SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Bob Lister Smith Again in Trouble-A Young Man Shot in the Second Ward,

A fight took place in a bar-room at Moyamensing and Federal streets last night, which, it is alleged, resulted in the shooting in the leg of a young man named Andrew Myers by the notorious Bob Lister Smith. It is said that Smith was intoxicated last evening, and going into the tavern found a number of young men engaged in social conversation. He got into an argument with one of them named Renn, or Wren and the latter bappening to put his hand behind his back was roughly accosted by Smith, who wanted to know what he had his hand on. The reply was that it was his pocket-book, at the same time producing and showing it

Smith then drew his revolver, and with the butt struck him on the head, cutting an ugly gash. Several of the assaulted man's friends came to his assistance, when Smith was promptly knocked down. He was let up, but when he regained his feet he discharged his revolver into the midst of the crowd, and then ran out into the street. By this time a large crowd had collected around Smith. Shortly after Myers came out of the tavern, and going to Smith said to him, "You were in the wrong in that No sooner had the words issued from his month than Smith, drawing his revolver. "You're one of the fellows, too, are you? and at the same time discharged the weapon, the ball taking effect in the left leg of Myers, directly above the ankle. Smith, after the commission of the deed, still kept the weapon in his hand. Myers called apon Officer Hawkins, of the Second district, to arrest Smith, but it is reported that the reply of the policeman was, "I've got no warrant. If you get a warrant I'll arrest him." It is said that Officers Dennison and Murphy begged Smith to go away, which advice was accepted and Smith jumped into a wagon and drove off Officer Hawkins was also reprimanded by a citizen for not arresting Smith, when he quickly told the citizen that he would arrest him if anything more was said.

THE THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY of the Sabbath-schools of the Alexander Presbyterian Church took place yesterday afternoon, and, as there was a great crowd present. Rev. Dr. Work read the Scriptures and delivered an impressive prayer, and Rev. Alex. Reed, D. D. Rev. Matthew Newkirk, and Rev. Robert Davidson, D. D., made excellent addresses. music, under the leadership of Mr. Robert Lindsay, assisted by Mr. George F. Pierson, the eminently successful director of the Choral Society, and other members of that efficient musical organization, was exceedingly fine, and did much credit to the schools. Mr. H. N. Thissel, the Superintendent, reported that the schools were open during 48 Sabbaths of the past year. There are 368 scholars on the rolls, with an average attendance the past year of 212, which is an increase over the year 1870. The receipt of the school for the year were $158.21, all of which was expended, leaving the school free from debt. The missionary offerings for the year amounted to $128.14. Or this sum, $100 was sent through the Sunday-school Union to the California field, and the balance to Atlantic City. Three members of the school were added to the church during 1870. The Superintendent stated that the school required a new library.

Last Wednesday evening the Alexander cor gregation gave an unanimous call to the Rev. N. W. Conklin, of New York, to become their Dr. Conklin was the successor of Rev. Charles Wadsworth at the Arch Street Presby-terian Church, and left for New York three years ago. It is to be hoped that he will accept the call to the Alexander, as he has hosts of friends and admirers in Philadelphia.

SAIL BOATS UPERT .- The Delaware yesterday with its rough waters and white-capped waves did not present a very favorable field for the little yachts which each Sunday sall upon its waters. Rather a heavy blow was experienced. and only the larger craft dared to venture out. In three or four cases, however, the little boats made the attempt with double-reefed salls, but this precantion did not help them, as they were quickly overturned. No lives were lost, as the parties who make a venture of this kind are generally equal and prepared for such coutle-

ST. CLEMENT'S CHURCH .- We will to-morrow publish an interesting sermon preached in St. Clement's Church on Sunday by Rev. W. H. N. Stewart, the assistant minister. In view of the dissensions now disturbing the harmony of St. Clement's, a great amount of public attention is attracted to the church and its affairs, and this sermon is of special importance on account of the efforts being made to oust the rector and his assistant, and their appeal to the courts for pro-

How It is Disposed of.

The will of the late Armar J. Young, a bacheor merchant, was this morning admitted to probate. The value of the estate can not be accurately estimated, but is supposed to be between four and five hundred thousand dollars. He gives to his sister Ann Jane Moore, wife of Alexander Moore, during her life, the annual income of the properties No. 147 N. Eighth street, No. 214 Church alley, and Nos. 20 and 23 Bank street, out of which she is to pay the taxes, etc. etc. Then he says: -"I further wish and desire, and so instruct, that the said Ann J Moore appropriate out of and from the income of the heretofore described real estate, for each and all of her children, as they shall attain the age of twelve years, and from and after that age until they shall attain the age of twenty-one years, the sum of $300 every year for their education, which education shall be therough and complete, and be at such boarding-school or schools as she may select; but it is my desire that said education shall be in every respect such a one as may be to their benefit. "After the death of the said Ann Jane Moore, the income of the same is to be divided share and share alike to and among her heirs until the youngest of said heirs shall have attained the age of 21 years, from and after which event the aloresaid described real estate is to become the roperty absolutely and in fee-simple of the heirs of the said Ann Jane Moore, they to take an equal portion in the same, and to make such disposition of said property as in their judgment they may deem best. To the Rev. Arthur Young, now of the County of Tyrone, Ireland, he leaves an anunity of £60 sterling; and to Elizabeth Benthal, of this city, and her daughter Luciuda, each an annuity of $250; and to his cousin, Armar J. Young, $300 per annum for his education until he attains the age of 21. Then he continues: - 'I hereby give and bequeath and devise all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, real, personal, and mixed, to my brother, David Young, of the city of Philadelphia, merchant; but as to any im proved real estate of which I am died seized or possessed, the same is not to be sold or disposed of during the life of my said brother; but should he die leaving issue, then none of the said improved real estate is to be sold during the life of said issue; but the income thereof is to be paid to them during the terms of natural lives, share and share alike; but should my brotner David and his children die without issue, then said improved real estate is hereby bequesthed to my said sister Ann Jane Moore and her helrs forever, and as to any unimproved real estate of which I may die seized and possessed, I hereby devise and bequeath the same to my said brother David Young.

