THE DAILY

WEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-Elwood Everett was yesterday bound over to answer for conspiracy in a plot to undermine the character of his brother's wife in order to furnish his brother grounds for a divoree suit.

-The thermometer was 78 degrees at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

-Lieutenant McGuffin found it necessary to shoot a young man named Horace Palmer, at Eighth and Race, on Saturday night, for interfering with him in making an arrest. -General William H. Ent has been selected s the orator of the day on which the Pennsylvania Reserves hold their celebration.

-Charles Kane, a pickpocket, escaped from the dilapidated and imperfect cell in the Germantown Station House on Sunday night. -The contractor engaged to clean the district below South street, and between the two rivers, has so far neglected his duty that the Board of Health has decided to annul the contract and give the work to another party.

-John L. Campbell, Professor in the Wa-bash University, Indiana, has been appointed by the Governor of that State as commis-sioner to represent Indiana in the centennial celebration in this city. The alternate of Professor Campbell is David M. Boyd, of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

-Yesterday afternoon the Athletics, upon their new grounds, at Twenty-fifth and Jefferson streets, vanquished a picked nine of strong players by a score of 19 to 9. The odations for the scorers and reporters were of the most miserable description.

-Policeman McFiynn was shot in the arm while making an arrest last night at Fifth and Girard avenue.

-On Thursday the public squares will be opened.

-The Philadelphia Society for Employment and Instruction of the Peor report that during the last year the institution, No. 718 Catharine street, furnished 2980 night lodgings, 5960 meals, 1919 baths, and 1142 per-Most of our prominent drug-houses have made donation of drugs to the dispensary. Domestic Affairs.

-A finer harvest is in prospect in Northern Kansas than was ever known.

-A grand Masonie reception and banquet was given to Earl de Grey in Washington last evening.

-An attempt was made yesterday near Scranton to murder a coal operator by two men, supposed to be miners. —Pittsburg is now in direct communication with Baltimore, the Pittsburg and Connells-ville Railroad having been completed yeseiday.

-It was announced in the United States Supreme Court yesterday that arguments rening the legal tender decision will be heard on the 12th inst.

-An error has been discovered in the rearn of votes in a Connecticut district, by which a hundred more votes were returned for Governor English than should have been, The matter is to be investigated.

music, Hassler's string band for flancin and the celebrated brass band of the 9 New York Regiment, which was to play durin, the intermission between the dances.

Lieutenant Flaherty had a large force police in the building, and managed them i such a manner that the most perfect orde prevailed up to midnight, at which hour w

At 8 P. M. the brass band struck up spirited march, and Dr. Gilbert, the maste of ceremonies, leading, his lady entered from the north fly, and behind him came Rober Lister Smith and lady, and for fifteen minute the procession continued, until the great flow was covered. When the music ceased, an after some minutes, Hassler struck up, an the grand ball was fairly in progress. Man of the ladies were dressed most magnificently and it would be impossible to describe th texture, colors, and cost of the splendid appr rel that was witnessed on the floor.

By 10 o'clock the building had become un comfortably crowded, as even the audience tickets for spectators in the upper tiers sol in large numbers.

People continued to arrive until twelve o'clock, but at cleven o'clock quite a sens tion was created by the arrival of a delog tion from New York, consisting of Sheri O'Brien, Henry Harvey, Colonel Andre Shennan, Justices Dowling and McCann Hon. Lawrence O'Brien, Hon. John For and also Dr. R. J. Stockton and Hon. Chas McKeown of Baltimore, John Stewart, M T. Brennan, and Hon. Edward Curry Boston.

Later there arrived Wm. M. Tweed, Jr., C. Heenan, Col. Jas. Fisk, John Murray, H. Ford, Michael Purcell, and Jas. Carey, New York.

Alderman McMullin also received the fo owing despatch from the association name which was also holding a ball in New York: "The Thomas J. Creamer Association send congratulations to the Moyamensing Associ tion. Hoping our Philadelphia friends a enjoying the Easter festival, we are, etc. William M. Tweed, H. W. Genet, Peter Sweeny, A. Oakey Hall, Charles E. Loew.' Among the numerous well-known perso present we noticed Postmaster Binghan General Patterson, Colonal William B. Man District Attorney Sheppard, ex-Treasur Joseph N. Peirsol, Senators Nagle, Petrike and Findlay, and a number of Representativ in the lower house of the Legislature, man of them with their ladies.

At the time we left the festivities were their height, and were no doubt continue until near daylight.

