Foreign Affairs -The death rate in Paris is greatly on the

-The new Prussian Cross Gazette of Berlin says if French persecutions of returning Germans continue, a German army must reoccupy the environs of Paris, and possibly -The Chinese Government has paid $200,000 indemnity for the French property destroyed at Tien-tsin, and has appointed a Frenchman to the post of Imperial Interpreter, at a salary of $15,000. These concessions are regarded as full settlement of the claims growing out of the murderous outrage.

-A new rebellion is on the eve of breaking out in Japan. Prince Satsuma has withdrawn his troops from Yeddo, and every apprehension is entertained of an early renewal hostilities. Sixteen German vessels were, at last accounts, blockaded at Yokohama for alleged violation of the revenue laws.

-Mexico is preparing for revolution. The opponents of the re-election of Juarez have a majority in Congress, and it is proposed to enact a law interdicting the candidacy of the President. If the enactment becomes a law Juarez will disregard it, and there are prospects of revolutions and counter-revolutions.

-The situation in Paris is hourly growing more grave. Some blood has already been shed in the streets. Captured insurgents are immediately rescued, the citizens and soldiers fraternize, and there are indications of a repetition of the bloody scenes of 1848. Fully organized battalions of National Guards have marched into Montmartre shouting "Vive la Republique!" The purposes of the insurgents are still indefinite. It is evident that there is a desire on the part of the rebellious people to absolutely ignore the Bordeaux Government, and establish another of their own choice in Paris.

Terrible Story- Sulcide of the Rev. Mr. Van -The Pittsburg Commercial of yesterday has the following particulars of a sad affair reported by telegraph: About 6 o'clock last evening Officer Mackrell saw a man sitting on a board pile on Water street, but paid no attention to him. About 10 o'clock, however, in making his rounds, he found him in the same place, and on going to him, discovered he was insensible. Thinking the man was drunk he called assistance, and procuring a wheelbarrow the man was brought to the lock-up. The doctor at once discovered that he had taken laudanum, and procuring a stomach-pump, attempted to relieve him, but it was too late. The drug had done its work, and the man died about a quarter after twelve, while they were working to resuscitate him.

The papers found in his possession indicate him to be Rev. J. G. Van Doran, a German minister. It appears from one of them that he was a missionary in South America from 1836 to Among other papers was found a letter from his wife dated at Chambersburg, upon the back of which was written in pencil, "J. G. Van back of which was written in pencil, "J. G. Van Doren is a self-murderer," and "Spring alley, No. — bad folks." A number of testimonials of good character and standing in his church, and recommending him to the sympathies of the German people, signed by several German ministers in this city, Allegheny, and Birmingham, were also among his papers. So far as could be ascertained from his papers, no cause was assigned for the rash act. He was apparently about fifty-five or skyty years of age, and about fifty-five or sixty years of age, and a man of fine personal appearance.

- "The prisoner has a very smooth counte-nance." "Yes, he was froned just before he was brought in. That accounts for it." - Whataver Midas touched was turned into gold. In these days, touch a man with gold, and he'll turn into anything. -Maine offers to every able bodied male Swede a farm of one hundred acres, and exemption from taxation until 1876.

MAD DOG

Hy repheblal Sensation in St. Louis-A Man and a Boy Ferribly Sitten. The Missouri Republican of the 15th inst.

Yesterday morning about six o'clock an un wonted excitement was raised on Myrtle street, between Fifth and Sixth, by a most furious mad oog. A boy named Martin Bertlum was passing along Myrtle street and saw a large white dog is ing near the sidewalk. Not apprehending any danger, he passed quite close to the spot, when the brute, with a sudden spring, seized tim by the arm. The boy screamed loudly, and the dog, after shaking him, threw him to the ground and dashed up Myrtle street. Near the corner of Sixth it sprang at a man named Henry McDermot, almost before he was aware of its approach, and seized him by the upper part of the arm. So savage and powerful was the attack that the man was thrown to the ground, but quickly regained his feet, and drawing a revolver, fired at the dog several times, without, however, fatal effect. At this time the neighborhood had been thoroughly alarmed, and Captain McDonough, chief of police, who lives on Myrtle street, ran out of his house, half dressed, with an immense Derringer ready for active service. An immediate pursuit of the dog was commenced, in which several police officers, the chief, and some citizens participated. The mad dog was finally killed, after repeated shots had been fired, near Seventh and Clark avenue.

Having put an end to the ravages of the raging brute, the Chief of Police immediately caused the two persons bitten to come to the residence of Dr. Hodgens, Sixth and Myrtle, to have their injuries attended to The hey to have their injuries attended to. The boy was found to have been shockingly bitten, the teeth having been forcibly driven against the bone. Dr. Hodgen cut the flesh out affected by the bite, involving severe pain and great loss of blood to the boy, who, however, stood the operation like a hero. A similar operation was performed on the man, McDermott, who was also badly torn.