The will was dated August 7, 1866. CHARGED WITH THE LARCENY OF JEWELRY AND A DIAMOND PIN .- John Brown, of No. 216 Acorn alley, was before Alderman R. R. Smith to-day, for a further hearing on the charge of the robbery of a gold hunting-case watch and chair, and a diamond breastplu, in all valued at $500, from the dwelling of Charles Ward, No. 14 Swanwick street, at 6 o'clock on Monday morning last. The testimony of Mr. Ward was to the effect that the rear window of his house was found open on the morning in question, as also was his front deor. The articles had been taken from his sleeping apartment, in the second story. Mr. and Mrs. Brown had made a visit to the dwelling of Mr. Ward the night previous, but had left at 11 o'clock. Mr. Manoover, who resides next door, and is imployed in the establishment of Messrs. King & Baird, saw, on the moraing stated, the de-fendant go up to Ward's house, try the front door, then leap over the alley-gate, and come ont of the house by the front door a few minutes afterwards. Brown was held in $2000 bail for his appearance at court. AN OFFICER BEATEN .- Policeman Nixon, of the Fifth district, about a week ago arrested at Fifth and South streets a drunken man. he was being taken to the station-house a friend named George Gelsser came up, struck the officer with a blackjack, and rescued the pris-oper. The drunken man cause, and Gelsser managed to get away. On Saturday last Officer Nixon unexpectedly came across Gelsser and arrested him. He was held in $500 ball by Alderman Carpenter.

GENERAL SHERMAN.

He Repudiates the New Orleans Speech.

Sir:-On Saturday evening, April 22, 1871, the Union League Club of New Orleans, of which Governor W. C. Warmoth is President, and myself Secretary and Treasurer, gave General W. T. Sherman a reception coupled with a compli-mentary dinner. About 100 persons were pre-sent, some of whom were colored men. I was not present at the reception given to the General by the American Union Club, so that I not able to speak of what he may have said on that occasion: but I made a careful report of what he did say on the occasion of the recep tion given by the club to which I belong, and have my original notes now with me. Genera! Sherman said:-

Mr. President, I am not much of a speaker; my forte is action, not speech-making. I do not wish my remarks this evening to be reported in the news papers, for I see that what I said on the occasion o another reception extended to me since my arrival has been entirely misrepresented, and I am credited with words I did not utter at all. I therefore kope there are no reporters here to serve this pleasant interview as they served the other to which I have

My duty as the Commander of the Army of the country keeps me employed in military matters, and by this employment I may be enabled to assist the nation in its civil and political interests, but I do not wish to be considered a politician. Istrive as well as I can to do what my official duty compets, and in doing that find myself amply employed. I do not seek any civil position whatever, and do not wish to be suspected of doing so. Indeed, I should posttively decline any offer of a civil or political posi-tion. I mean to devote my whole time in the future to the study of the military art, not with the view o lestroying, but as a means of promoting the good of all, even the lowest classes of our citizens.

Since the Democratic papers all over the country have said so much about these New Orleans receptions to General Sherman, and given place in their columns to words which (so far as the short speech at the Union League Club is concerned) he never uttered, I have thought it my duty to give you the unvarnished truth touching the affair. Respectfully,

THOMAS W. CONWAT. Fifth Avenue Hotel, May 4, 1871.

Signing of the English Treaty.

Special Despatch to the Evening Telegraph. Washington, May 8 .- The Auglo-American reaty was signed this morning, at the State Department, by all the commissioners. The British members of the commission left on the noon train for New York, carrying a duplicate copy of the treaty to be sent to Londen by special message. Schenck and the English commission have engaged passage on the steamer leaving the 28th of May. This indicates the expectation of speedy action of the Senate on the treaty.