-To-day the Spanish-American Conference is to meet at the Department of State to ign the armistice between Spain and the acific republics. It is thought that the rmistice is the prelude of a speedy conclusion peace.

-At a meeting of coal miners at Hyde Park yesterday a committee was appointed to onfer with the Delaware, Lackawanna, and estern Railroad Company. The committee bsequently met the agents of that road, but vithout effecting anything. A compromise is ought probable.

-It is generally believed at Scranton that he miners are willing to go to work on the trained from fear of the W. B. A.

Foreign Affairs.

-The annual review of the English voluneers took place at Brighton yesterday. -The main attack on Paris will probably made in the direction of Montrouge. -Thiers offers safe conduct to conciliation lelegates who may be permitted to leave

-A fleet of iron-clads arrived at Paris esterday, and an attack on the city was imninent.

-Eight hundred persons fled from Paris in one day to avoid serving in the Commu-nist ranks.

-A breach has been made at Porte Maillot sufficient for an easy entrance of the Government troops into Paris.

-Favre, it is said, is going to Barlin to push forward the conclusion of peace, and to assure Bismarck of the early restoration of order in Paris.

-A special despatch states that the Commune grows hourly more desperate, and rerts to fierce excesses. The Conciergerie is filled with pricats and nuns. Archbishop Derboy was stripped, scourged, and then mocked for hours by a band of fiends.

A GALA NIGHT.

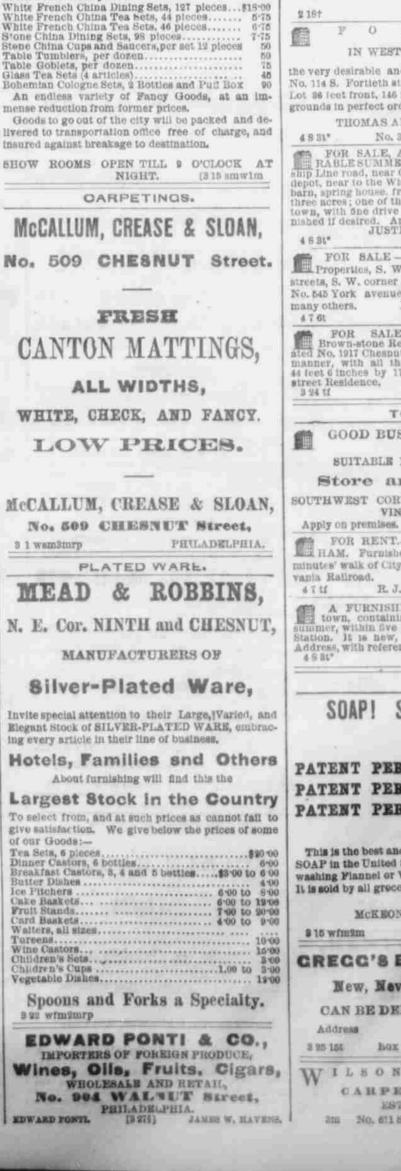

THE MOYAMENSING BALL LAST EVENING-A GOR-GEOUS AND DAZZLING SPECTACLE-LIST OF DISTINGUISHED VISITOES.

The event of Easter night-the Moyamensing Ball-which for days past has been anounced with such a display of gorgeous rhe-oric, came off last night at the Academy of Music, and was in reality as brilliant an affair as its most sanguine advocates promised.

All yesterday workmen were engaged in laying the ball-room floor, and in arranging innumerable details rendered necessary for the festival. The operations were somewhat delayed by the fall of a temporary chandelier over the stage in the morning, but the debris was soon cleared away, and the work resumed. Last year the hall was gayly orated with flags, banners, and streamers but this seemed to darken the scene, and after a long consultation the Committee of Arrangements determined to leave off all rnament to this part of the ball-room, and the only decoration was an arrangement let own from the ceiling, by which the word 'Moyamensing" was tastily made to appear in jets of flame, surrounding the figure of an Indian chief's head.

In the rear of the stage proper a pleasant grove was formed by orange and lemon trees, Il in full bloom, with the fruit hanging from hem; over these again were suspended cages filled with singing birds, which warbled cages filled with singing birds, which warbled tones of the sweetest melody constantly. Scattered through the grove were miniature fountains, which, instead of water, poured forth streams of cologne and other perfumes, in which many of the ladies copiously laved their hand-kerchiefs and thus imparted the genial scent throughout the room shout the room.

Present upon the floor were two bands of
