HIS WILL.

The Late William F. Hughes, President of the City National Bank.

The will of the late President of the City National Bank, William F. Hughes, has been admitted to probate. His executors are his daughter, Anna L. Reed, and Edward H. Trotter and Josiah Kisterbock. Mr. Hughes before his last illness had prepared a bronze statue of himself to surmount his grave, where now it may be seen. He gives to his wife his house and lot at Arch and Thirteenth streets, "for so long as she shall remain my widow," and upon like condition an annuity of $1500. He gives, further, to the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities, $25,000 in trust, the net interest of which is to be paid to his wife "for her own sole and separate use," the principal to be divided among all her children living at her death. He gives to the same company his house and lot on the west side of Second street, below Christian, for the use of his brother Edward D. Hughes, and $10,000 in trust, the interest of which shall be ven to him. Also, to the same company 15,060 in trust, the interest of which shall be or the benefit of his brother Edward's three anghters, Indiana K., Virginia L, and Clara F.

Next he devises to his own daughter, Anna L. Reed, his dwelling-house, on the northwest corner of Sixteenth and Chesnut streets, and also 'all my household furniture, plate, pictures, books, and articles of dome-tic use on hand at my decease. This devise and bequest being subject to my wife's right to retain possession thereof for one year, if she shall elect so to do."
All the rest of his estate and preperty he gives to the Penisylvania Company for Insurance, etc , in trust, the income whereof shall go to his daughter, Anna L. Reed, and after her decen e then the same is to be paid over and wided among her children. Codocil number 1 states that, having sold his use at Thirteenth and Arch streets (part of his wife's income under the will), he substitutes an additional annuity of $1500.

Codocit 2 leaves $500 in trust, the interest to be applied to keeping the lot enclosing his vault in good order, and then says:—"No part of my r 1 cstate in the city of Philadelphia, lying between South street and Vine street, from nd to the river Schuylkill and Delaware, that is to say the following: The house I now live in at the northwest corner of Sixteenth and Chesnut, and the drug store at the southwest corner ef Sixteenth and Chesnut; my three large steres on Market, south side, west of Eighth street, 75 feet front on Market street, and about 300 feet to Jayne street; three stores on east side of Second street, and my block of buildings at the northwest corner of Second and South streets, together with the house built in the last century by my mandfather, now occupied by my brother rents that are well secured, shall not be sold, but held in trust for the benefit of my grand children so long as any or either of them shall live; in all cases the estate is to go to my heirs, the balance of my real estate to be sold at public sale within two years of my decease. I do order that not more than two per cent. shall be paid to my trustees for collecting and paying over the income. I have by my will appointed the Penn sylvania Company my trustees; if they shou'd not accept these terms, the next trustees shall be the Girard Life and Trust, and the next the Minnesota Railway. The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mort-gage issue dealt in at the Stock sacnange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our manking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis, for temporary or permanent inverments, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands without competition all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90

The net carnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year. A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy Railroad Company ob igating the latter to invest 50 per cent, of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids, and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company, This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds ena-bles them to be exchanged for stock, at oar, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest An exchange of Government securities for these bends returns 936 per cent. Interest, instead of 6 per cent, which is all that Government pays at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for reinvestment.
