Mr Storrs, General Coal Agent of the Lacka wanna Railroad, last evening assured the la borers of that company that if the miners refuse to accept the proposition in question the mines will at once be thrown open to the laborers, and they will be invited to enter the mines upon the terms named by Mr. Dickson. In the present temper of the miners there is no doubt that serious disturbances will ensue if the laborers enter the mines. The Welsh miners here told your correspondent this morning that they would never work again till better terms were offered. All is quiet to-day.

United States Circuit Court-Important Patent Case-Torpedo Case. Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. PITTSBURG, May 13. - In the case of Roberts vs. Dickey and others, argued before Judges Strong and McKennan in Washington, Judge Strong delivered an opinion in favor of the plaintiffs, sustaining the Roberts patent on all points. This secures to the plaintiff the monopoly of torpedoes in oil wells. The case was argued by Harding and Bakewell for plaintiffs and C. M. Keller and Blake for defendants.
