MEIUS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

-The peace festival parade will be inaugurated by a salute in the morning, and on the parade Mayor Fox has promised the attendance of 500 policemen. The Germen milkmen will also participate in the parade.

-Dr. John S. Parry read a paper before the Social Science Association last evening, on "Infant Mortality." He presented some startling figures. From the statistics of mortality it is ascertained that 63 61 per cent. of those dying under five years died before the first year had been reached. He also affirmed that the percentage, of inquests on children under one week old has increased since 1863, having attained to 173 per cent, in the first three months of 1871. In other words, nearly one-fifth of all the inquests made by the Coroner were upon infants under one week old, and in the opinion of the Coroner a large proportion of these were infanticides. -Several cases of relapsing fever made their appearance in the Sixth ward yesterday

-The Boston "Red Stockings" play the champion Athletics, on the grounds of the latter, in this city, this afternoon.

Domestic Affairs.

-The census returns are not yet quite complete. -Galveston, Texas, is to be quarantined on and after the 10th inst. -It is thought probable that there will be a full Senate on Wednesday next. -The Joint High Commission will probably not sign the treaty until Tuesday next. -Dr. A. K. Hoffman, father of the Governor of New York, died yesterday afternoon at Sing Sing. -About one hundred workmen are now engaged in improving and renovating the Capitol building at Washington.

-The rain of the past few days has caused a freshet in the Hudson river, and some of the cities and towns situated on its banks, from Troy down to New York city, have suffered to some extent from inundation.

-The proposition made by the Scranton miners on Thursday has been rejected, and it now looks as though they will not only not get 86 cents per diamond car, instead of the $1.31, but that their laborers will most likely take their places in the mines.

Foreign Affairs.

-Bismarck has gone to Frankfort to confer with Favre. -The bombardment before Paris continues with full vigor. -The Commune, by decree, abolishes all political and professional oaths. -There is little or no change to note in the position of the French belligerents.

-The British House of Lords has passed the bill for the protection of life in Ireland. -The Freemasons of several of the cities of France are endeavoring to secure peace.

-The island of St. Germain, in the Seine, between Billancourt and Issy, has been taken by the Versailles forces. -Negotiations for a compromise between the two factions in France are now progressing, and if they fail Marshal MacMahon will attempt to carry Paris by assault, HEAVY DEFALCATION.

The Late Collector of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania District a Defaulter in the Amount of $31,000.

Yesterday District Attorney Swoope instituted preceedings in the United States Court against the sureties of Henry A. Guernsey, late Revenue Cellector of the Eighteenth Collection District in this State. Mr. Guernsey was collector and disbursing agent, and gave a bond for one hundred thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, Messrs. H. L. Diffenbach, S. R. Peale, A. C. Noyes, Robert Crawford, and Theodore Wright becoming his bondsmen. The bond given as disbursing agent was for ten thousand dollars, upon which Samuel Adams, P. W. Keller, and E. Bigony were the sureties. Guernsey's accounts were sent to Washington, and when they were examined it was found that the Collector's account showed a default of about $28,000, and the disbursing agent's account about $3000, making a total defalcation $31,000. The suits were instituted against the Collector and his sureties on the official bond held by the Government .- Pittsburg Commercial, yesterday.
