NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE BOOK OF THE SEASON. E. J. HALE & SON, NEW YORK, issue, this day, the SECOND EDITION of the charm- ing volume, WORLD ESSAYS, AMONG MY BOOKS, which has proved "The Book of the Season," and is A BOOK FOR ALL SEASONS, for Spring Sunshine and Autumn Cloud, for Summer Travel and Winter Fireside.

"A very charming book of essays, by a writer whose large acquaintance with the best English writers is abundantly manifested in its contents. The style is delightful throughout, emphatic without dogmatism, and erudite without pedantry. The book cannot fail to be popular."—New York Evening Post.

"To take up this little volume will be like meeting casually an accomplished, scholarly man of the world— Critic, not cynical. Nurt, but not faint— with a word in season here as racy as strawberries and a touch of wit and sparkle as pliant as truffles in America."—New York World.

"They are well written, on well chosen topics, and are illustrated from a wide acquaintance with literature."—Frisch's Magazine.

"The papers are universally admired, especially that biographical feature which introduces to the reader the traits of so many men familiar in the world's history."—Washington Patriot.
