MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC the spectacle of The Black Crook will be performed this even-ing. Those who saw The Black Crook when it was produced in this city a few seasons ago can form no adequate idea of the brilliant spectacle now in porsession of the boards of the Academy. The scenery, the costumes, and all the appointments are of the most gorgeous description, and far surpass anything of the kind ever seen here before, while the incidental features, which have no connection with the drama, but which are the great attractions of the exhibition, are novel exceedingly entertaining. The ballet is particularly fine, but it is surpassed in interest by the extraordinary performances of the Mailtons, the funny evolutions of the skaters Keynoch and Schmidt, and other attractions which must be seen to be appreciated.

AT THE CHESNUT Mr. Walter Lennox will have a benefit this evening, when Goldsmith's comedy of She Stoops to Conquer and the farce of Sarah's Young Man will be performed. Mr. Lennox is a comedian of fine talents, and his performances during several seasons at the Chesnut Street Theatre have made him a favorite with the public. His admirers should en-deavor to make his benefit a brilliant success. On Saturday Mr. Torchlans, the box bookkeeper, will take a benefit. A New Way to Pay Old Debts will be performed.

Will be for the benefit of Messrs. Holmes and Trefts, the box book-keeper and the ticket-taker. These gentlemen, by their courteous attention in the front of the house, deserve well of the public, and we hope that their merits will be recognized by a crowded house. The entertainment will consist of Mrs. Cowley's comedy, A Bold Stroke for a Husband, and Buckstone's drama of Isabelle.

On Saturday the comedy of The Soldier's Daughter and the domestic drams of The Ear-test Home; or, The Heir of Derwent will be represented for the benefit of Mr. Adam Everly, who will personate "Frank Heartwell" in the former and "Caleb Kestral" in the latter piece. So thorough an artist as Mr. Everly should be greeted by a full house on this his reappearance upon the boards of the Arch Street Theatre after a long absence.

AT THE WALNUT a performance of Tom Taylor's drama of 'Twixt Axe and Grown will be given this evening, with Miss Ella Burns as

AT THE AMERICAN an entertaining variety programme will be presented this evening. To-morrow will be a family night, when special pains will be taken to make the performance interesting to ladies, children, and family parties. Miss Kate Fisher will appear in her celebrated role of "Mazeppa," and, lashed to the back of her "fiery untamed steed" Wonder, will give a striking representation of the perils passed through by Byron's hero in his flight through pathless wildernesses and craggy mountain heights. The last appearances of Miss Kate Fisher in this part are announced, so that those who wish to see her should do so at once. In addition to the drama of Maseppa there will be beautiful ballets, funny Ethiopian burlesques, comic local sketches, songs, dances, and a laughable pantomime, which will make up an entertainment that cannot fall to please those who wish to spend a pleasant evening.

On Saturday there will be a family matines. AT THE MUSEUM, Ninth and Arch streets, "Wilkins Micawber" will be personated this evening by Mr. Lewis Baker.

AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDING an exhibition of Dr. Corry's beautiful diorama of "Ireland in Shade and Subshine" will be given this evening.

AT THE ALHAMBRA, Seventh street, below Arch, a miscellaneous programme is announced for this evening.

AT CONCERT HALL a grand bazaar is now open for the benefit of the sick poor of St. Mary's AT THE TOWN HALL, GEBMANTOWN, on Thursday evening, May 4, a concert will be given in aid of the Market Square Church, Germantown. Prominent members of the Handel d Haydn Society will participate.
