AN EVENT EXTRAORDINARY.

The Departure of the Great and Good Horace Greeley for Texas.

At 8 o'clock yesterday morning a carriage was driven to the Tribune office. A coachman and a russet leather trunk lettered "H. G." sat upon the box. As soon as the carriage stopped, it was seen by old Mr. Jenny, of the Tribune editorial staff. Old Mr. Jenny was of course crazy until he had learned who the carriage was A small boy told him it was for Mr. Greeley, whereupon old Mr. Jenny dashed up the stairs leading to Mr. Greeley's room, and breath-lessly informed him of the fact that the carriage was waiting. Mr. Greeley stopped writing, drew his spectacles from his nose, put a wide-brimmed hat on his head side foremost, slipped his arms into a brown spring overcoat, leaving the collar turned under, seized a small leather bag, and sloped for the counting-room.

"Tell Sam," said he to old Mr. Jenny, "not to take any lottery advertisements while I'm gone, and to watch the quack ads. I'm going to Texas.

The last words reached old Mr. Jenny's ears as Mr. Greeley struck the sidewalk. On approaching the carriage, Mr. Greeley stopped as if he had forgotten something. Old Mr. Jenny saw him. He rushed to his side.

"And tell Whitelaw," said Mr. Greeley, while his eyes beamed on old Mr. Jenny, "that he had better watch Hassard's letters from Boston, for he is a Catholic, and he might say something that our country readers wouldn't like. And tell Whitelaw," continued Mr. Greeley, as old Mr. Jenny was about to rush into the office, "that I want him to watch the papers and print the official election returns from Alaska, because our people expect to see them. Tell him to put them in nonpareil half-measure, like election returns from Connecticut. And, Ephraim, tell Whitelaw," continued Mr. Greeley, as old Mr. Jenny made another attempt to dash into the office, 'not to print any more d—d stuff about abducted girls or panel-Our people have got enough of that sort of thing."
The wide-brimmed hat and Mr. Greeley were safely deposited in the ticket office. Mr. Greeley stared vacantly for a moment at the ticket agent. Suddenly collecting himself, he felt in four pockets consecutively, and then seemed to again lose himself in thought. After another mental rally, he pushed up a through ticket on the Pan Handle line for Cincinnati, and approached Dick Shields, the baggage clerk. 'I want that check trunked to-to-to Cincinnati," said Mr. Greeley, hesitatingly, "for I'm going to Texas." He will arrive in New Orleans on Sunday, and will dine with the representatives of the press. On Tuesday he will go to Galveston, and thence to several smaller towns, arriving in Houston about the 23d, where he will deliver an address before the State Agricultural Society .- New

THE MURDER OF MRS. PETERS.

Capture of the Supposed Murderer. A person who is believed to be the one who was seen lurking about the farm of Mr. Peters, six miles south of Belleville, on the day of the murder of Mrs. Mary Peters, was caught in the woods about fourteen miles south of Potosi Missouri, on Friday last, by James D. Arnold and E. F. Quine, acting deputy shoriffs of Washington county. Immediately after the arrest had been made, the fact was telegraphed to Sheriff Hughes, of St. Clair county, Illinols, who in response telegraphed the sheriff of Washington county, Mr. J. T. Clarke, to hold the prisoner. On Monday Sheriff Hughes, accompanied by Mr. Charles T. Askins, of Centreville, went down for the accused, and brought him to St. Louis yesterday morning. They then took him to Believille, where he was at once placed in the county jail.

The news of the capture soon spread through the news of the capture soon spread through the surrounding country, and hundreds of peo-ple came in expecting that the preliminary ex-amination would come off in the afternoon. A large crowd of people congregated about the court-house, where they remained till a late hour in the evening. The murder was fully and freely discussed but no disturbance took place. freely discussed, but no disturbance took place. No definite time has yet been fixed for the preliminary examination, which will probably not take place for several days. Precautionary measures have been taken for the protection and security of the prisoner.

The accused says his name is Joseph White, and that he is twenty-six years of age. He is an Irishman by birth, and has resided in the United States about six and a half years. On the way up he stated to the officers who had him in charge that he had been confined in the jall at Baltimore, and also that he had served a term of six months in the work-house in the city of Louisville, Ky. He tells many conflicting stories, but says that he was in the seighborhood on the evening of the occurrence of the murder, and that he had quarrelled with Mrs.

Peters because she had declined to provide him with supper. He also admitted that he had been in the little town of Centreville on the day of the murder, and while there he had gone into a store and begged for some matches, which were given him, as has been previously stated by us. When arrested he had on a different pair of when arrested he had on a different pair of pantaloons from those worn on the day of the murder, but still retained the old pair which he had tied up in a red handkerchief, and which gave token that they had recently been washed. There is a spot or stain on one of the legs of the pantaloons which has the appearance of blood. He manifests no concern whatever.

Much credit is due the officials of Washington county for effecting the arrest of White, and county for effecting the arrest of White, and also for guarding him safely after his capture and incarceration. — St. Louis Republican,

FRIGHTFUL MURDER.

A Young Man Kills his Mother and Sister. From the Terre Haute Express, May 4.

A terrible homicide was committed on Saturday morning about two and a half miles from Newton, in Jasper county, Iil. A young man by the name of Lafayette Shepherd killed his mother and young sister in a most brutal manner. The old woman and the girl went out to the stable in the morning to the girl went out to the stable in the morning to milk the cows, when they were set upon by the son with an axe, and so horribly mangled that the mother died in a few minutes, and the girl after lingering a few hours. Shepherd immediately fled from the neighborhood, but was pursued and caught on Saturday evening at Olney, where he was hiding. He is said to be insane. His brothers and sisters attempted to screen the act of the brother, and gave a false account of the manner in which the injuries to their mother and sister were inflicted, and as to the whereabouts of Lafayette. The whole family were promptly arrested and taken to Marshall, Lafayette charged with murder, and the balance as accessories to the fact. There was a hearing on habeas corpus before fact. There was a hearing on habeas corpus before Justice Decius progressing on yesterday at Marshall for the purpose of procuring the release of the brothers and sisters, but had not been determined at the time our informant left. There is great excitement in the neighborhood where the act was committed, and the whole family are threatened with lynch law.

CITY ITEMS.

TO CONSUMPTIVES .- WILBOR'S COD LIVER OIL AND LIME has now been before the public for ten years, and has steadily grown into favor and appreciation. This could not be the case unless the preparation was of undoubted and high intrinsic value. The combination of the Phosphate of Lime with pure Cod Liver Oil, as prepared by Dr. Wilbor, has produced a new phase in the treatment of Consumption and all diseases of the Lungs. This article can be taken by the most delicate invalid without creating the disgusting nausea which is such a prominent objection to the Cod Liver Oil when taken without Lime. This preparation is prescribed by the regular faculty, and sold by the proprietor, wholesale and retail, A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, No. 166 Court Street, Boston, and by druggists generally.

We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis, for temporary or permanent invesments, with Governments or any other security. These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to nesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no deubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago Burlington, and Quincy Railroad Company ob igating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings de-rived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids, and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redermition.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds ena-bles them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns $\foatsymbol{y}$ per cent.
