THE MOYA BOYS.

Their Final Street Parade.—The Company to be Resolved into a Literary Organization.—A Sketch of the Famous Fighting Company.

Exit the Moya! This afternoon, with a grand flourish of trumpets, waving of banners, fluttering of handkerchiefs in the hands of the Moya-mensing belles, this remarkable company will make its final street-parade, generously give away the "Moya" and resolve itself into a literary association.

At 6 o'clock the "Boys," numbering 250, with polished boots, gleaming red shirts, and furled belts and hats, took their stations at the "Moya" and drew the carriage from the house.

The vessel will be completely loaded in one or two days time, and will sail about Wednesday direct for France.

The Ku-Klux Bill.

Special Message to the President.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—It has been agreed by both parties in the House that the general debate on the Ku-Klux bill shall continue to-day and to-morrow, the House meeting at 11 o'clock and holding evening sessions.

It is conceded that the bill will be materially modified, and those features of it authorizing the President to declare martial law, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to use the army and navy to enforce the mandates of the courts, will probably be stricken out.

The Senate Elections Committee commenced the examination in the case of Mr. Vance, of North Carolina.

The High Joint Commission have suspended their session for some days in order that the British members of it may communicate with their Government.

The Senate is waiting the action of the House on the Ku-Klux bill, and nothing will be done concerning adjournment until it is disposed of by both houses.

Frank Blair has the floor at 1 o'clock, and will make a political speech, which, it is said, will have some significance as representative of the extreme wing of the Democracy.

SAN DOMINGO.

The President to Speak His Mind.—The Consul General Forwarded.

A Washington despatch to the N. Y. Times says:—

The President will accompany the transmission of a message, which will beyond question produce a happy and reassuring effect throughout the country.

San Domingo Government with propositions that Government for annexation; that he never gave these agents any reason for their proposition.

The President resolved to test the reliability of his representatives in his own country, and to send the investigation a man in whose judgment and integrity he had the utmost confidence.

The facts and results of the reports indicate the information and motives of public policy upon which the President acted.

The subject of annexation, and the character of those who conducted the negotiations; that he admitted that the result of the investigation was in favor of annexation, and that he recommended to Congress for its consideration and that the country, not withstanding, with no further recommendation to make, confident that the people of the country upon a full discussion of the merits of the subject would cheerfully acquiesce, having neither heretofore nor now any policy of his own to enforce.

Frederick Douglass on the Haytiens.

To the Editor of the Tribune.—Sir:—The Rev. H. H. Garnett is wrong in attributing to me the crazy statement that the people of Haiti are ignorant where my revered friend lived or read that statement, but I do not know that it was ever uttered by me.

Speech of the Emperor William.

BERLIN, April 3.—The Emperor William, in reply to the congratulatory address voted by the Reichstag, thanks that body for its loyalty and devotion, and praises the heroism of the German soldiers, and points to the visible guidance of the Emperor in the events of the recent war.

He says:—"The condition of France is owing to the revolutions of eighty years, and expresses the belief that German nationality in Alsace and Lorraine has been merely defaced and not destroyed during the compulsory union of these provinces with France."

The Emperor concludes as follows:—"Being an old man, I merely lay the foundation of an empire which my successor must complete."

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Statement Corrected.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The published statement that orders had been issued from the Navy Department to fit for sea service a number of vessels is without foundation. No such orders have been given. Repairs upon vessels in the different navy yards are ordered whenever necessary, and several of the vessels mentioned as having been ordered to be put in readiness for sea are now undergoing various repairs, but there is not nor has there been any intention of fitting any of them for immediate sea service.

The Vance-Abbott Case.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections held a meeting this morning to consider the case of the contest between Messrs. Vance and Abbott for a seat in the Senate from North Carolina. The main questions to be decided by that committee are first, whether Vance, under the fourteenth amendment, was ineligible for election by the North Carolina Legislature; and second, whether there is in the Senate on the ground that he received the next highest number of votes, although not a majority of all the votes cast. The committee arrived at no conclusion, and will hold another meeting on the subject next Friday.

FROM NEW ENGLAND.

The Connecticut Election.

"COURANT" OFFICE, HARTFORD, April 3.—1:30 P. M.—It is impossible to give very accurate estimates of the results of the election. A light rain, which commenced shortly before noon, and the muddy travelling from the storm of Saturday night, will affect the total vote somewhat. Last night, when a clear day was probable, it was estimated that the total vote might reach 97,000 to 98,000, but it is likely now to fall below those figures.

The State is very close, and both sides are confident. In a total registered vote of over 100,000 it is impossible to state what the result will be. In Waterbury we hear that Kendrick, Dem., for Congress, is running behind the ticket. The Democrats concede the election of Strong, Republican, in this district. The majority for English in this city will be reduced from 250 to 300 votes.

FROM THE DOMINION.

Proceedings of the Parliament.

OTTAWA, April 3.—The Hon. Mr. Tupper, during a debate on the subject of the annexation of British Columbia on Saturday, argued that the superiority of the Canadian route for the Pacific Railroad was indubitable, and that alternate blocks of land, which would be the property of the government, would realize enough to discharge its pecuniary obligations.

Respecting the railway, he expressed the belief that the Northern Pacific Company, which would have nearly a thousand miles of desert to run through, would never (seeing Canada was determined to push her road to that ocean) go on with their work beyond Pembina. They would extend their line from Georgetown to Pembina, and thence to Red River, but it would never, he thought, be carried farther west, in view of the far superior prospect of our Dominion road.
