NEWS SUMMARY.

Foreign Affairs. -The prices of provisions are again advancing in Paris.

-The Princess of Wales yesterday had son born to her, -One hundred and fifty wounded soldiers from Versailles arrived yesterday at Havre.

-All telegraph communication with Paris has recently been stopped by the insurgents. -The military forces of the Commune are still in large numbers outside of the city, but remain in extremely critical positions.

-A proclamation has been issued by the Commune, announcing that retaliatory measures will be adopted relative to prisoners. -The insurgents still hold Forts d'Issy and Vanvres, and keep up a resolute fire upon the position held by the Government troops at Chatillon. -Bismarck has informed Thiers that all restrictions concerning the number of troops for Paris is removed, and that he may occupy the city with 150,000 men if necessary. -Bismarck has upbraided Thiers for his indecisive policy, and tells him if he does not put an end to the insurrection Germany, will march into the capital and remain until a stable government is established. -It is reported that M. Thiers, instead of following up the advantages gained by the Government troops, and allowing them to enter Paris, has commenced negotiations with the Commune, offering to concede many of its demands, and to exempt its leaders from punishment.

Domestic Affairs.

-The Welland Canal was opened yester--Newark, N. J., in imitation of New York City, has just formed an anti-income tax asso-

-The Mormon semi-annual conference met at Salt Lake City yesterday, and was largely attended.

-General Butler has prepared an amnesty bill, which will probably be introduced into Congress on Monday. -During the past week thirty French families have departed from the vicinity of Quebee to settle in the United States. -The New York Chamber of Commerce yesterday passed a resolution called for the immediate repeal of the income tax. -The Hartford Evening Post says that the entire Republican State ticket has been elected in Connecticut, with the exception of the Governor. -The grand reunion of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee commenced yesterday morning at Cincinnati, and many prominent officers were present. -The lumbering interests of Canada have suffered from the unusually early spring, and it is thought that there will be a great falling off in the quantity of the material. -A despatch from Havana gives details of the defeat of Cabral near Azua. His friends claim that only his vanguard was engaged, but it is generally believed that Basz's forces had the advantage in all the encounters.

-In the House yesterday, after the close of our report, the bill to enforce the fourteenth amendment and suppress the Ku-klux was considered. The proviso authorizing the President to direct voluntary enlistments of any of the militia of the United States was struck out, on motion of Mr. Farnsworth, by a vote of 112 to 87. The previous question was then moved by Mr. Shellabarger, and seconded. Mr. Ambler, of Ohio, moved to strike out the portion authorizing the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. Rejected-yeas 101, nays 105. Finally the bill was passed by a vote of 118 to 91, and the House adjourned until

CITY COUNCILS.

Their Proceedings Yesterday. Both branches of the legislative department held their regular stated meeting yesterday.

Select Branch.—Mr. Shalleross, from the Committee on railroads, offered a negative report concerning fast driving by street car drivers at street cross-

Mr. Cattell spoke in favor of repealing the existing ordinance giving certain cars right of way. He hoped that drivers of cars running east or west, north or south, would be compelled to walk their horses at the crossings.

A motion to postpone the whole subject for two weeks was lost, and a motion to indefinitely postrone was carried.

The following report was made of the condition of the City Treasury:

1871, April 1. By cash on hand this date, $2,172,812 11, appropriated as follows:
To pay interest on city loans - $839,623 64
To pay sinking fund securities - 245,815 18 To pay loan warrants - - - To pay sundry claims - - -582,178 26

- $2,172,812 11 The water bill, being the special order, was resumed. Considerable discussion ensued as to the propriety of placing meters in manufactories to prevent an inordinate waste. A motion to reconsider section sixteen was carried, and an amendment to strike out illegal provisions adopted. The ordinance passed.

Bills from Common Council being in order, it was resolved that the $11,000 derived from fines for trespass in Fairmount Park should be expended by Park Commissioners in the customary manner for improvements. Adjourned.

Common Branch—President Huhn in the chair.

Common Branch—President Huhn in the chair.

Mr. Calhoun offered a resolution of instruction to the Chief Commissioner to inform Councils what right the Thirteenth and Fifteenth-street Passenger Railway Company had to construct a double track on south Broad street, which was agreed to.

Mr. Walker presented an ordinance authorizing the transfer of $11,057 12 to the Park Commissioners, it having been collected for violating the Park laws. Agreed to.

The Chamber then proceeded to consider the or-

The Chamber then proceeded to consider the or-dinance creating a loan of $500,000 for the paving of Broad street with an improved pavement. It was read and adopted by sections.

Mr. Bardsley offered an amendment providing that no part of the loan should be used to pay for any wooden pavement on Broad street, between Coates street and Columbia avenue.

Mr. Wagner moved to strike out all after the words wooden pavement. Unanimous consent not being given the amend-ment to the amendment was not entertained by the CITY ORDINANCES.

COMMON COUNCIL OF PHILADELPHIA. CLERK'S OFFICE. PHILADELPHIA, March 17, 1871.

In accordance with a Resolution adopted by the Common Council of the city of Philadelphia on Thursday, the sixteenth day of March, 1871, the annexed bill, entitled, "An ordinance creating a loan for the extension of the Water Works," is hereby published for public information. information.

JOHN ECKSTEIN, Clerk of Common Council.

AN ORDINANCE CREATING A LOAN FOR EXTENSION OF THE WATER

Section 1. The Select and Common Councils of the city of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Mayor of Philadelphia be and he is hereby authorized to borrow at not less than par, on the credit of the city, two million one hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars for the further extension of the Water Works. For which interest not to exceed the rate of six per cent. per annum, shall be paid half-yearly, on the first days of January and July, at the office of the City Treasurer. The principal of said loan shall be payable and paid at the expiration of thirty years from the date of the same, and not before without the consent of the holders thereof; and the certificates therefor, in the usual form of the certificates of city loan, shall be issued in such amounts as the lenders may require, but not for any fractional part of one hundred dollars, or, if required, in amounts of five hundred or one thousand dollars; and it shall be expressed in said certificates that the loan therein mentioned and the interest thereof are payable free from all taxes.

Section 2. Whenever any loan shall be made by virtue thereof, there shall be by force of this ordinance annually appropriated out of the income of the rate estates, and from the sum raised taxation, a sum sufficient to pay the interest on said certificates; and the further sum of threetenths of one per centum on the par value of such certificates so issued shall be appropriated quarterly out of said income and taxes to a sinking fund, which fund and its accumulations are hereby especially pledged for the redemp-tion and payment of said certificates.

RESOLUTION TO PUBLISH A LOAN BILL. Resolved, That the Clerk of Common Coun-Resolved, That the Clerk of Common Council be authorized to publish in two daily newspapers of this city daily for four weeks the ordinance presented to Common Council on Thursday, March 16, 1871, entitled "An ordinance creating a loan for the extension of the Water Works." And the said Clerk, at the stated meeting of Councils after said publication, shall present to this Council one of each of said perspapers. of said newspapers for every day in which the same shall have been made. 3 17 24t