An attempt to have the treaty considered at open session will not prevail. Mr. Morton says says if it was ever necessary to have a treaty onsidered in secret session this is the treaty. Several Senators arrived this morning. The indications are for a full Senate on Wednesday. Z The President did not return from Pennsylva-

Destruction of Property. WILMINGTON, May 8 .- A disastrous conflagration occurred here at noon to-day. The fire caught in the kindling-wood factory of George W. Bush, from the steamfengine, communicated to the oil-house attached to the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroad shops, and thence extended to the railroad pattern shops and locomotive round-house. The round-house contained some fifteen loconotives, and all took fire. Some will be hadly injured, and others not so much. Two other locomotives outside, one just built, are said to be destroyed. The loss of the rallroad company is very heavy, including the oil-house, patternhouse, round-house destroyed and locomotives burned as stated, and damage to the roofs of the general repair shops.

G. W. Bush loses the building, and a sloop which was burned at the wharf. At this time (1.30 P. M.) the flames are checked, and it is hoped there will be no more damage than as stated.

Synopsis of the English Treaty. WASHINGTON, May S .- Although the commissioners have been cautions in talking to persons outside of their own circle, the following points will be found to be correct:-

First. There are to be two boards of arbitration, or commissions. To one will be referred the Alabama and other similar claims which are recognized as national, and to be settled on the principle of responsibility for such depredations, where the Government has not exercised the utmost diligence and possible precaution to prevent privateers from being fitted out in its ports to prey upon the commerce of a power with whom it is at

The other board is to take cognizance of miscellaneous claims, British and American, confined principally to the period from the commencement to the close of our late civil war. Among these are the St. Alban's claims for damage to property in that town by Canadians. But no claims for the Fewian invasion of Canada are to be admitted. As to the claims of British subjects for seizures of their cotton, Great Britain, through its commission, does not recognize them in cases where such subjects took up their domicile in the South, as thereby they subjected themselves to all the risks and contingencies of war. All legitimate claims for cotton will, however, be considered, It has been reported without warrant that they will amount to thirteen or more millions. but this is considered to be a great exaggeration. They will not probably amount to a million of dollars. There will be no difficulty in ascertaining all the particulars, as the Treasury Department has full data of all the seizures of cotton, the names of the owners thereof, and all the particulars concerning the seizures. This Government is aware that a full list of British claims was recently published in that country, but it also has information that many of them have already been adjusted, while others will not come within the provisions of the treaty. Among the claims which will also come before this board will be that of our Government growing out of the purchase of saltpetre in the East Indies during the war, and which was seized by the British authorities. There are other miscellaneous claims which will come before this second board. The San Juan question will be referred to the arbitration of a friendly sovereign, probably the Emperor of Brazil. From the documents which will accompany the submission, it is believed that the decision cannot fall to be in favor of the Inited States. The treaty provides for the free navigation of the St. Lawrence by vessels of the United States, and for the use of the Canadian canals upon payment of regular tolls. There are also provisions regulating the privilege to fish in Canadian waters, but thes chave not been ascertained with sufficient accuracy to justify their statement. The London Times of to-day mistakes in saying that the treaty must be ratified by both houses of Parliament. Legislation will, however, be required only to carry some of its provisions into effect. Paper Contract Awarded to Philadelphians The contract for making the paper for the new internal revenue adiresive stamps has been awarded to James M. Wilcox & Co., of Philadelphia. The paper is to be tinted, so that any attempt to remove the cancellation of the stamp will destroy the original color of the paper. It will also have a blue fibre running through it. FROM DEAAWARE

Sr. Louis, May 8 .- General McDonald, Supervisor of Internal Revenue, has just returned from a business trip to the southern part of the State, and denies that he has called upon the President for troops to suppress the Ku-klux in the Second district of Missouri, as reported from Washington.

The General states, however, that some three weeks ago he asked authority and means to employ forces sufficient to enable collectors to collect revenue from illicit distillers in the southeastern part of the State. Collector Murdock has several times been opposed by armed bands of these illicit distillers and their employes or friends, and once or twice has been fired upon, and General McDonald has a ked for an increased force of deputy collectors, so as to cope with armed resistance to the enforcement law, but at no time has he called for troops, either to suppress Ku-Klux or collect

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

Strange Shooting Affair at Paterson, N. J. On Saturday a gentleman named Mr. Hubbell, temporarily stopping at his wife's residence in Main street, Paterson, was putting on his coat when he was startled be the report of a pistol. Instantly a girl employed in the house fell to the floor, screaming that she was shot. Mr. Hubbell gave the alarm that they were attacked by burglars, and all hands were placed as guards upon the doors and the house searched but no ntruders could be discovered, and where the shot came from was a mystery. Surgical aid was immediately summoned and the injured girl's wounds examined. It was found the bullet had passed through her side, inflicting a painful and ugly wound, but one that was not necessarily fatal, and the doctors think there is no possible doubt of her speedy recovery Subsequently Mr. Hubbell bethought him of a revolver he had in his pocket, and upon examipation it was discovered that it contained an empty cartridge that had been exploded, and a hole in his coat through which the ball had passed. It is supposed the coat had struck against something that caused its discharge. But the most singular thing is that Mr. Hubbell did not keep his revolver loaded, but kept the barrel separately in the same pocket with loose cartridges. It is supposed that one of the cartriges somenow or other worked into the barrel, and then exploded by some such accidental con-
