new year, received twentynine persons on profession of their faith, and nine by letter.

—The Norfolk Journal mentions that on a late Sabbath thirty-eight persons were repeived as members of the Presbyterian church of Norfolk, Va., Dr. Armstrong's, A few only of these were upon dismission from other

-There is a rumor that a church of the Presbyterian Church South will shortly be formed in New York, and Dr. Palmer, of New Orleans, called to the pastorate.

—The Associate Reformed Presbyterian explains the decline in that Church by the fol-

OUR BELIGIOUS COLUMN. | lowing statement:-"The want of increase | divided into numerous sects. The original since 1852 has been owing to two causes, viz.: deaths, and a change of relation—principally the latter. Since 1842, 17 of our ministers have died. During the same period 26 have left us to join other churches; 22 have connected with the Old School Presbyterians, and 4 have joined the United Presbyterians North.

-The Northwestern Seminary at Chicago has thirty-eight students, one of whom received his collegiate education in Norway, one in the Netherlands, two in Ireland, three in Canada, and the remainder in above twenty different institutions in this country.

CONGREGATIONAL. -Mr. Frederick Marquand, of Southport, Ct., has offered to erect, at his own expense, a chapel for the Yale Theological School. The estimated cost is not far from $22,000. The building will be large enough for the religious meetings of the college and for use for special lectures. It is to be completed in Sep-

-The Female Cent Society of New Hampshire is a valuable auxiliary to home missionary enterprises. During the sixty-five years of its existence it has collected $74,829. It has a memorial fund of $3000. In 1805, its first year, $500 was raised; in 1870, $2500all by contributions of one cent a week from each of its members. -A conference of the Congregational churches of New York and Brooklyn was held at the Church of the Pilgrims, in Brooklyn, Wednesday, March 8. The question, "What is the best means of promoting the highest spirituality among Christians?" was discussed by the Rev. Mr. Beecher, Rev. Dr. Palmer, Rev. Messrs. Janes, Brown, and Everest, and

Rev. Dr. Thompson. -The missionary brig Morning Star, which recently sailed from Boston for the South Sea Islands, meeting rough weather, has been compelled to return from Provincetown to Boston and reload, there being too much ballast on board. -The receipts of the American Board for January were $34,489, which is a falling off of $17,905 from those of the same month last year; and for the six months ending January 31, the receipts show a falling off of $17,927. -The Rev. Jacob Totka, a minister of the German Reformed Church, has been received as a candidate for orders in Minnesota, and the Rev. Joseph T. Hillmar, late pastor of the Roman Catholic congregations at St. Anthony and Minneapolis, Minnesota, has been received into the communion of the Episcopal Church.

-Bishop Coxe, of Buffalo, has just opened anew Episcopal Church in l'onawanda, N. Y. It cost about $4500, nearly the whole of which sum was donated by Mr. Sherman, of -Bishop Henry Whitehouse, of the Epis-copal Diocese of Illinois, has lately given ordination to a young Swede, Rev. Mr. Almqvist, from Gotheborg, Sweden. He is now labor-ing in Michigan. The efforts of this Church to absorb Scandinavian Lutherans have signally failed of late.

BAPTIST.

-A new Baptist church was dedicated on March 8 at Hunter's Point, the new city which has grown up within a few years at the eastern terminus of the Long Island Railroad. The sermon was by the Rev. Dr. Everts, of Chicago. The congregation was organized in 1869, with nine members. In building the aided by Mr. Horace Waters; the wife of Mr. Waters furnished the baptistery.

-Emanuel Baptist church, at Albany, has just been completed. It takes the place of Pearl street Baptist church, where Dr. B. T. Welch had his long and fruitful ministry, and is now under the care of Rev. Dr. Bridgman. It is situated on State street, above the new Capitol. It will afford sittings for one thousand persons.

-The new Michigan avenue Baptist church, Chicago, has adopted a plan for renting its sittings which presents some good features. Any number of sittings may be rented, from a single sitting to a whole pew, for any period, however short, at a uniform rate throughout the house of $1.25 for each sitting. The preference in the choice of paws is given to those who will pay the rents of the greatest number of seats. The surplus from such extra rentals is to be laid aside to assist those who cannot pay a full rental.

-A correspondent of the Watchman and Reflector has thought what a beneficent and fruitful mission a Christian minister would accomplish if he could go with supplies to the different missionary stations in France, distribute aid to the suffering, comfort them in their affliction, and preach the Gospel of salvation. He could reach at the same time thousands of Romanists, who would welcome such a man as an augel from heaven. He thinks that the French people, believing that their sufferings are a chastisement from the Almighty, will be in a favorable mood to receive such teachings.

PRESBYTERIAN. -The Committees of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian Churches, appointed to consider the question of a union of the two branches, met in Pittsburg during the week, and organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Dickson, of New York, chairman, and of the Rev. W. J. Reid, of Pittsburg, secretary.

-The Occident gives a favorable report of the Presbyterian mission to the Chinese in California. It was strengthened by the accession of the Rev. I. M. Condit in June. Having labored at a similar work in Canton, he was able at once to enter into all the work of the mission, as a preacher to the Chinese in their own language. The various departments of the work have been prosecuted during the past as in former years, except that, owing to the great falling off in the immigration, there has been less call for the visiting and preaching to the newly arrived strangers which has heretofore been a prominent feature of the work. During the year two of the members of the church returned to China, where they are employed as colporteurs a portion of the time, the other portion being devoted to study, with a view to preparation for greater usefulness.

-The subscriptions to the Memorial Fund thus far are estimated at $4,000,000, of which $800,600 to $900,000 have been subscribed to educational institutions, about $75,000 being to enterprises on the foreign mission field; above $1,000,000 are for new churches, $1,000,000 to the payment of church debts, and $1,000,000 for parsonages, repairs, hospitals, and publication buildings, The Rev. Gardner Spring, now eighty-six years old, has recently expressed to the chairman of the Memorial Committee his joy in view of the successful progress of the work.

-F.W. Marquand, Esq., who offers $25,000 for the new chapel of Yale Theological Seminary, is a deacon in the Congregational Church at Southport, Connecticut, and this is but one of his many noble deeds. -The Presbyterian Church in Plover, Wisconsin, has unanimously voted itself Congregational. -The Methodists of Great Britain fare body call themselves "Wesleyans." Methodist New Connection" differ from them on questions of government, and the Primitive Methodists on evangelistic measures. Beside these there are the Methodist Association and the "United Methodist Free

-The Wesleyan missionaries in South Africa find a new field of labor among the multitudes who are flocking to the newly discovered dismond-mines on the banks of the River Vaal.

-Drew Seminary, Madison, N. J., has received a bequest of $100,000 from the late Abel Minard, of Morristown, to aid in giving a ministerial education to indigent young

-A remarkable work is reported in progress in the Methodist Mission at Lucknow, India. About 50 conversions have taken place in two weeks, about half of them being natives.

-The endowment of $400,000 for the proposed Syracuse University has been subscribed. The city is to add $100,000 more, and then there will be nothing in the way of a speedy commencement of the work, and its steady advancement to completion.

-The death of James Osgood Andrew, senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, took place at Mobile on the 2d inst.

-The Rev. Dr. Luther E. Albert asks the following pointed question in the Lutheran

"Would it not be well to give up, at least for a season, our disputes about our differences, and lend our entire energy towards the extension of Christ's kingdom throughout the world? The diversions might be more favorable in the end for purity of doctrine, as well as practice, than those discussions which are frequently steeped more in our own spirit than in the spirit of Christ."
